Great, I will add the 002 section of 410 to the schedule and will reach out to Rich Prater to get that scheduled.

As it stands now we have Tae scheduled for PA470 In-Person and Online... Angela - please correct if I am wrong, but would assigning him to 480 require additional funds, as he will be potentially teaching 3 courses? (Just something to keep in mind).

I will plan to send an updated schedule out at the weeks end, hopefully by then all the adjuncts will be solidified!

Great, thanks.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

Hello All!

I have noted these updates in the workbook and will begin contacting adjuncts today.

I will have 480 scheduled not to print, until we decide if we want to run the course.

Regarding 410 – it looks like we have been offering 2 in-person sections for a few terms now, going back to Fall 2019 both sections seem to fill pretty well, with the two sections averaging 39 seats each; let me know your thoughts on offering the 2nd in-person section.

Thank you!

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

Happy Monday all-

I only have one thought and it is for 480—it is only offered once a year in the fall and will need to be online for future offerings. Could we ask the advisors if it will be ok to skip a fall offering before we scrap it? I worry for our seniors who need it to graduate, but maybe we have a standard substitute.

I left my responses below (bold and underlined - hope it stands out enough!). I can chat with Edella about developing PA 480. And Sabryna, if we could look into how many seats we should have for 410, that would be useful. I looked at a few recent semesters and think we'll be okay with one in-person and one online section, but wanted to be sure.

Hope you all had a good Thanksgiving!

Thanks, Sabryna,

Really appreciate the update. Hope you have had a nice thanksgiving break.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 – What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CJS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

Thank you!

I am just thinking in case there are any obvious classes that we might well have one of our new CT or TT faculty teach instead. At most, this would be one or two classes. But probably none is the more accurate number

Thanks, Angela.

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!

6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.
- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Sounds like we'll leave the caps as they are now – if we do want to change them later, that is something we can do closer to the term or after registration.

I removed Tommaso's course and added Weber for POL325 – thank you for catching those, Alex!

I will share the summer offerings to distance and schedule a few seats for them.

I believe Elizabeth will be sharing the catalog with course titles for you all.

Let me know if you I missed anything!

In terms of seat capacity, I think it makes sense for us to keep most of the upper division at 40 or 50. So, perhaps the only decision in the shorter term would be if we want to cap any of the intro classes lower. We have 200 and 300, respectively, for the POL201 classes. I suspect we might get 400 students between the two, rather than 500. So, maybe we can lower the Frank number a little? Of course, if this makes it tougher with RCS, then it is probably not worth bothering.

This is great, thanks!

Agreed on the distance seats for summer. They are welcome to a few seats.

SBS is looking at the % unfilled, so we could look at that. It's a bit awkward, since we'll want to minimize the unfilled % but also not bake in different course capacities for different instructors/classes. I'm envisioning equity complaints. Maybe there's some sort of rule we can come up with, like all "methods-y classes will be capped at 30", or something?

Thanks for the list of classes. I can also take a look and brainstorm, and I'll also think about potential new classes the new hires can do (a CJ inequalities class being top among them).

Best,
Kirssa

Thanks so much, Sabryna.

I think this looks fantastic. My sense is that Summer is ready to go. I do not anticipate any changes there. I am fine with us offering some of the seats for distance. The more the merrier!

1. For fall, [REDACTED] So, we need to remove his other class from the schedule: POL472. I suspect we will just not offer that class.
2. I notice that Alexander Cloudt is listed as teaching POL325. Was this change made because he replaced Weber in Spring 2023? If so, then I think we will revert back to Weber teaching 325 in Fall 2023.
3. I think we can work on filling 241, 470, and 480 as we move forward.
4. I understand that MENAS are a bit slow on new courses, because they have a long internal approval process.

Only other thought is whether we want to reduce any of the large seat capacities, just to manage the ultimate % of seats that will be unfilled, if this is something SBS is looking at. What do you think, Kirssa?

Otherwise, I do not see any other changes that are needed for now.

Recall, though, that we are in the process of finalizing contracts for three new tenure track assistant professors. They will each teach (probably) one or (less likely) two classes in Fall. We will work on conversations with each of them as the semester progresses.

With the above point in mind, is anyone able to share with me the full catalog of courses that we have on the books? (I for some reason always struggle to find the online catalog that is not limited to any single semester.) I will use this to see if we have existing courses on the books that new hires can teach.

Cheers

Hello All!

The open scheduling window for Fall/Summer 2023 is closing soon, as such I wanted to send out the schedule as it is now for both Fall and Summer (see attached) with notes below.

Fall 2023 Notes

- PA/SOC241-101/201, 7.5 Week II – Instructor is listed as TBD
- PA470-101/201/401, 7.5Week I – Instructor is listed as TBD
- PA480-101/201, Regular Session – Instructor is listed as TBD
- I've received no update regarding Carolyn's MENAS New course
- As discussed I have 'hidden' all 101 sections that also have an in-person section being offered

Summer 2023 Notes

- Victoria Meyer, Director of the Distance Campus, has requested to have a few Distance Campus seats for summer – historically we have only offered Distance Campus seats for Fall (usually for one 200 level course and for one 300/400 level course), over the last few Fall

Terms that we have given Distance campus seats, they averaged an enrollment of 3 seats between the 2 courses we typically offer; I wanted to connect with you all to see how we feel about offering Distance campus seats in summer, since it seems like something we haven't done recently.

Many Thanks,

Hello All,

Thanks so much Sabryna- this looks great. The Layout is looking much more evenly spaced out for pressure point class time as well.

The advisors have agreed that they like the idea of the 'hidden' 101 sections that they can hand enroll only the neediest of students (mostly seniors). I think that if we have an in-person section, we can 'hide' the 10, 101 seats and open the rest to 201 & 401. If we get to a point where the course isn't filling to capacity, we can consider enrolling more in the 101 sections as we get closer to the start of the semester. And I know the online advisors would really appreciate the additional seat capacity.

Thanks, Sabryna!

I'm thinking we might want to do a breakdown similar to what Alex suggests, but at least for some of the classes, we should "hide" the 101 seats so students cannot find it when they search. This is based on the logic that a main campus student should go to in-person courses when they are available, and students are very pushy about getting into online classes if they think they are available.

If we hide the 101 seats, it could be an advisor prerogative to offer the online version of a class for any students who really need it online.

What I haven't worked out yet is whether this should be all classes or just a selection of them, or how to break down the 101/201 seats if we do want to fully hide the online classes from our main campus students.

I can think more about those questions - but what do you all think about that as a general approach? Or should we continue to list 101 sections for main campus students to find and alter the seat balance?

Thanks so much, Sabryna.

Please do add 338 for me. Thanks! That time slot works well.

In terms of the main campus and online: I think we should limit. This should also be true for POL201.

- For a class with a 40 person cap, I think it makes sense to have 10 in 101 sections, 20 in 201 sections, and 10 in reserve.
- For 60 person caps, perhaps 10 in 101 sections, 30 in 201 sections, and 20 in reserve. This will also help us to force some balance between the two sessions for the intro classes.

Does that seem reasonable, Kirssa and Elizabeth? Feel free to suggest an alternative.

Cheers

For PA470, I think having an in person option (full semester) and at least one online option is probably a good minimum. However, we could probably afford to have an online option in both semesters. So, feel free to up to one in person full semester and one online in each session and we can work on filling any empty instructor roles.

All sounds great. Thanks, Sabryna.

I think I might try a bit of something new for my teaching next Fall.

I like the idea of teaching PA/POL388 Refugee and Immigration Policy.

I also quite like the idea of teaching this in the hybrid format that Jenny Carlson uses in her PA338. Given hers is in session 1, perhaps I could offer mine in session 2?

I am flexible on days and times. I noticed that Tuesday and Thursday when POL201 is being taught, the schedule is otherwise wide open. Does that kind of time frame make sense? Presumably, there is a small overlap in students interested /needing 201 and 388, but maybe that slot is an option? Happy to take advice on alternative time slots, including MW and MWF, if we are trying to avoid any classes overlapping with 201.

Hello All,

Thank for the responses!

- I've noted Frank for 201 and have added 241 to the schedule
- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!
- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online
- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions/concerns!

Thank you!

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Yes. Many thanks, Sabryna.

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him, Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.
2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.
5. In terms of summer:
 - a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
 - b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.
 - c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):

POL201 in both sessions

POL202 in both sessions

POL204 in one session

POL206 in one session

POL325 in one session

POL417 in one session

POL419 in one session

PA470 in one session

Cheers

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) – since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)
- Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online –

- he feel students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stand now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
 - I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue(POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
 - I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments
 - I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also Included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

Thank you!

I think it might make sense to just sign Tae up for two courses for now.

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as "staff" and in need of an instructor.

Great, thanks.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

I have noted these updates in the workbook and will begin contacting adjuncts today.

I will have 480 scheduled not to print, until we decide if we want to run the course.

Regarding 410 – it looks like we have been offering 2 in-person sections for a few terms now, going back to Fall 2019 both sections seem to fill pretty well, with the two sections averaging 39 seats each; let me know your thoughts on offering the 2nd in-person section.

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

I only have one thought and it is for 480—it is only offered once a year in the fall and will need to be online for future offerings. Really appreciate the update. Hope you have had a nice thanksgiving break.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed -- I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 – What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CIS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

Cheers

Hi Alex,

Thanks for all the feedback— I will try to respond here—

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok).
2. Javier noted that
3. Yay... I think... more of a 'gulp' than a 'yay'
4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23
5. We will reach out to Charlotte to see if she could offer an in-person of PA 410 in Fall 23
6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.
9. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!
6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.

9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15.

Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.
- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210
- Amaru, Jake POL 309
- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE
- Brody, Stuart PA 330
- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE
- Wilson, Chris PA 332
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348
- Hand, Frank PA 351
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE
- Prater, Richard PA 410
- Gordell, Kelly POL 201, POL 202, POL 413, POL 468 maybe
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?)
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 419 ONLINE

I'm sure I have missed something- but this is my notes so far. Thanks again Sabryna!

In terms of seat capacity, I think it makes sense for us to keep most of the upper division at 40 or 50. So, perhaps the only decision in the shorter term would be if we want to cap any of the intro classes lower. We have 200 and 300, respectively, for the POL201 classes. I suspect we might get 400 students between the two, rather than 500. So, maybe we can lower the Frank number a little? Of course, if this makes it tougher with RCS, then it is probably not worth bothering.

This is great, thanks!

Agreed on the distance seats for summer. They are welcome to a few seats.

SBS is looking at the % unfilled, so we could look at that. It's a bit awkward, since we'll want to minimize the unfilled % but also not bake in different course capacities for different instructors/classes. I'm envisioning equity complaints. Maybe there's some sort of rule we can come up with, like all "methods-y classes will be capped at 30", or something?

Thanks for the list of classes. I can also take a look and brainstorm, and I'll also think about potential new classes the new hires can do (a CJ inequalities class being top among them).

Best,
Kirssa

Thanks so much, Sabryna.

I think this looks fantastic. My sense is that Summer is ready to go. I do not anticipate any changes there. I am fine with us offering some of the seats for distance. The more the merrier!

1. For fall, [REDACTED] So, we need to remove his other class from the schedule: POL472. I suspect we will just not offer that class.
2. I notice that Alexander Cloudt is listed as teaching POL325. Was this change made because he replaced Weber in Spring 2023? If so, then I think we will revert back to Weber teaching 325 in Fall 2023.
3. I think we can work on filling 241, 470, and 480 as we move forward.
4. I understand that MENAS are a bit slow on new courses, because they have a long internal approval process.

Only other thought is whether we want to reduce any of the large seat capacities, just to manage the ultimate % of seats that will be unfilled, if this is something SBS is looking at. What do you think, Kirssa?

Otherwise, I do not see any other changes that are needed for now.

Recall, though, that we are in the process of finalizing contracts for three new tenure track assistant professors. They will each teach (probably) one or (less likely) two classes in Fall. We will work on conversations with each of them as the semester progresses.

With the above point in mind, is anyone able to share with me the full catalog of courses that we have on the books? (I for some reason always struggle to find the online catalog that is not limited to any single semester.) I will use this to see if we have existing courses on the books that new hires can teach.

Cheers

Hello All!

The open scheduling window for Fall/Summer 2023 is closing soon, as such I wanted to send out the schedule as it is now for both Fall and Summer (see attached) with notes below.

Fall 2023 Notes

- PA/SOC241-101/201, 7.5 Week II – Instructor is listed as TBD
- PA470-101/201/401, 7.5Week I – Instructor is listed as TBD
- PA480-101/201, Regular Session – Instructor is listed as TBD
- I've received no update regarding Carolyn's MENAS New course
- As discussed I have 'hidden' all 101 sections that also have an in-person section being offered

Summer 2023 Notes

- Victoria Meyer, Director of the Distance Campus, has requested to have a few Distance Campus seats for summer – historically we have only offered Distance Campus seats for Fall (usually for one 200 level course and for one 300/400 level course), over the last few Fall Terms that we have given Distance campus seats, they averaged an enrollment of 3 seats between the 2 courses we typically offer; I wanted to connect with you all to see how we feel about offering Distance campus seats in summer, since it seems like something we haven't done recently.

Many Thanks,

Hello All,

Thanks so much Sabryna- this looks great. The Layout is looking much more evenly spaced out for pressure point class time as well.

The advisors have agreed that they like the idea of the 'hidden' 101 sections that they can hand enroll only the neediest of students (mostly seniors). I think that if we have an in-person section, we can 'hide' the 10, 101 seats and open the rest to 201 & 401. If we get to a point where the course isn't filling to capacity, we can consider enrolling more in the 101 sections as we get closer to the start of the semester. And I know the online advisors would really appreciate the additional seat capacity.

Thanks, Sabryna!

I'm thinking we might want to do a breakdown similar to what Alex suggests, but at least for some of the classes, we should "hide" the 101 seats so students cannot find it when they search. This is based on the logic that a main campus student should go to in-person courses when they are available, and students are very pushy about getting into online classes if they think they are available.

If we hide the 101 seats, it could be an advisor prerogative to offer the online version of a class for any students who really need it online.

What I haven't worked out yet is whether this should be all classes or just a selection of them, or how to break down the 101/201 seats if we do want to fully hide the online classes from our main campus students.

I can think more about those questions - but what do you all think about that as a general approach? Or should we continue to list 101 sections for main campus students to find and alter the seat balance?

Thanks so much, Sabryna.

Please do add 338 for me. Thanks! That time slot works well.

In terms of the main campus and online: I think we should limit. This should also be true for POL201.

- For a class with a 40 person cap, I think it makes sense to have 10 in 101 sections, 20 in 201 sections, and 10 in reserve.
- For 60 person caps, perhaps 10 in 101 sections, 30 in 201 sections, and 20 in reserve. This will also help us to force some balance between the two sessions for the intro classes.

Does that seem reasonable, Kirssa and Elizabeth? Feel free to suggest an alternative.

Cheers

Thanks, Sabryna,

For PA470, I think having an in person option (full semester) and at least one online option is probably a good minimum. However, we could probably afford to have an online option in both semesters. So, feel free to up to one in person full semester and one online in each session and we can work on filling any empty instructor roles.

Hi all,

A few more notes from me...

- For Alex's class, I think the Tu/Th option from 12:30pm – 1:45pm would work well
- PA470 – In entering the schedule it came to my attention that we typically offer 3 sections of this course – currently we have only 2 sections planned – are we okay with this?
- PA/POL479 – Still waiting to hear back from Courtney

Once Alex's class is added, I'll send an updated schedule!

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

All sounds great. Thanks, Sabryna.

I think I might try a bit of something new for my teaching next Fall.

I like the idea of teaching PA/POL388 Refugee and Immigration Policy.

I also quite like the idea of teaching this in the hybrid format that Jenny Carlson uses in her PA338. Given hers is in session 1, perhaps I could offer mine in session 2?

I am flexible on days and times. I noticed that Tuesday and Thursday when POL201 is being taught, the schedule is otherwise wide open. Does that kind of time frame make sense? Presumably, there is a small overlap in students interested /needing 201 and 388, but maybe that slot is an option? Happy to take advice on alternative time slots, including MW and MWF, if we are trying to avoid any classes overlapping with 201.

Cheers

Hello All,

Thank for the responses!

- I've noted Frank for 201 and have added 241 to the schedule
- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!
- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online
- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions/concerns!

Yes. Many thanks, Sabryna.

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him, Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.
2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.

5. In terms of summer:

- a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
- b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.
- c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):

POL201 in both sessions

POL202 in both sessions

POL204 in one session

POL206 in one session

POL325 in one session

POL417 in one session

POL419 in one session

PA470 in one session

Cheers

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) – since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)
- Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feel students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stand now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue(POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments
- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also Included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as "staff" and in need of an instructor.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 – What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CJS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Hi Alex,

I am working on getting all of these updates into the workbook – regarding Betsy Palmer and Brandon Tyron, since they are MYL, would it be okay if I reach out to them to confirm their classes for Fall? For Brandon we are thinking POL 309 & POL470 ONLINE and for Betsy POL 407 and/or POL408

Let me know!

Thank you!

Thanks. Once you have all the updates from our back and forth added to the schedule, do you mind sending through a revised copy of the schedule so that Kirssa and I can take another quick look to make sure there are none of the adjunct classes that we want to hold off on for longer. I am just thinking in case there are any obvious classes that we might well have one of our new CT or TT faculty teach instead. At most, this would be one or two classes. But probably none is the more accurate number

Thanks, Angela.

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

Cheers

3. Yay... I think... more of a 'gulp' than a 'yay'
4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23
5. We will reach out to Charlotte to see if she could offer an in-person of PA 410 in Fall 23
6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!
6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.
- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210
- Amaru, Jake POL 309
- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE
- Brody, Stuart PA 330
- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE
- Wilson, Chris PA 332
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348
- Hand, Frank PA 351
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE
- Prater, Richard PA 410
- Gordell, Kelly POL 201, POL 202, POL 413, POL 468 maybe
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?)
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 419 ONLINE

I'm sure I have missed something- but this is my notes so far. Thanks again Sabryna!

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Thanks so much, Sabryna.

I think this looks fantastic. My sense is that Summer is ready to go. I do not anticipate any changes there. I am fine with us offering some of the seats for distance. The more the merrier!

1. For fall, [REDACTED] So, we need to remove his other class from the schedule: POL472. I suspect we will just not offer that class.
2. I notice that Alexander Cloudt is listed as teaching POL325. Was this change made because he replaced Weber in Spring 2023? If so, then I think we will revert back to Weber teaching 325 in Fall 2023.
3. I think we can work on filling 241, 470, and 480 as we move forward.
4. I understand that MENAS are a bit slow on new courses, because they have a long internal approval process.

Only other thought is whether we want to reduce any of the large seat capacities, just to manage the ultimate % of seats that will be unfilled, if this is something SBS is looking at. What do you think, Kirssa?

Otherwise, I do not see any other changes that are needed for now.

Recall, though, that we are in the process of finalizing contracts for three new tenure track assistant professors. They will each teach (probably) one or (less likely) two classes in Fall. We will work on conversations with each of them as the semester progresses.

With the above point in mind, is anyone able to share with me the full catalog of courses that we have on the books? (I for some reason always struggle to find the online catalog that is not limited to any single semester.) I will use this to see if we have existing courses on the books that new hires can teach.

Hello All!

The open scheduling window for Fall/Summer 2023 is closing soon, as such I wanted to send out the schedule as it is now for both Fall and Summer (see attached) with notes below.

Fall 2023 Notes

- PA/SOC241-101/201, 7.5 Week II – Instructor is listed as TBD
- PA470-101/201/401, 7.5Week I – Instructor is listed as TBD
- PA480-101/201, Regular Session – Instructor is listed as TBD
- I've received no update regarding Carolyn's MENAS New course
- As discussed I have 'hidden' all 101 sections that also have an in-person section being offered

Summer 2023 Notes

- Victoria Meyer, Director of the Distance Campus, has requested to have a few Distance Campus seats for summer – historically we have only offered Distance Campus seats for Fall (usually for one 200 level course and for one 300/400 level course), over the last few Fall Terms that we have given Distance campus seats, they averaged an enrollment of 3 seats between the 2 courses we typically offer; I wanted to connect with you all to see how we feel about offering Distance campus seats in summer, since it seems like something we haven't done recently.

Many Thanks,

Hello All,

Thanks so much Sabryna- this looks great. The Layout is looking much more evenly spaced out for pressure point class time as well.

The advisors have agreed that they like the idea of the 'hidden' 101 sections that they can hand enroll only the neediest of students (mostly seniors). I think that if we have an in-person section, we can 'hide' the 10, 101 seats and open the rest to 201 & 401. If we get to a point where the course isn't filling to capacity, we can consider enrolling more in the 101 sections as we get closer to the start of the semester. And I know the online advisors would really appreciate the additional seat capacity.

Thanks, Sabryna!

I'm thinking we might want to do a breakdown similar to what Alex suggests, but at least for some of the classes, we should "hide" the 101 seats so students cannot find it when they search. This is based on the logic that a main campus student should go to in-person courses when they are available, and students are very pushy about getting into online classes if they think they are available.

If we hide the 101 seats, it could be an advisor prerogative to offer the online version of a class for any students who really need it online.

What I haven't worked out yet is whether this should be all classes or just a selection of them, or how to break down the 101/201 seats if we do want to fully hide the online classes from our main campus students.

I can think more about those questions - but what do you all think about that as a general approach? Or should we continue to list 101 sections for main campus students to find and alter the seat balance?

Thanks so much, Sabryna.

Please do add 338 for me. Thanks! That time slot works well.

In terms of the main campus and online: I think we should limit. This should also be true for POL201.

- For a class with a 40 person cap, I think it makes sense to have 10 in 101 sections, 20 in 201 sections, and 10 in reserve.
- For 60 person caps, perhaps 10 in 101 sections, 30 in 201 sections, and 20 in reserve. This will also help us to force some balance between the two sessions for the intro classes.

Does that seem reasonable, Kirssa and Elizabeth? Feel free to suggest an alternative.

Cheers

Thanks, Sabryna,

For PA470, I think having an in person option (full semester) and at least one online option is probably a good minimum. However, we could probably afford to have an online option in both semesters. So, feel free to up to one in person full semester and one online in each session and we can work on filling any empty instructor roles.

Hi all,

A few more notes from me...

- For Alex's class, I think the Tu/Th option from 12:30pm – 1:45pm would work well
- PA470 – In entering the schedule it came to my attention that we typically offer 3 sections of this course – currently we have only 2 sections planned – are we okay with this?
- PA/POL479 – Still waiting to hear back from Courtney

Once Alex's class is added, I'll send an updated schedule!

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

All sounds great. Thanks, Sabryna.

I think I might try a bit of something new for my teaching next Fall.

I like the idea of teaching PA/POL388 Refugee and Immigration Policy.

I also quite like the idea of teaching this in the hybrid format that Jenny Carlson uses in her PA338. Given hers is in session 1, perhaps I could offer mine in session 2?

I am flexible on days and times. I noticed that Tuesday and Thursday when POL201 is being taught, the schedule is otherwise wide open. Does that kind of time frame make sense? Presumably, there is a small overlap in students interested /needing 201 and 388, but maybe that slot is an option? Happy to take advice on alternative time slots, including MW and MWF, if we are trying to avoid any classes overlapping with 201.

Cheers

Hello All,

Thank for the responses!

- I've noted Frank for 201 and have added 241 to the schedule
- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!
- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online
- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions/concerns!

Thank you!

Yes. Many thanks, Sabryna.

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him, Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.
2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.
5. In terms of summer:
 - a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
 - b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.
 - c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):

POL201 in both sessions

POL202 in both sessions

POL204 in one session

POL206 in one session

POL325 in one session

POL417 in one session

POL419 in one session

PA470 in one session

Cheers

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) – since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)
- Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feels students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stands now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue (POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments
- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

Thank you!

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as "staff" and in need of an instructor.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 --What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CJS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]

- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Hi Alex,

I am working on getting all of these updates into the workbook – regarding Betsy Palmer and Brandon Tyron, since they are MYL, would it be okay if I reach out to them to confirm their classes for Fall? For Brandon we are thinking POL 309 & POL470 ONLINE and for Betsy POL 407 and/or POL408

Let me know!

Thanks. Once you have all the updates from our back and forth added to the schedule, do you mind sending through a revised copy of the schedule so that Kirssa and I can take another quick look to make sure there are none of the adjunct classes that we want to hold off on for longer. I am just thinking in case there are any obvious classes that we might well have one of our new CT or TT faculty teach instead. At most, this would be one or two classes. But probably none is the more accurate number

Thanks, Angela.

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

Cheers

4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23

6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!

6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.
- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

Thanks so much, Sabryna.

I think this looks fantastic. My sense is that Summer is ready to go. I do not anticipate any changes there. I am fine with us offering some of the seats for distance. The more the merrier!

1. For fall, [REDACTED] So, we need to remove his other class from the schedule: POL472. I suspect we will just not offer that class.
2. I notice that Alexander Cloudt is listed as teaching POL325. Was this change made because he replaced Weber in Spring 2023? If so, then I think we will revert back to Weber teaching 325 in Fall 2023.
3. I think we can work on filling 241, 470, and 480 as we move forward.

4. I understand that MENAS are a bit slow on new courses, because they have a long internal approval process.

Only other thought is whether we want to reduce any of the large seat capacities, just to manage the ultimate % of seats that will be unfilled, if this is something SBS is looking at. What do you think, Kirssa?

Otherwise, I do not see any other changes that are needed for now.

Recall, though, that we are in the process of finalizing contracts for three new tenure track assistant professors. They will each teach (probably) one or (less likely) two classes in Fall. We will work on conversations with each of them as the semester progresses.

With the above point in mind, is anyone able to share with me the full catalog of courses that we have on the books? (I for some reason always struggle to find the online catalog that is not limited to any single semester.) I will use this to see if we have existing courses on the books that new hires can teach.

Cheers

Hello All!

The open scheduling window for Fall/Summer 2023 is closing soon, as such I wanted to send out the schedule as it is now for both Fall and Summer (see attached) with notes below.

Fall 2023 Notes

- PA/SOC241-101/201, 7.5 Week II – Instructor is listed as TBD
- PA470-101/201/401, 7.5Week I – Instructor is listed as TBD
- PA480-101/201, Regular Session – Instructor is listed as TBD
- I've received no update regarding Carolyn's MENAS New course
- As discussed I have 'hidden' all 101 sections that also have an in-person section being offered

Summer 2023 Notes

- Victoria Meyer, Director of the Distance Campus, has requested to have a few Distance Campus seats for summer – historically we have only offered Distance Campus seats for Fall (usually for one 200 level course and for one 300/400 level course), over the last few Fall Terms that we have given Distance campus seats, they averaged an enrollment of 3 seats between the 2 courses we typically offer; I wanted to connect with you all to see how we feel about offering Distance campus seats in summer, since it seems like something we haven't done recently.

Many Thanks,

Hello All,

Thanks so much Sabryna- this looks great. The Layout is looking much more evenly spaced out for pressure point class time as well.

The advisors have agreed that they like the idea of the 'hidden' 101 sections that they can hand enroll only the neediest of students (mostly seniors). I think that if we have an in-person section, we can 'hide' the 10, 101 seats and open the rest to 201 & 401. If we get to a point where the course isn't filling to capacity, we can consider enrolling more in the 101 sections as we get closer to the start of the semester. And I know the online advisors would really appreciate the additional seat capacity.

Thanks, Sabryna!

I'm thinking we might want to do a breakdown similar to what Alex suggests, but at least for some of the classes, we should "hide" the 101 seats so students cannot find it when they search. This is based on the logic that a main campus student should go to in-person courses when they are available, and students are very pushy about getting into online classes if they think they are available.

If we hide the 101 seats, it could be an advisor prerogative to offer the online version of a class for any students who really need it online.

What I haven't worked out yet is whether this should be all classes or just a selection of them, or how to break down the 101/201 seats if we do want to fully hide the online classes from our main campus students.

I can think more about those questions - but what do you all think about that as a general approach? Or should we continue to list 101 sections for main campus students to find and alter the seat balance?

Thanks so much, Sabryna.

Please do add 338 for me. Thanks! That time slot works well.

In terms of the main campus and online: I think we should limit. This should also be true for POL201.

- For a class with a 40 person cap, I think it makes sense to have 10 in 101 sections, 20 in 201 sections, and 10 in reserve.
- For 60 person caps, perhaps 10 in 101 sections, 30 in 201 sections, and 20 in reserve. This will also help us to force some balance between the two sessions for the intro classes.

Does that seem reasonable, Kirssa and Elizabeth? Feel free to suggest an alternative.

Cheers

Thanks, Sabryna,

For PA470, I think having an in person option (full semester) and at least one online option is probably a good minimum. However, we could probably afford to have an online option in both semesters. So, feel free to up to one in person full semester and one online in each session and we can work on filling any empty instructor roles.

Hi all,

A few more notes from me...

- For Alex's class, I think the Tu/Th option from 12:30pm – 1:45pm would work well
- PA470 – In entering the schedule it came to my attention that we typically offer 3 sections of this course – currently we have only 2 sections planned – are we okay with this?
- PA/POL479 – Still waiting to hear back from Courtney

Once Alex's class is added, I'll send an updated schedule!

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

All sounds great. Thanks, Sabryna.

I think I might try a bit of something new for my teaching next Fall.

I like the idea of teaching PA/POL388 Refugee and Immigration Policy.

I also quite like the idea of teaching this in the hybrid format that Jenny Carlson uses in her PA338. Given hers is in session 1, perhaps I could offer mine in session 2?

I am flexible on days and times. I noticed that Tuesday and Thursday when POL201 is being taught, the schedule is otherwise wide open. Does that kind of time frame make sense? Presumably, there is a small overlap in students interested /needing 201 and 388, but maybe that slot is an option? Happy to take advice on alternative time slots, including MW and MWF, if we are trying to avoid any classes overlapping with 201.

Cheers

Hello All,

Thank for the responses!

- I've noted Frank for 201 and have added 241 to the schedule
- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!
- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online

- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions/concerns!

Thank you!

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Yes. Many thanks, Sabryna.

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him, Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.
2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.
5. In terms of summer:
 - a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
 - b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.
 - c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):

POL201 in both sessions

POL202 in both sessions
POL204 in one session
POL206 in one session
POL325 in one session
POL417 in one session
POL419 in one session
PA470 in one session

Cheers

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) – since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)
- Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feel students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stand now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue(POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments
- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also Included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

Thank you!

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as "staff" and in need of an instructor.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

I will have 480 scheduled not to print, until we decide if we want to run the course.

Regarding 410 – it looks like we have been offering 2 in-person sections for a few terms now, going back to Fall 2019 both sections seem to fill pretty well, with the two sections averaging 39 seats each; let me know your thoughts on offering the 2nd in-person section.

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

I only have one thought and it is for 480—it is only offered once a year in the fall and will need to be online for future offerings. Could we ask the advisors if it will be ok to skip a fall offering before we scrap it? I worry for our seniors who need it to graduate, but maybe we have a standard substitute.

Really appreciate the update. Hope you have had a nice thanksgiving break.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 – What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CIS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

Hi Alex,

I am working on getting all of these updates into the workbook – regarding Betsy Palmer and Brandon Tyron, since they are MYL, would it be okay if I reach out to them to confirm their classes for Fall? For Brandon we are thinking POL 309 & POL470 ONLINE and for Betsy POL 407 and/or POL408

Let me know!

Thanks. Once you have all the updates from our back and forth added to the schedule, do you mind sending through a revised copy of the schedule so that Kirssa and I can take another quick look to make sure there are none of the adjunct classes that we want to hold off on for longer. I am just thinking in case there are any obvious classes that we might well have one of our new CT or TT faculty teach instead. At most, this would be one or two classes. But probably none is the more accurate number

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok).

3. Yay... I think... more of a 'gulp' than a 'yay'
4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23
5. We will reach out to Charlotte to see if she could offer an in-person of PA 410 in Fall 23
6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!
6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.

- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210
- Amaru, Jake POL 309
- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE
- Brody, Stuart PA 330
- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE
- Wilson, Chris PA 332
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348
- Hand, Frank PA 351
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE
- Prater, Richard PA 410
- Gordell, Kelly POL 201, POL 202, POL 413, POL 468 maybe
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?)
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 419 ONLINE

I'm sure I have missed something- but this is my notes so far. Thanks again Sabryna!

Hello All!

The open scheduling window for Fall/Summer 2023 is closing soon, as such I wanted to send out the schedule as it is now for both Fall and Summer (see attached) with notes below.

Fall 2023 Notes

- PA/SOC241-101/201, 7.5 Week II – Instructor is listed as TBD
- PA470-101/201/401, 7.5Week I – Instructor is listed as TBD
- PA480-101/201, Regular Session – Instructor is listed as TBD
- I've received no update regarding Carolyn's MENAS New course
- As discussed I have 'hidden' all 101 sections that also have an in-person section being offered

Summer 2023 Notes

- Victoria Meyer, Director of the Distance Campus, has requested to have a few Distance Campus seats for summer – historically we have only offered Distance Campus seats for Fall (usually for one 200 level course and for one 300/400 level course), over the last few Fall Terms that we have given Distance campus seats, they averaged an enrollment of 3 seats between the 2 courses we typically offer; I wanted to connect with you all to see how we feel about offering Distance campus seats in summer, since it seems like something we haven't done recently.

Many Thanks,

Hello All,

Thanks so much Sabryna- this looks great. The Layout is looking much more evenly spaced out for pressure point class time as well.

The advisors have agreed that they like the idea of the 'hidden' 101 sections that they can hand enroll only the neediest of students (mostly seniors). I think that if we have an in-person section, we can 'hide' the 10, 101 seats and open the rest to 201 & 401. If we get to a point where the course isn't filling to capacity, we can consider enrolling more in the 101 sections as we get closer to the start of the semester. And I know the online advisors would really appreciate the additional seat capacity.

Thanks, Sabryna!

I'm thinking we might want to do a breakdown similar to what Alex suggests, but at least for some of the classes, we should "hide" the 101 seats so students cannot find it when they search. This is based on the logic that a main campus student should go to in-person courses when they are available, and students are very pushy about getting into online classes if they think they are available.

If we hide the 101 seats, it could be an advisor prerogative to offer the online version of a class for any students who really need it online.

What I haven't worked out yet is whether this should be all classes or just a selection of them, or how to break down the 101/201 seats if we do want to fully hide the online classes from our main campus students.

I can think more about those questions - but what do you all think about that as a general approach? Or should we continue to list 101 sections for main campus students to find and alter the seat balance?

Thanks so much, Sabryna.

Please do add 338 for me. Thanks! That time slot works well.

In terms of the main campus and online: I think we should limit. This should also be true for POL201.

- For a class with a 40 person cap, I think it makes sense to have 10 in 101 sections, 20 in 201 sections, and 10 in reserve.
- For 60 person caps, perhaps 10 in 101 sections, 30 in 201 sections, and 20 in reserve. This will also help us to force some balance between the two sessions for the intro classes.

Does that seem reasonable, Kirssa and Elizabeth? Feel free to suggest an alternative.

Cheers

Thanks, Sabryna,

For PA470, I think having an in person option (full semester) and at least one online option is probably a good minimum. However, we could probably afford to have an online option in both semesters. So, feel free to up to one in person full semester and one online in each session and we can work on filling any empty instructor roles.

Cheers

Hi all,

A few more notes from me...

- For Alex's class, I think the Tu/Th option from 12:30pm – 1:45pm would work well
- PA470 – In entering the schedule it came to my attention that we typically offer 3 sections of this course – currently we have only 2 sections planned – are we okay with this?
- PA/POL479 – Still waiting to hear back from Courtney

Once Alex's class is added, I'll send an updated schedule!

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

All sounds great. Thanks, Sabryna.

I think I might try a bit of something new for my teaching next Fall.

I like the idea of teaching PA/POL388 Refugee and Immigration Policy.

I also quite like the idea of teaching this in the hybrid format that Jenny Carlson uses in her PA338. Given hers is in session 1, perhaps I could offer mine in session 2?

I am flexible on days and times. I noticed that Tuesday and Thursday when POL201 is being taught, the schedule is otherwise wide open. Does that kind of time frame make sense? Presumably, there is a small overlap in students interested /needing 201 and 388, but maybe that slot is an option? Happy to take advice on alternative time slots, including MW and MWF, if we are trying to avoid any classes overlapping with 201.

Cheers

Hello All,

Thank for the responses!

- I've noted Frank for 201 and have added 241 to the schedule
- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!
- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online
- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions/concerns!

Thank you!

Yes. Many thanks, Sabryna.

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him, Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.
2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.

5. In terms of summer:

- a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
- b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.
- c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):

POL201 in both sessions

POL202 in both sessions

POL204 in one session

POL206 in one session

POL325 in one session

POL417 in one session

POL419 in one session

PA470 in one session

Cheers

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) -- since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)
- Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feel students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stand now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue(POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments
- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also Included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as "staff" and in need of an instructor.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

I will have 480 scheduled not to print, until we decide if we want to run the course.

Regarding 410 – it looks like we have been offering 2 in-person sections for a few terms now, going back to Fall 2019 both sections seem to fill pretty well, with the two sections averaging 39 seats each; let me know your thoughts on offering the 2nd in-person section.

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 – What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CJS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

Thanks. Once you have all the updates from our back and forth added to the schedule, do you mind sending through a revised copy of the schedule so that Kirssa and I can take another quick look to make sure there are none of the adjunct classes that we want to hold off on for longer. I am just thinking in case there are any obvious classes that we might well have one of our new CT or TT faculty teach instead. At most, this would be one or two classes. But probably none is the more

Thanks, Angela.

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

Cheers

Thanks for all the feedback— I will try to respond here—

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok).
2. Javier noted that
3. Yay... I think... more of a 'gulp' than a 'yay'
4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23
5. We will reach out to Charlotte to see if she could offer an in-person of PA 410 in Fall 23
6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.
9. Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!
6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.
- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210
- Amaru, Jake POL 309
- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE
- Brody, Stuart PA 330
- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE
- Wilson, Chris PA 332
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348
- Hand, Frank PA 351
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE
- Prater, Richard PA 410
- Gordell, Kelly POL 201, POL 202, POL 413, POL 468 maybe
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?)
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 419 ONLINE

I'm sure I have missed something- but this is my notes so far. Thanks again Sabryna!

Hello All!

The open scheduling window for Fall/Summer 2023 is closing soon, as such I wanted to send out the schedule as it is now for both Fall and Summer (see attached) with notes below.

Fall 2023 Notes

- PA/SOC241-101/201, 7.5 Week II – Instructor is listed as TBD
- PA470-101/201/401, 7.5Week I – Instructor is listed as TBD
- PA480-101/201, Regular Session – Instructor is listed as TBD
- I've received no update regarding Carolyn's MENAS New course
- As discussed I have 'hidden' all 101 sections that also have an in-person section being offered

Summer 2023 Notes

- Victoria Meyer, Director of the Distance Campus, has requested to have a few Distance Campus seats for summer – historically we have only offered Distance Campus seats for Fall (usually for one 200 level course and for one 300/400 level course), over the last few Fall Terms that we have given Distance campus seats, they averaged an enrollment of 3 seats between the 2 courses we typically offer; I wanted to connect with you all to see how we feel about offering Distance campus seats in summer, since it seems like something we haven't done recently.

Many Thanks,
Sabryna

Hello All,

Thanks so much Sabryna- this looks great. The Layout is looking much more evenly spaced out for pressure point class time as well.

The advisors have agreed that they like the idea of the 'hidden' 101 sections that they can hand enroll only the neediest of students (mostly seniors). I think that if we have an in-person section, we can 'hide' the 10, 101 seats and open the rest to 201 & 401. If we get to a point where the course isn't filling to capacity, we can consider enrolling more in the 101 sections as we get closer to the start of the semester. And I know the online advisors would really appreciate the additional seat capacity.

Thanks, Sabryna!

I'm thinking we might want to do a breakdown similar to what Alex suggests, but at least for some of the classes, we should "hide" the 101 seats so students cannot find it when they search. This is based on the logic that a main campus student should go to in-person courses when they are available, and students are very pushy about getting into online classes if they think they are available.

If we hide the 101 seats, it could be an advisor prerogative to offer the online version of a class for any students who really need it online.

What I haven't worked out yet is whether this should be all classes or just a selection of them, or how to break down the 101/201 seats if we do want to fully hide the online classes from our main campus students.

I can think more about those questions - but what do you all think about that as a general approach? Or should we continue to list 101 sections for main campus students to find and alter the seat balance?

Thanks so much, Sabryna.

Please do add 338 for me. Thanks! That time slot works well.

In terms of the main campus and online: I think we should limit. This should also be true for POL201.

- For a class with a 40 person cap, I think it makes sense to have 10 in 101 sections, 20 in 201 sections, and 10 in reserve.
- For 60 person caps, perhaps 10 in 101 sections, 30 in 201 sections, and 20 in reserve. This will also help us to force some balance between the two sessions for the intro classes.

Does that seem reasonable, Kirssa and Elizabeth? Feel free to suggest an alternative.

Cheers

Thanks, Sabryna,

For PA470, I think having an in person option (full semester) and at least one online option is probably a good minimum. However, we could probably afford to have an online option in both semesters. So, feel free to up to one in person full semester and one online in each session and we can work on filling any empty instructor roles.

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

All sounds great. Thanks, Sabryna.

I think I might try a bit of something new for my teaching next Fall.

I like the idea of teaching PA/POL388 Refugee and Immigration Policy.

I also quite like the idea of teaching this in the hybrid format that Jenny Carlson uses in her PA338. Given hers is in session 1, perhaps I could offer mine in session 2?

I am flexible on days and times. I noticed that Tuesday and Thursday when POL201 is being taught, the schedule is otherwise wide open. Does that kind of time frame make sense? Presumably, there is a small overlap in students interested /needing 201 and 388, but maybe that slot is an option? Happy to take advice on alternative time slots, including MW and MWF, if we are trying to avoid any classes overlapping with 201.

Cheers

Hello All,

Thank for the responses!

- I've noted Frank for 201 and have added 241 to the schedule
- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!
- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online
- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions/concerns!

Thank you!

Yes. Many thanks, Sabryna.

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him, Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.
2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.

5. In terms of summer:

- a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
- b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.
- c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):

POL201 in both sessions

POL202 in both sessions

POL204 in one session

POL206 in one session

POL325 in one session

POL417 in one session

POL419 in one session

PA470 in one session

Cheers

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) -- since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)
- Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feel students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stand now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue(POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments
- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also Included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

Thank you!

I think it might make sense to just sign Tae up for two courses for now.

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as "staff" and in need of an instructor.

As it stands now we have Tae scheduled for PA470 In-Person and Online... Angela - please correct if I am wrong, but would assigning him to 480 require additional funds, as he will be potentially teaching 3 courses? (Just something to keep in mind).

Great, thanks.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

I have noted these updates in the workbook and will begin contacting adjuncts today.

I will have 480 scheduled not to print, until we decide if we want to run the course.

Regarding 410 – it looks like we have been offering 2 in-person sections for a few terms now, going back to Fall 2019 both sections seem to fill pretty well, with the two sections averaging 39 seats each; let me know your thoughts on offering the 2nd in-person section.

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

I only have one thought and it is for 480—it is only offered once a year in the fall and will need to be online for future offerings. Could we ask the advisors if it will be ok to skip a fall offering before we scrap it? I worry for our seniors who need it to graduate, but maybe we have a standard substitute.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 – What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CJS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

Thanks, Angela.

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

Cheers

Thanks for all the feedback— I will try to respond here—

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok).
2. Javier noted that
3. Yay... I think... more of a 'gulp' than a 'yay'
4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23
5. We will reach out to Charlotte to see if she could offer an in-person of PA 410 in Fall 23
6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!
6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.
- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210
- Amaru, Jake POL 309
- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE
- Brody, Stuart PA 330
- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE
- Wilson, Chris PA 332
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348
- Hand, Frank PA 351
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE
- Prater, Richard PA 410
- Gordell, Kelly POL 201, POL 202, POL 413, POL 468 maybe
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?)
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 419 ONLINE

I'm sure I have missed something- but this is my notes so far. Thanks again Sabryna!

Hello All!

The open scheduling window for Fall/Summer 2023 is closing soon, as such I wanted to send out the schedule as it is now for both Fall and Summer (see attached) with notes below.

Fall 2023 Notes

- PA/SOC241-101/201, 7.5 Week II – Instructor is listed as TBD
- PA470-101/201/401, 7.5Week I – Instructor is listed as TBD
- PA480-101/201, Regular Session – Instructor is listed as TBD
- I've received no update regarding Carolyn's MENAS New course
- As discussed I have 'hidden' all 101 sections that also have an in-person section being offered

Summer 2023 Notes

- Victoria Meyer, Director of the Distance Campus, has requested to have a few Distance Campus seats for summer – historically we have only offered Distance Campus seats for Fall (usually for one 200 level course and for one 300/400 level course), over the last few Fall Terms that we have given Distance campus seats, they averaged an enrollment of 3 seats between the 2 courses we typically offer; I wanted to connect with you all to see how we feel about offering Distance campus seats in summer, since it seems like something we haven't done recently.

Many Thanks,

Hello All,

Thanks so much Sabryna- this looks great. The Layout is looking much more evenly spaced out for pressure point class time as well.

The advisors have agreed that they like the idea of the 'hidden' 101 sections that they can hand enroll only the neediest of students (mostly seniors). I think that if we have an in-person section, we can 'hide' the 10, 101 seats and open the rest to 201 & 401. If we get to a point where the course isn't filling to capacity, we can consider enrolling more in the 101 sections as we get closer to the start of the semester. And I know the online advisors would really appreciate the additional seat capacity.

Thanks, Sabryna!

I'm thinking we might want to do a breakdown similar to what Alex suggests, but at least for some of the classes, we should "hide" the 101 seats so students cannot find it when they search. This is based on the logic that a main campus student should go to in-person courses when they are available, and students are very pushy about getting into online classes if they think they are available.

If we hide the 101 seats, it could be an advisor prerogative to offer the online version of a class for any students who really need it online.

What I haven't worked out yet is whether this should be all classes or just a selection of them, or how to break down the 101/201 seats if we do want to fully hide the online classes from our main campus students.

I can think more about those questions - but what do you all think about that as a general approach? Or should we continue to list 101 sections for main campus students to find and alter the seat balance?

Thanks so much, Sabryna.

Please do add 338 for me. Thanks! That time slot works well.

In terms of the main campus and online: I think we should limit. This should also be true for POL201.

- For a class with a 40 person cap, I think it makes sense to have 10 in 101 sections, 20 in 201 sections, and 10 in reserve.
- For 60 person caps, perhaps 10 in 101 sections, 30 in 201 sections, and 20 in reserve. This will also help us to force some balance between the two sessions for the intro classes.

Does that seem reasonable, Kirssa and Elizabeth? Feel free to suggest an alternative.

Cheers

Thanks, Sabryna,

For PA470, I think having an in person option (full semester) and at least one online option is probably a good minimum. However, we could probably afford to have an online option in both semesters. So, feel free to up to one in person full semester and one online in each session and we can work on filling any empty instructor roles.

All sounds great. Thanks, Sabryna.

I think I might try a bit of something new for my teaching next Fall.

I like the idea of teaching PA/POL388 Refugee and Immigration Policy.

I also quite like the idea of teaching this in the hybrid format that Jenny Carlson uses in her PA338. Given hers is in session 1, perhaps I could offer mine in session 2?

I am flexible on days and times. I noticed that Tuesday and Thursday when POL201 is being taught, the schedule is otherwise wide open. Does that kind of time frame make sense? Presumably, there is a small overlap in students interested /needing 201 and 388, but maybe that slot is an option? Happy to take advice on alternative time slots, including MW and MWF, if we are trying to avoid any classes overlapping with 201.

- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!
- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online
- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him, Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.
2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.

5. In terms of summer:

- a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
- b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.
- c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):

POL201 in both sessions

POL202 in both sessions

POL204 in one session

POL206 in one session

POL325 in one session

POL417 in one session

POL419 in one session

PA470 in one session

Cheers

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) -- since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)
- Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feel students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stand now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue(POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments
- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also Included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

Thank you!

I think it might make sense to just sign Tae up for two courses for now.

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as "staff" and in need of an instructor.

Great, I will add the 002 section of 410 to the schedule and will reach out to Rich Prater to get that scheduled.

As it stands now we have Tae scheduled for PA470 In-Person and Online... Angela - please correct if I am wrong, but would assigning him to 480 require additional funds, as he will be potentially teaching 3 courses? (Just something to keep in mind).

I will plan to send an updated schedule out at the weeks end, hopefully by then all the adjuncts will be solidified!

Great, thanks.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

Hello All!

I have noted these updates in the workbook and will begin contacting adjuncts today.

I will have 480 scheduled not to print, until we decide if we want to run the course.

Regarding 410 – it looks like we have been offering 2 in-person sections for a few terms now, going back to Fall 2019 both sections seem to fill pretty well, with the two sections averaging 39 seats each; let me know your thoughts on offering the 2nd in-person section.

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

I only have one thought and it is for 480—it is only offered once a year in the fall and will need to be online for future offerings. Could we ask the advisors if it will be ok to skip a fall offering before we scrap it? I worry for our seniors who need it to graduate, but maybe we have a standard substitute.

And Sabryna, if we could look into how many seats we should have for 410, that would be useful. Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 – What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CJS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

Thanks, Angela.

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

Cheers

4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23
5. We will reach out to Charlotte to see if she could offer an in-person of PA 410 in Fall 23
6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.
9. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall.

Thanks everyone—Sabryna, feel free to adjust things according to the notes here

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!
6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.
- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210
- Amaru, Jake POL 309
- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE
- Brody, Stuart PA 330
- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE
- Wilson, Chris PA 332
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348
- Hand, Frank PA 351
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE
- Prater, Richard PA 410
- Gordell, Kelly POL 201, POL 202, POL 413, POL 468 maybe
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?)
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 419 ONLINE

I'm sure I have missed something- but this is my notes so far. Thanks again Sabryna!

If so, I'd like to proudly represent the department and buy a polo or jacket if such things exist. Greetings SGPP Spring 2023 Instructors!

Welcome everyone- and thank you for teaching for SGPP this Spring. I wanted to reach out to all of you with a few informational references that will help you get through the upcoming semester. At this time, campus is expected to return to full function and classrooms, but you can also find all updates and directives on the UArizona COVID-19 information page

If you have any questions or if you need assistance of any kind in the coming weeks, don't hesitate to ask any one of us (cc'd on this email)

1. Kirssa Cline Ryckman - SGPP Director of Undergraduate studies
2. Laura Bakkensen - SGPP Director of MPA/MPP Programs
3. Angela Hackett - SGPP Assistant Director
4. Sabryna Jaimez - SGPP Undergraduate Programs Manager
5. Christina Inocencio - SGPP Graduate Programs Manager
6. Elizabeth Santander – SGPP Manager of Administration
7. Social Sciences Business Center (SBS-SocSciBusCtr@arizona.edu) This email address will reach all of the Social Sciences Business Staff. This would be a great resource for contract and hiring questions.

General Information:

1. Adjunct Instructors – Time reporting: All SGPP adjunct instructors are salaried employees and none of you need to 'report hours'. Because you are all employees who are compensated, you will receive email prompts biweekly from 'employee.uaccess@arizona.edu' with a subject line 'Reminder to Complete Time'. You do not need to do anything with this- your paychecks will be automatically generated and will be the same for all pay periods (with the exception of the first and last paychecks as contracts may end off cycle).
2. Per UArizona directives, face coverings are encouraged (but not required) on the UArizona campus.

3. SGPP Main Office will be staffed daily from 8am-4pm, but email correspondence remains an effective method of communication for staff and advisors.
4. SGPP Adjunct Offices in Social Sciences are open for your use – office 300 and 301 in the main hallway are available for student 1:1 meetings. If you wish to hold office hours in SGPP, please email Christina Inocencio (cc'd here) with day/time combinations that work for your teaching and work schedule. Please note that these offices are shared with all SGPP Adjunct and Graduate Instructors so flexibility in availability is appreciated.
5. Correspondence with Students: Please use your official UArizona email ONLY to correspond with students. Please only email students at their official UArizona email address as well. Please do not respond to student emails that do not come from a UA email address (all ending in '@arizona.edu')
 1. The University email system guarantees university email addresses are linked to the intended recipient.
 2. Please DO NOT give students your personal email addresses. This is a general UA guidance.
 3. Instructor use/sharing of personal cell phone numbers with students is at your discretion, but is discouraged.
6. University Center for Assessment, Teaching and Technology is here to help with course design and any issues you may have with the delivery of your courses in a virtual or in-person format so don't hesitate to reach out to them for assistance.
7. Textbook Ordering Instructions: The UArizona Bookstore recently updated their Textbook Adoption Processes—please visit their website for details: <https://shop.arizona.edu/faculty>. If you have questions or find the process challenging, please reach out to their helpful staff at: uabks-textbooks@arizona.edu or call 520-621-8868.
8. Course Syllabus: As soon as you have your syllabus finalized, please email a copy to Elizabeth Santander

(cc'd here) so it can be included in the HLC (and dept) database. Policy regarding Course syllabi Policies can be found here: <https://policy.arizona.edu/faculty-affairs-and-academics/course-syllabus-policy-undergraduate-template>

1. Please consider adding the following website link to your syllabi as well:

<https://sgpp.arizona.edu/student-resources>.

SGPP has created a website with many campus and community resources for students. This information was gathered from all over campus and will be a very helpful resource for them.

9. Copies for classes/student coursework: Should you need copies of assignments, exams, or other classroom materials, please send an email request to your respective program staff at least 24 hours in advance. All copies can be picked up in the 'Instructor Copies' boxes in the mail room in the SGPP Main Office (Social Sciences 315). The office is open daily from 8am – 4pm, but we are happy to coordinate with instructors for pickup.

Spring Session Dates:

1. Full 16+ Week Semester

1. First Day of classes is Wednesday, January 11, 2023
Students will have until midnight, January 18, 2023 to add your course. After that, they will need your signature on a digital 'Change of Schedule Form' to be completed in order to be admitted to the class. You are not required to allow students to add your course late.
2. Last Day of Classes is Wednesday, May 3, 2023
3. Final Exams Week: Friday, May 5-Thursday, May 11, 2023

2. 7.5 Week I

1. First day of classes is Wednesday, January 11, 2023
Students will have until midnight, January 14, 2023 to add your course. After that, they will need your signature on a digital 'Change of

Schedule Form' to be completed in order to be admitted to the class. You are not required to allow students to add your course late.

2. Last Day of classes- Friday, March 3, 2023

3. Final Exams: Friday, March 3, 2023

3. 7.5 Week II

1. First day of classes is Monday, March 13, 2023

Students will have until midnight, March 16, 2023 to add your course. After that, they will need your signature on a digital 'Change of Schedule Form' to be completed in order to be admitted to the class. You are not required to allow students to add your course late.

2. Last Day of classes- Wednesday, May 3, 2023

3. Final Exams: Friday, May 5- Thursday, May 11, 2023

4. Classes WILL NOT be held on the following day:

1. Monday, January 16, 2023 –

Observance of Martin Luther King, Jr Day

2. March 4- 12, 2023- Spring Recess

3. Thursday, May 4, 2023- Reading Day

1. D2L (Desire 2 Learn) Course Management: All courses (ONLINE or in-person) are managed through the UArizona, D2L (Desire2Learn) Course Management system. You can request your course site via this online process:

<https://help.d2l.arizona.edu/content/how-request-d2l-course-site>

1. D2L requires you to use your NET ID login to set up and edit your course page.

2. The D2L Help Desk is very helpful and can be reached in multiple ways- please see this site for assistance: <https://help.d2l.arizona.edu/>

3. For syllabus questions and guidelines, please follow this link <https://policy.arizona.edu/faculty-affairs-and-academics/course-syllabus-policy-undergraduate-template>. This site is a bit overwhelming, but it is full of many useful bits of information. You can also reach out to your program Directors for assistance and review.

2. UAccess Instructor Center: Each instructor has a UAccess Instructor Center that is associated with your class. Some courses will have multiple sections (either the course is has combined sections or is cross-listed outside SGPP). The Instructor center contains your course roster, details about each enrolled student, and other course management information. Details about UAccess Instructor Center can be found on the Registrar's website:
<https://registrar.arizona.edu/faculty-staff-resources/grading/instructor-center-information>
1. Disability Resource Center: If you have a student who requires special accommodations in the classroom or for coursework/testing, please refer them to the Disability Resource Center (DRC) for assistance: <https://drc.arizona.edu/> or 621-3268. Please be sure to incorporate any/all DRC student accommodations into your courses.
2. FINAL EXAMS - Exams will last up to two hours, but not more than two hours and they must be scheduled during the designated Final Exam window for your teaching session.
 1. Final Exams Calendar
 2. 15 Week Session: Friday, May 5- Thursday, May 11, 2023
 3. 7.5 Week I courses: Friday, March 3, 2023
 4. 7.5 Week II courses: Friday, May 5- Thursday, May 11, 2023
3. Course Final Grade Submission- UAccess Instructor Center Guide instructions are attached. Course grades should be finalized in UAccess Instructor Center within 48 hours of the end of your course. Instructors will need to import their final grades from D2L to UAccess Instructor Center in order for final grades to be released to students.
4. Incomplete Grade: If a student will not be able to complete the assigned coursework and/or examinations by the end of the session, you may (but are not required to) offer them an Incomplete ("I") for the course. Incomplete forms should be completed prior to the end of the session you are teaching (and before Final Exams are issued to students).

1. The general rule is that 75% of the course work assigned MUST be completed to have the “I” as an option. If you choose to offer this to a student, I am happy to assist you the first time you complete this process, as there are very important guidelines for students seeking an “I”: <https://registrar.arizona.edu/faculty-staff-resources/grading/grading-policies/incomplete>
2. A detailed Incomplete Form MUST be signed/dated by the student and instructor in order to receive a grade other than an “I”.
Form Link:
https://registrar.arizona.edu/sites/default/files/incomplete_grade_report_5-5-14.pdf
3. Prompt completion of missed work is strongly encouraged. Instructors are allowed and encouraged to set end dates on all Incomplete agreements. UArizona policy indicates that students have up to 364 days to complete all coursework, but waiting that long leads to difficulties for students and instructors alike.
4. You and the student should retain a copy of this document until the coursework is completed. The only time this document will be required by the dept is if the student does not complete the work and wants to contest their final grade (an E).
5. UA 2023 - 2024 General Catalog Grading Policies: <http://catalog.arizona.edu/policy-type/grade-policies>
6. University Dates/Deadlines: Please pay close attention to University Dates/Deadlines for students/instructors. They can be found here: <https://www.registrar.arizona.edu/dates-and-deadlines>

I realize this quite a bit of information, but you are free to email me if you have any questions or concerns. We will do our best to help you or direct you to someone who can!
Have a great Spring semester and stay in touch!

Be well-

 - D2L requires you to use your NET ID login to set up and edit your course page.
 - The D2L Help Desk is very helpful and can be reached in multiple ways- please see this site for assistance: <https://help.d2l.arizona.edu/>
 - For syllabus questions and guidelines, please follow this link <https://policy.arizona.edu/faculty-affairs-and-academics/course-syllabus-policy-undergraduate-template>. This site is a bit overwhelming, but it is full of many useful bits of information. You can also reach out to your program Directors for assistance and review.
- UAccess Instructor Center: Each instructor has a UAccess Instructor Center that is associated with your class. Some courses will have multiple sections (either the course is has combined sections or is cross-listed outside SGPP). The Instructor center contains your course roster, details about each enrolled student, and other course management information. Details about UAccess Instructor Center can be found on the Registrar's website: <https://registrar.arizona.edu/faculty-staff-resources/grading/instructor-center-information>
- Disability Resource Center: If you have a student who requires special accommodations in the classroom or for coursework/testing, please refer them to the Disability Resource Center (DRC) for assistance: <https://drc.arizona.edu/> or 621-3268. Please be sure to

- Course Final Grade Submission- UAccess Instructor Center Guide instructions are attached. Course grades should be finalized in UAccess Instructor Center within 48 hours of the end of your course. Instructors will need to import their final grades from D2L to UAccess Instructor Center in order for final grades to be released to students.
- Incomplete Grade: If a student will not be able to complete the assigned coursework and/or examinations by the end of the session, you may (but are not required to) offer them an Incomplete ("I") for the course. Incomplete forms should be completed prior to the end of the session you are teaching (and before Final Exams are issued to students).
 - The general rule is that 75% of the course work assigned MUST be completed to have the "I" as an option. If you choose to offer this to a student, I am happy to assist you the first time you complete this process, as there are very important guidelines for students seeking an "I": <https://registrar.arizona.edu/faculty-staff-resources/grading/grading-policies/incomplete>
 - A detailed Incomplete Form MUST be signed/dated by the student and instructor in order to receive a grade other than an "I". Form Link: https://registrar.arizona.edu/sites/default/files/incomplete_grade_report_5-5-14.pdf
 - Prompt completion of missed work is strongly encouraged. Instructors are allowed and encouraged to set end dates on all Incomplete agreements. UArizona policy indicates that students have up to 364 days to complete all coursework, but waiting that long leads to difficulties for students and instructors alike.
 - You and the student should retain a copy of this document until the coursework is completed. The only time this document will be required by the dept is if the student does not complete the work and wants to contest their final grade (an E).

Thanks so much, Angela. Great additional thoughts. I think having them work with Brad to figure out some plans for Rombach would be great. And I love the idea of thinking about specific programs – including tutoring – for CJS students given their needs.

I will email them both and suggest we meet early in the Spring to discuss this. Will copy you both on that email to them.

Subject: RE: Summer 2023 - Schedule of Classes

Hi both,

I am very excited that they both have summer teaching commitments built into their contracts as this will help establish some stability/consistency in course offerings for summers going forward. I like the idea of additional 309 seats—this is a popular course all around and I think additional sections will fill. I have always wanted to utilize the Rombach funds more thoroughly as we only use about half the annual revenues on direct to student scholarships. I am not sure what this looks like though- it might be a partnership with UAPD or TPD to target those students we have who want to go into LE for careers. I am open to suggestions on this (and willing to assist). One thing I think our CJS students might benefit from (and I would want to loop in Sylvia on this) is tutoring for some of our courses. As a major, they have the lowest overall GPA of our 4 and the students take longer to complete degrees. Right now, there are no official tutoring opportunities for our courses (PA or POL prefixes) and with 241 as a Gen Ed, it might be an initiative we can look into. It might be something to link to Rombach initiatives, but I'm not sure about the limitations of the funds.

Just something to think about. Thanks so much for coordinating all this.

Thanks, Kirssa.

- Charlotte: develop (or redevelop) POL 309 for online, since this is a course in the new proposed core that she is teaching in person. This is an interesting option. We do have Brandon Tryon teaching a version of this online. I suspect this is not a fully developed version! So, this could be a good option. But we should consider whether this is part of us stripping back on Brandon's teaching or in addition to his.
- Develop a new gen ed that is more like a 100-level intro class to CJ. I definitely think this would be great. They could work on this individually or together depending on whether this is brand new or a re-working of another course we already have on the books.
- Submit a grant/develop a course with an experiential learning component (<https://career.arizona.edu/resources/faculty-grants-for-experiential-learning/>)
- Rombach - we talked about a workshop/lecture series, or a website/newsletter that disseminates research with practical relevance. I like this. I guess this would depend on whether there are UG student benefits (or what kind they are) as to whether this would count as teaching or service.
- And to state the obvious, if there are any holes in the summer schedule for CJ classes, they could always teach that. Yep. We do not have anyone offering 241 this summer. Though, we have a ton of seats between just passed Fall and upcoming Spring. So, I am not sure there would be massive demand this summer. But, definitely a good option for Summer 24 onwards.

So, yep, looks like we have some good overlap in ideas. Any other thoughts, Angela, of things that might be useful for Crim students outside of the classroom?

I'd be happy to brainstorm further or chat with them if that's useful.

Hi Alex,

Working with Kirssa to present some options to them seems reasonable. I imagine in Summer 2024 they will be teaching online cj courses. Again, I want to set expectations about what their summers will look like, and a notable part of their summer activity will involve instruction.

This is a bit of an aside, for summer courses I would like to ensure reasonable opportunities for the grad students to teach, beyond that, we should use Xavier's and Charlotte's expertise to best serve our students.

Best,

Edella

So, I think what makes sense here, is that we have a chat with them both and say that for Summer 2023, we'd like to get them working on some projects and then that they can expect in summer 2024 onwards (once the online program is live), they would offer a single section of an online course each summer. Seem good?

So, what might be some projects for them to work on this summer?

- Continue planning for changes to the CJS major's upper division core?
- Propose something for Gen Ed?
- Work on ways of connecting Rombach to the classroom?
- Some kind of plan for UG research experiences?

Other thoughts and ideas?

POL201 in both sessions

POL202 in both sessions

POL204 in one session

POL206 in one session

POL325 in one session

Hi Alex,

Seems great. I didn't realize they had summer teaching expectations, but that will likely be a very useful resource for online CJ.

I started coming up with ideas, then realized they almost perfectly match your list... So not much new here, but similar themes:

Hi Sabryna

Just following up about the summer schedule.

Below is a plan for PhD students teaching in the summer. If this looks good, please go ahead and confirm with each of them. These choices are consistent with options they expressed an interest in.

Please note that it would be good to switch 204 and 206 between sessions.

Also: We will not offer POL417 or POL481. And I am still waiting to confirm if we will offer POL419.

I also think we will have to rely on adjuncts to teach 202. Would you mind reaching out to Kelly Gordell to see if she'd be interested in teaching 202 in summer? I have not spoken to her yet. However, Xiran did express interest in session 1.

Session 1:

- 201 = Ianne Wang
- 202 = Xiran Chen (as ADJUNCT)
- 206 = Rongbo Jin

Session 2:

- 201 = Seoungin Choi
- 202 = Kelly Gordell?? (As ADJUNCT)
- 204 = Sanho Chung
- 325 = Alexander Cloudt
- PA470 = Fai Tosuratana

The plan is that we would offer PhD students $4,000 to teach their classes. The adjuncts (Gordell and/or Chen) would receive $6,000.

In all cases, we are keen to maximise enrolments, so I think we should make some 101 seats visible from the outset and not hold them for Advisor use (as we are doing in Fall). Seem OK, Kirssa?

Let me know if this all works or if you have any questions.

Thanks so much!

So, yes, please do go ahead and invite Orr, Tryon, and Grossenbach.

I am going to email all eligible PhD students to gauge their interest in teaching this summer. So, I will get back to you on that.

Hello All,

Thanks so much Sabryna- this looks great. The Layout is looking much more evenly spaced out for pressure point class time as well.

The advisors have agreed that they like the idea of the 'hidden' 101 sections that they can hand enroll only the neediest of students (mostly seniors). I think that if we have an in-person section, we can 'hide' the 10, 101 seats and open the rest to 201 & 401. If we get to a point where the course isn't filling to capacity, we can consider enrolling more in the 101 sections as we get closer to the start of the semester. And I know the online advisors would really appreciate the additional seat capacity.

Thanks, Sabryna!

I'm thinking we might want to do a breakdown similar to what Alex suggests, but at least for some of the classes, we should "hide" the 101 seats so students cannot find it when they search. This is based on the logic that a main campus student should go to in-person courses when they are available, and students are very pushy about getting into online classes if they think they are available.

If we hide the 101 seats, it could be an advisor prerogative to offer the online version of a class for any students who really need it online.

What I haven't worked out yet is whether this should be all classes or just a selection of them, or how to break down the 101/201 seats if we do want to fully hide the online classes from our main campus students.

I can think more about those questions - but what do you all think about that as a general approach? Or should we continue to list 101 sections for main campus students to find and alter the seat balance?

Thanks so much, Sabryna.

Please do add 338 for me. Thanks! That time slot works well.

In terms of the main campus and online: I think we should limit. This should also be true for POL201.

- For a class with a 40 person cap, I think it makes sense to have 10 in 101 sections, 20 in 201 sections, and 10 in reserve.
- For 60 person caps, perhaps 10 in 101 sections, 30 in 201 sections, and 20 in reserve. This will also help us to force some balance between the two sessions for the intro classes.

Does that seem reasonable, Kirssa and Elizabeth? Feel free to suggest an alternative.

Cheers

Thanks, Sabryna,

For PA470, I think having an in person option (full semester) and at least one online option is probably a good minimum. However, we could probably afford to have an online option in both semesters. So, feel free to up to one in person full semester and one online in each session and we can work on filling any empty instructor roles.

Cheers

Hi all,

A few more notes from me...

- For Alex's class, I think the Tu/Th option from 12:30pm – 1:45pm would work well
- PA470 – In entering the schedule it came to my attention that we typically offer 3 sections of this course – currently we have only 2 sections planned – are we okay with this?
- PA/POL479 – Still waiting to hear back from Courtney

Once Alex's class is added, I'll send an updated schedule!

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

All sounds great. Thanks, Sabryna.

I think I might try a bit of something new for my teaching next Fall.

I like the idea of teaching PA/POL388 Refugee and Immigration Policy.

I also quite like the idea of teaching this in the hybrid format that Jenny Carlson uses in her PA338. Given hers is in session 1, perhaps I could offer mine in session 2?

I am flexible on days and times. I noticed that Tuesday and Thursday when POL201 is being taught, the schedule is otherwise wide open. Does that kind of time frame make sense? Presumably, there is a small overlap in students interested /needing 201 and 388, but maybe that slot is an option? Happy to take advice on alternative time slots, including MW and MWF, if we are trying to avoid any classes overlapping with 201.

Cheers

Hello All,

Thank for the responses!

- I've noted Frank for 201 and have added 241 to the schedule
- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!

- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online
- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions/concerns!

Thank you!

Yes. Many thanks, Sabryna.

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him, Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.
2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.
5. In terms of summer:
 - a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
 - b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.

c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):

POL201 in both sessions

POL202 in both sessions

POL204 in one session

POL206 in one session

POL325 in one session

POL417 in one session

POL419 in one session

PA470 in one session

Cheers

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) – since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)
- Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feel students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stand now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue(POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments
- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also Included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as "staff" and in need of an instructor.

Great, thanks.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

I will have 480 scheduled not to print, until we decide if we want to run the course.

Regarding 410 – it looks like we have been offering 2 in-person sections for a few terms now, going back to Fall 2019 both sections seem to fill pretty well, with the two sections averaging 39 seats each; let me know your thoughts on offering the 2nd in-person section.

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon

online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 – What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CJS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

Thanks. Once you have all the updates from our back and forth added to the schedule, do you mind sending through a revised copy of the schedule so that Kirssa and I can take another quick look to make sure there are none of the adjunct classes that we want to hold off on for longer. I am just thinking in case there are any obvious classes that we might well have one of our new CT or TT faculty teach instead. At most, this would be one or two classes. But probably none is the more accurate number

Thanks, Angela.

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

Cheers

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok).
2. Javier noted that
3. Yay... I think... more of a 'gulp' than a 'yay'
4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23
5. We will reach out to Charlotte to see if she could offer an in-person of PA 410 in Fall 23
6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!
6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having

Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.

- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210
- Amaru, Jake POL 309
- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE
- Brody, Stuart PA 330
- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE
- Wilson, Chris PA 332
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348

I'm sure I have missed something- but this is my notes so far. Thanks again Sabryna!

Thanks, Sabryna!

I'm thinking we might want to do a breakdown similar to what Alex suggests, but at least for some of the classes, we should "hide" the 101 seats so students cannot find it when they search. This is based on the logic that a main campus student should go to in-person courses when they are available, and students are very pushy about getting into online classes if they think they are available.

If we hide the 101 seats, it could be an advisor prerogative to offer the online version of a class for any students who really need it online.

What I haven't worked out yet is whether this should be all classes or just a selection of them, or how to break down the 101/201 seats if we do want to fully hide the online classes from our main campus students.

I can think more about those questions - but what do you all think about that as a general approach? Or should we continue to list 101 sections for main campus students to find and alter the seat balance?

Thanks so much, Sabryna.

Please do add 338 for me. Thanks! That time slot works well.

In terms of the main campus and online: I think we should limit. This should also be true for POL201.

- For a class with a 40 person cap, I think it makes sense to have 10 in 101 sections, 20 in 201 sections, and 10 in reserve.
- For 60 person caps, perhaps 10 in 101 sections, 30 in 201 sections, and 20 in reserve. This will also help us to force some balance between the two sessions for the intro classes.

Does that seem reasonable, Kirssa and Elizabeth? Feel free to suggest an alternative.

Cheers

Thanks, Sabryna,

For PA470, I think having an in person option (full semester) and at least one online option is probably a good minimum. However, we could probably afford to have an online option in both semesters. So, feel free to up to one in person full semester and one online in each session and we can work on filling any empty instructor roles.

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

All sounds great. Thanks, Sabryna.

I think I might try a bit of something new for my teaching next Fall.

I like the idea of teaching PA/POL388 Refugee and Immigration Policy.

I also quite like the idea of teaching this in the hybrid format that Jenny Carlson uses in her PA338. Given hers is in session 1, perhaps I could offer mine in session 2?

I am flexible on days and times. I noticed that Tuesday and Thursday when POL201 is being taught, the schedule is otherwise wide open. Does that kind of time frame make sense? Presumably, there is a small overlap in students interested /needing 201 and 388, but maybe that slot is an option? Happy to take advice on alternative time slots, including MW and MWF, if we are trying to avoid any classes overlapping with 201.

Cheers

- I've noted Frank for 201 and have added 241 to the schedule
- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!
- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online
- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions/concerns!

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Yes. Many thanks, Sabryna.

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him, Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.
2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.
5. In terms of summer:
 - a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
 - b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.
 - c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):

POL201 in both sessions

POL202 in both sessions

POL204 in one session

POL206 in one session

POL325 in one session

POL417 in one session

POL419 in one session

PA470 in one session

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) – since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)
- Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feel students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stand now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue(POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments
- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also Included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

Thank you!

I think it might make sense to just sign Tae up for two courses for now.

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as “staff” and in need of an instructor.

Great, I will add the 002 section of 410 to the schedule and will reach out to Rich Prater to get that scheduled.

As it stands now we have Tae scheduled for PA470 In-Person and Online... Angela - please correct if I am wrong, but would assigning him to 480 require additional funds, as he will be potentially teaching 3 courses? (Just something to keep in mind).

I will plan to send an updated schedule out at the weeks end, hopefully by then all the adjuncts will be solidified!

Great, thanks.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

I have noted these updates in the workbook and will begin contacting adjuncts today.

I will have 480 scheduled not to print, until we decide if we want to run the course.

Regarding 410 – it looks like we have been offering 2 in-person sections for a few terms now, going back to Fall 2019 both sections seem to fill pretty well, with the two sections averaging 39 seats each; let me know your thoughts on offering the 2nd in-person section.

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

I only have one thought and it is for 480—it is only offered once a year in the fall and will need to be online for future offerings. Could we ask the advisors if it will be ok to skip a fall offering before we scrap it? I worry for our seniors who need it to graduate, but maybe we have a standard substitute.

I left my responses below (bold and underlined - hope it stands out enough!). I can chat with Edella about developing PA 480. And Sabryna, if we could look into how many seats we should have for 410, that would be useful. I looked at a few recent semesters and think we'll be okay with one in-person and one online section, but wanted to be sure.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 – What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CIS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]

- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall.

Thanks everyone—Sabryna, feel free to adjust things according to the notes here

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed

PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!

6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.
- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210
- Amaru, Jake POL 309
- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE
- Brody, Stuart PA 330
- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE
- Wilson, Chris PA 332

- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348
- Hand, Frank PA 351
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE
- Prater, Richard PA 410
- Gordell, Kelly POL 201, POL 202, POL 413, POL 468 maybe
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?)
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 419 ONLINE

I'm sure I have missed something- but this is my notes so far. Thanks again Sabryna!

Thanks so much, Sabryna.

Please do add 338 for me. Thanks! That time slot works well.

In terms of the main campus and online: I think we should limit. This should also be true for POL201.

- For a class with a 40 person cap, I think it makes sense to have 10 in 101 sections, 20 in 201 sections, and 10 in reserve.
- For 60 person caps, perhaps 10 in 101 sections, 30 in 201 sections, and 20 in reserve. This will also help us to force some balance between the two sessions for the intro classes.

Does that seem reasonable, Kirssa and Elizabeth? Feel free to suggest an alternative.

Thanks, Sabryna,

For PA470, I think having an in person option (full semester) and at least one online option is probably a good minimum. However, we could probably afford to have an online option in both semesters. So, feel free to up to one in person full semester and one online in each session and we can work on filling any empty instructor roles.

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

All sounds great. Thanks, Sabryna.

I think I might try a bit of something new for my teaching next Fall.

I like the idea of teaching PA/POL388 Refugee and Immigration Policy.

I also quite like the idea of teaching this in the hybrid format that Jenny Carlson uses in her PA338. Given hers is in session 1, perhaps I could offer mine in session 2?

I am flexible on days and times. I noticed that Tuesday and Thursday when POL201 is being taught, the schedule is otherwise wide open. Does that kind of time frame make sense? Presumably, there is a small overlap in students interested /needing 201 and 388, but maybe that slot is an option? Happy to take advice on alternative time slots, including MW and MWF, if we are trying to avoid any classes overlapping with 201.

Cheers

- I've noted Frank for 201 and have added 241 to the schedule
- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!
- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online
- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Yes. Many thanks, Sabryna.

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him,

Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.

2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.
5. In terms of summer:
 - a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
 - b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.
 - c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):

POL201 in both sessions

POL202 in both sessions

POL204 in one session

POL206 in one session

POL325 in one session

POL417 in one session

POL419 in one session

PA470 in one session

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) – since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.

- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)
- Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feel students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stand now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue(POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments

- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Great, thanks.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

Hello All!

I have noted these updates in the workbook and will begin contacting adjuncts today.

I will have 480 scheduled not to print, until we decide if we want to run the course.

Regarding 410 – it looks like we have been offering 2 in-person sections for a few terms now, going back to Fall 2019 both sections seem to fill pretty well, with the two sections averaging 39 seats each; let me know your thoughts on offering the 2nd in-person section.

Thank you!

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

Happy Monday all-

I only have one thought and it is for 480—it is only offered once a year in the fall and will need to be online for future offerings. Could we ask the advisors if it will be ok to skip a fall offering before we scrap it? I worry for our seniors who need it to graduate, but maybe we have a standard substitute.

I left my responses below (bold and underlined - hope it stands out enough!). I can chat with Edella about developing PA 480. And Sabryna, if we could look into how many seats we should have for 410, that would be useful. I looked at a few recent semesters and think we'll be okay with one in-person and one online section, but wanted to be sure.

Thanks, Sabryna,

Really appreciate the update. Hope you have had a nice thanksgiving break.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed -- I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 --What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CJS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

Thank you!

I am just thinking in case there are any obvious classes that we might well have one of our new CT or TT faculty teach instead. At most, this would be one or two classes. But probably none is the more accurate number

Thanks, Angela.

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23
5. We will reach out to Charlotte to see if she could offer an in-person of PA 410 in Fall 23
6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!
6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.

8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he'd be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.
- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210
- Amaru, Jake POL 309
- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE

Thanks for the update Sabryna- and I agree about the PA 470. With CJS and PMPC in person and online in fall, we will need the 3 sections. As for Courtney, lets reach out to her personal email address as well- and we can call her too. Its out of the ordinary for her not to respond.

Thanks, Sabryna,

For PA470, I think having an in person option (full semester) and at least one online option is probably a good minimum. However, we could probably afford to have an online option in both semesters. So, feel free to up to one in person full semester and one online in each session and we can work on filling any empty instructor roles.

Cheers

Hi all,

A few more notes from me...

- For Alex's class, I think the Tu/Th option from 12:30pm – 1:45pm would work well
- PA470 – In entering the schedule it came to my attention that we typically offer 3 sections of this course – currently we have only 2 sections planned – are we okay with this?

- PA/POL479 – Still waiting to hear back from Courtney

Once Alex's class is added, I'll send an updated schedule!

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

All sounds great. Thanks, Sabryna.

I think I might try a bit of something new for my teaching next Fall.

I like the idea of teaching PA/POL388 Refugee and Immigration Policy.

I also quite like the idea of teaching this in the hybrid format that Jenny Carlson uses in her PA338. Given hers is in session 1, perhaps I could offer mine in session 2?

I am flexible on days and times. I noticed that Tuesday and Thursday when POL201 is being taught, the schedule is otherwise wide open. Does that kind of time frame make sense? Presumably, there is a small overlap in students interested /needing 201 and 388, but maybe that slot is an option?

Happy to take advice on alternative time slots, including MW and MWF, if we are trying to avoid any classes overlapping with 201.

Cheers

Hello All,

Thank for the responses!

- I've noted Frank for 201 and have added 241 to the schedule
- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!
- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online
- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions/concerns!

Thank you!

Yes. Many thanks, Sabryna.

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him, Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.
2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.
5. In terms of summer:
 - a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
 - b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.
 - c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):

POL201 in both sessions

POL202 in both sessions

POL204 in one session

POL206 in one session

POL325 in one session

POL417 in one session

POL419 in one session

PA470 in one session

Cheers

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) – since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)
- Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feel students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stand now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue(POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments
- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also Included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

I think it might make sense to just sign Tae up for two courses for now.

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as “staff” and in need of an instructor.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

I have noted these updates in the workbook and will begin contacting adjuncts today.

I will have 480 scheduled not to print, until we decide if we want to run the course.

Regarding 410 – it looks like we have been offering 2 in-person sections for a few terms now, going back to Fall 2019 both sections seem to fill pretty well, with the two sections averaging 39 seats each; let me know your thoughts on offering the 2nd in-person section.

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

I only have one thought and it is for 480—it is only offered once a year in the fall and will need to be online for future offerings. Could we ask the advisors if it will be ok to skip a fall offering before we scrap it? I worry for our seniors who need it to graduate, but maybe we have a standard substitute.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 – What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CIS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]

- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.

- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

Hi Alex,

I am working on getting all of these updates into the workbook – regarding Betsy Palmer and Brandon Tyron, since they are MYL, would it be okay if I reach out to them to confirm their classes for Fall? For Brandon we are thinking POL 309 & POL470 ONLINE and for Betsy POL 407 and/or POL408

Let me know!

Thank you!

Thanks. Once you have all the updates from our back and forth added to the schedule, do you mind sending through a revised copy of the schedule so that Kirssa and I can take another quick look to make sure there are none of the adjunct classes that we want to hold off on for longer. I am just thinking in case there are any obvious classes that we might well have one of our new CT or TT faculty teach instead. At most, this would be one or two classes. But probably none is the more accurate number

Thanks, Angela.

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

Cheers

Hi Alex,

Thanks for all the feedback— I will try to respond here—

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok).
2. Javier noted that
3. Yay... I think... more of a 'gulp' than a 'yay'
4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23
5. We will reach out to Charlotte to see if she could offer an in-person of PA 410 in Fall 23
6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.
9. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!
6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with

Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.

7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.
- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210
- Amaru, Jake POL 309
- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE
- Brody, Stuart PA 330
- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE
- Wilson, Chris PA 332
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348
- Hand, Frank PA 351
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE
- Prater, Richard PA 410
- Gordell, Kelly POL 201, POL 202, POL 413, POL 468 maybe

- | | |
|--------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Mcdaniel, Judith | POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) |

Thanks, Sabryna,

For PA470, I think having an in person option (full semester) and at least one online option is probably a good minimum. However, we could probably afford to have an online option in both semesters. So, feel free to up to one in person full semester and one online in each session and we can work on filling any empty instructor roles.

Hi all,

A few more notes from me...

- For Alex's class, I think the Tu/Th option from 12:30pm – 1:45pm would work well
- PA470 – In entering the schedule it came to my attention that we typically offer 3 sections of this course – currently we have only 2 sections planned – are we okay with this?
- PA/POL479 – Still waiting to hear back from Courtney

Once Alex's class is added, I'll send an updated schedule!

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

All sounds great. Thanks, Sabryna.

I think I might try a bit of something new for my teaching next Fall.

I like the idea of teaching PA/POL388 Refugee and Immigration Policy.

I also quite like the idea of teaching this in the hybrid format that Jenny Carlson uses in her PA338. Given hers is in session 1, perhaps I could offer mine in session 2?

I am flexible on days and times. I noticed that Tuesday and Thursday when POL201 is being taught, the schedule is otherwise wide open. Does that kind of time frame make sense? Presumably, there is a small overlap in students interested /needing 201 and 388, but maybe that slot is an option? Happy to take advice on alternative time slots, including MW and MWF, if we are trying to avoid any classes overlapping with 201.

Cheers

Hello All,

Thank for the responses!

- I've noted Frank for 201 and have added 241 to the schedule
- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!
- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online

- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions/concerns!

Thank you!

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Yes. Many thanks, Sabryna.

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him, Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.
2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.
5. In terms of summer:
 - a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
 - b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.
 - c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):

POL201 in both sessions

POL202 in both sessions
POL204 in one session
POL206 in one session
POL325 in one session
POL417 in one session
POL419 in one session
PA470 in one session

Cheers

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) – since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feel students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stand now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue(POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments
- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also Included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as "staff" and in need of an instructor.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

I only have one thought and it is for 480—it is only offered once a year in the fall and will need to be online for future offerings. Could we ask the advisors if it will be ok to skip a fall offering before we scrap it? I worry for our seniors who need it to graduate, but maybe we have a standard substitute.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 – What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CIS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

I am working on getting all of these updates into the workbook – regarding Betsy Palmer and Brandon Tyron, since they are MYL, would it be okay if I reach out to them to confirm their classes for Fall? For Brandon we are thinking POL 309 & POL470 ONLINE and for Betsy POL 407 and/or POL408

Let me know!

Thanks. Once you have all the updates from our back and forth added to the schedule, do you mind sending through a revised copy of the schedule so that Kirssa and I can take another quick look to make sure there are none of the adjunct classes that we want to hold off on for longer. I am just thinking in case there are any obvious classes that we might well have one of our new CT or TT faculty teach instead. At most, this would be one or two classes. But probably none is the more accurate number

Thanks, Angela.

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok).

3. Yay... I think... more of a 'gulp' than a 'yay'
4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23
5. We will reach out to Charlotte to see if she could offer an in-person of PA 410 in Fall 23
6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!
6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.

- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210
- Amaru, Jake POL 309
- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE
- Brody, Stuart PA 330
- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE
- Wilson, Chris PA 332
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348
- Hand, Frank PA 351
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE
- Prater, Richard PA 410
- Gordell, Kelly POL 201, POL 202, POL 413, POL 468 maybe
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?)
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 419 ONLINE

I'm sure I have missed something- but this is my notes so far. Thanks again Sabryna!

All sounds great. Thanks, Sabryna.

I think I might try a bit of something new for my teaching next Fall.

I like the idea of teaching PA/POL388 Refugee and Immigration Policy.

I also quite like the idea of teaching this in the hybrid format that Jenny Carlson uses in her PA338. Given hers is in session 1, perhaps I could offer mine in session 2?

I am flexible on days and times. I noticed that Tuesday and Thursday when POL201 is being taught, the schedule is otherwise wide open. Does that kind of time frame make sense? Presumably, there is a small overlap in students interested /needing 201 and 388, but maybe that slot is an option? Happy to take advice on alternative time slots, including MW and MWF, if we are trying to avoid any classes overlapping with 201.

Cheers

Thank for the responses!

- I've noted Frank for 201 and have added 241 to the schedule
- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!
- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online
- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

Yes. Many thanks, Sabryna.

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him, Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.
2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.
5. In terms of summer:
 - a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
 - b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.
 - c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):
 - i. POL201 in both sessions
 - ii. POL202 in both sessions
 - iii. POL204 in one session
 - iv. POL206 in one session
 - v. POL325 in one session
 - vi. POL417 in one session
 - vii. POL419 in one session
 - viii. PA470 in one session

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) – since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)
- Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feels students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stands now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue (POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments
- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

Thank you!

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as “staff” and in need of an instructor.

Great, I will add the 002 section of 410 to the schedule and will reach out to Rich Prater to get that scheduled.

As it stands now we have Tae scheduled for PA470 In-Person and Online... Angela - please correct if I am wrong, but would assigning him to 480 require additional funds, as he will be potentially teaching 3 courses? (Just something to keep in mind).

I will plan to send an updated schedule out at the weeks end, hopefully by then all the adjuncts will be solidified!

Thank you!

Great, thanks.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

Hello All!

I have noted these updates in the workbook and will begin contacting adjuncts today.

I will have 480 scheduled not to print, until we decide if we want to run the course.

Regarding 410 – it looks like we have been offering 2 in-person sections for a few terms now, going back to Fall 2019 both sections seem to fill pretty well, with the two sections averaging 39 seats each; let me know your thoughts on offering the 2nd in-person section.

Thank you!

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

Happy Monday all-

I only have one thought and it is for 480—it is only offered once a year in the fall and will need to be online for future offerings. Could we ask the advisors if it will be ok to skip a fall offering before we scrap it? I worry for our seniors who need it to graduate, but maybe we have a standard substitute.

Thanks, everyone.

I left my responses below (bold and underlined - hope it stands out enough!). I can chat with Edella about developing PA 480. And Sabryna, if we could look into how many seats we should have for 410, that would be useful. I looked at a few recent semesters and think we'll be okay with one in-person and one online section, but wanted to be sure.

Hope you all had a good Thanksgiving!

Thanks, Sabryna,

Really appreciate the update. Hope you have had a nice thanksgiving break.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 – What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CIS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]

- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

Thank you!

I am just thinking in case there are any obvious classes that we might well have one of our new CT or TT faculty teach instead. At most, this would be one or two classes. But probably none is the more accurate number

Thanks, Angela.

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23
5. We will reach out to Charlotte to see if she could offer an in-person of PA 410 in Fall 23
6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!
6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with

Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.

7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.
- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

All sounds great. Thanks, Sabryna.

I think I might try a bit of something new for my teaching next Fall.

I like the idea of teaching PA/POL388 Refugee and Immigration Policy.

I also quite like the idea of teaching this in the hybrid format that Jenny Carlson uses in her PA338. Given hers is in session 1, perhaps I could offer mine in session 2?

I am flexible on days and times. I noticed that Tuesday and Thursday when POL201 is being taught, the schedule is otherwise wide open. Does that kind of time frame make sense? Presumably, there is a small overlap in students interested /needing 201 and 388, but maybe that slot is an option? Happy to take advice on alternative time slots, including MW and MWF, if we are trying to avoid any classes overlapping with 201.

Cheers

Hello All,

Thank for the responses!

- I've noted Frank for 201 and have added 241 to the schedule
- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!
- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online
- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions/concerns!

Thank you!

Yes. Many thanks, Sabryna.

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him, Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.
2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.

5. In terms of summer:

- a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
- b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.
- c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):
 - i. POL201 in both sessions
 - ii. POL202 in both sessions
 - iii. POL204 in one session
 - iv. POL206 in one session
 - v. POL325 in one session
 - vi. POL417 in one session
 - vii. POL419 in one session
 - viii. PA470 in one session

Cheers

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) -- since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)

Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feel students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stand now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue(POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments
- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also Included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

Thank you!

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as "staff" and in need of an instructor.

Great, thanks.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

I will have 480 scheduled not to print, until we decide if we want to run the course.

Regarding 410 – it looks like we have been offering 2 in-person sections for a few terms now, going back to Fall 2019 both sections seem to fill pretty well, with the two sections averaging 39 seats each; let me know your thoughts on offering the 2nd in-person section.

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

I only have one thought and it is for 480—it is only offered once a year in the fall and will need to be online for future offerings. Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon

online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 –What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CIS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

Thanks, Angela.

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

Cheers

Hi Alex,

Thanks for all the feedback— I will try to respond here—

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok).
2. Javier noted that
3. Yay... I think... more of a 'gulp' than a 'yay'
4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23
5. We will reach out to Charlotte to see if she could offer an in-person of PA 410 in Fall 23
6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.
9. Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!
6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.
- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.

- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210
- Amaru, Jake POL 309
- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE
- Brody, Stuart PA 330
- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE
- Wilson, Chris PA 332
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348
- Hand, Frank PA 351
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE
- Prater, Richard PA 410
- Gordell, Kelly POL 201, POL 202, POL 413, POL 468 maybe
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?)
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 419 ONLINE

I'm sure I have missed something- but this is my notes so far. Thanks again Sabryna!

Hello All,

Thank for the responses!

- I've noted Frank for 201 and have added 241 to the schedule
- I will keep Colin's class at 7.5weeks, I'm happy to let Colin know of the decision, and will refer him to Alex - if he would like to discuss
- In talking with Elizabeth, it seems like PA/POL 388 would be great option for Alex to teach, but 419 seems equally popular, so I think whichever you prefer, Alex!
- I still haven't heard from Courtney regarding her class, as soon as I do I will send an update so Alex can decide if he wants to do in-person or Online
- We still have Kelly Gordell on hold for Fall teaching – just something to be aware of...
- For Summer – I will begin putting the schedule together and will send an update soon, thank you for your notes!

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions/concerns!

Thank you!

Yes. Many thanks, Sabryna.

A few updates:

1. Frank Gonzalez has agreed to teach POL201-001 in Fall 2023. Thanks for discussing with him, Kirssa. Sabryna: Please feel free to reach out to Frank to confirm schedule.

2. Let's go ahead and add the PA241-101/201 in both sessions of Fall and leave one of them without an instructor for now. We can fill this in later.
3. I agree with Angela that having Colin move back to 16 weeks is not ideal. The online programs are now trying to stick to the half semester sessions. I am happy to chat more with him about this, if he'd like.
4. I still owe a class of my own for Fall. I am leaning towards either PA/POL388 online or PA/POL419 in person. I will take another look at our various offerings once we have confirmed with adjuncts. So, for instance, if Courtney Cooper is unable to teach, maybe I will offer up an online option.
5. In terms of summer:
 - a. I agree with Angela's comment on adding the adjuncts.
 - b. We will only have 7 or 8 PhD students available to teach this year. And we might not be able to offer them as much $$ -- I am meeting next week with Francisco about funding.
 - c. So, I think we should start off quite bare bones. Perhaps plan on the following (in addition to 210, 309, 335):
 - i. POL201 in both sessions
 - ii. POL202 in both sessions
 - iii. POL204 in one session
 - iv. POL206 in one session
 - v. POL325 in one session
 - vi. POL417 in one session
 - vii. POL419 in one session
 - viii. PA470 in one session

Cheers

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) – since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.

- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)
- Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feel students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stand now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II
- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue(POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments

- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also Included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

Thank you!

I think it might make sense to just sign Tae up for two courses for now.

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as "staff" and in need of an instructor.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

I will have 480 scheduled not to print, until we decide if we want to run the course.

Regarding 410 – it looks like we have been offering 2 in-person sections for a few terms now, going back to Fall 2019 both sections seem to fill pretty well, with the two sections averaging 39 seats each; let me know your thoughts on offering the 2nd in-person section.

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

I only have one thought and it is for 480—it is only offered once a year in the fall and will need to be online for future offerings. Could we ask the advisors if it will be ok to skip a fall offering before we scrap it? I worry for our seniors who need it to graduate, but maybe we have a standard substitute.

Thanks, everyone.

I left my responses below (bold and underlined - hope it stands out enough!). I can chat with Edella about developing PA 480. And Sabryna, if we could look into how many seats we should have for 410, that would be useful. I looked at a few recent semesters and think we'll be okay with one in-person and one online section, but wanted to be sure.

Hope you all had a good Thanksgiving!

Thanks, Sabryna,

Really appreciate the update. Hope you have had a nice thanksgiving break.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed -- I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 – What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CJS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

Thank you!

Thanks. Once you have all the updates from our back and forth added to the schedule, do you mind sending through a revised copy of the schedule so that Kirssa and I can take another quick look to make sure there are none of the adjunct classes that we want to hold off on for longer. I am just thinking in case there are any obvious classes that we might well have one of our new CT or TT faculty teach instead. At most, this would be one or two classes. But probably none is the more accurate number

Thanks, Angela.

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

Cheers

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok).

3. Yay... I think... more of a 'gulp' than a 'yay'
4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23
5. We will reach out to Charlotte to see if she could offer an in-person of PA 410 in Fall 23
6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!
6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.
8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he’d be very willing to do it.

9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15.

Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.
- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

Hi Sabryna,

This is great- I think you have hit all the targets on this.

- I am a bit concerned with Colin's request in that UA Online will not like a full semester course for their students (PA 410) – since this course is a requirement, we might not have a choice.
- Thanks for rearranging the pinch points in the schedule- the VL looks much more evenly laid out.
- Not sure about the summer schedule- attaching the Summer 22 one here as a compliment to your enrollment table for last summer (great by the way).

I think we can move forward with the following requests for Summer:

- Brandon Tryon (POL 309)
- Dan Grossenbach (PA 330)
- Ethan Orr (POL 210)

The rest of summer is open to suggestion- thanks!

Hi All!

I've updated the Fall Schedule with the adjuncts (minus a couple – see my notes below).

Notes:

- Colin has requested to move his course from a 7.5 week online to a regular session online – he feel students are struggling to complete course work in the short time. Is this okay?
- As it stand now we have 12 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK I and 11 courses scheduled for 7.5 WK II

- I've added the Visual Layout tab to this review, so you all can review what the semester looks like – I was able to move a few blue(POL courses) since Christina's email earlier this week.
- I've also included the 'FA22 Courses not Tolling Over Tab', just for your reference, so you may see what courses we will not be offering – this may be helpful when considering new hire teaching assignments
- I'm still waiting on responses from Courtney Cooper and Rich Prater

Summer 2023

- I've also Included our Summer 2022 enrollment numbers, so we can start to think about what we would like to offer for 2023.

Angela – If you think I've missed anything, feel free to add on!

I think it might make sense to just sign Tae up for two courses for now.

We can think about whether we want to bump up his contract or identify a PhD student to teach the 480 online. Maybe for now, just list 480 as "staff" and in need of an instructor.

Great, I will add the 002 section of 410 to the schedule and will reach out to Rich Prater to get that scheduled.

As it stands now we have Tae scheduled for PA470 In-Person and Online... Angela - please correct if I am wrong, but would assigning him to 480 require additional funds, as he will be potentially teaching 3 courses? (Just something to keep in mind).

I will plan to send an updated schedule out at the weeks end, hopefully by then all the adjuncts will be solidified!

Great, thanks.

I am happy to have another section of 410 in person to give the students more options, and Rich Prater is usually a popular instructor (if I remember right?).

Edella is planning on developing 480 over the winter break or the spring semester, so we can offer it to Tae Huyn as a course to teach that has been fully developed. I'd also be happy to have someone else offer the course if we have someone other than Tae Huyn available, but I think he's a good option if not.

Hello All!

I have noted these updates in the workbook and will begin contacting adjuncts today.

I will have 480 scheduled not to print, until we decide if we want to run the course.

Regarding 410 – it looks like we have been offering 2 in-person sections for a few terms now, going back to Fall 2019 both sections seem to fill pretty well, with the two sections averaging 39 seats each; let me know your thoughts on offering the 2nd in-person section.

Thank you!

Hi all,

I think 480 will be important to have, but let me reach out to Edella first to see if she is able to develop the course this spring or summer. Perhaps we can keep it on the books for now, but schedule not to print to give us some time to see about the instructor.

I think Tae Hyun would be a good candidate to teach the course, especially if we are already having him do 470, whether it is a version that he creates or if he runs what Edella puts together. Or if you have someone else in mind, that would be great. I'd just like to know what materials they will teach before we reach out to someone asking about teaching the course.

Happy Monday all-

I only have one thought and it is for 480—it is only offered once a year in the fall and will need to be online for future offerings. Could we ask the advisors if it will be ok to skip a fall offering before we scrap it? I worry for our seniors who need it to graduate, but maybe we have a standard substitute.

Thanks!

Thanks, everyone.

I left my responses below (bold and underlined - hope it stands out enough!). I can chat with Edella about developing PA 480. And Sabryna, if we could look into how many seats we should have for 410, that would be useful. I looked at a few recent semesters and think we'll be okay with one in-person and one online section, but wanted to be sure.

Hope you all had a good Thanksgiving!

Thanks, Sabryna,

Really appreciate the update. Hope you have had a nice thanksgiving break.

Some responses to your notes (including a couple questions for Kirssa):

Notes

- POL201, In-Person – Instructor Needed – I will work on this.
- POL241, Online, Session 1 – Instructor Needed -- I will work on this.
- POL469, In-Person – Instructor Needed – Maybe just leave off schedule for a semester?
- PA480, Online – Instructor Needed – I think we can probably skip for the Fall. There are relatively few folks enrolling in this class, anyway. Kirssa has been chatting with Edella about Edella possibly developing this in the future. What do you think, Kirssa?

Agreed - Let's hold off on this one and see if we can work in Edella to offer it online

- PA470, In-Person & Online (session 2) – On hold for Tae Hyun Lim? Yes. I think offering to Tae Hyun works well.
- POL 407 & POL408 – waiting to hear from Besty Palmer – Great. [REDACTED]

Adjuncts – we are planning to connect with on Nov.28th

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210 – Please invite.
- Amaru, Jake POL 309 (Charlotte Hu is scheduled to teach this in-person) – I think we will not need. What do you think, Kirssa? Hold off on inviting for now.

Agreed - I think we'll have enough of this between Charlotte in person and Brandon Tryon online (and to check - Charlotte's is an in-person, 16-week course? It's noted as 7week in the spreadsheet)

- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE – Please confirm with him and schedule.
- Brody, Stuart PA 330 --What do you think, Kirssa? Demand for 330 in person?

Good to have - I would schedule with Stu. It's the only 330 we tend to offer in person during the year; serves as an overflow for the CJS students

- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE – Please invite.
- Wilson, Chris PA 332 – Please invite.
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348 – Please invite.
- Hand, Frank PA 351 – Please invite.
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe – [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

I think it's needed - we only have an in-person section with Charlotte and need an online section

- Prater, Richard PA 410 – KIRSSA: Where do we stand on 410 given Charlotte's offerings?

This could go either way, but I believe we'll have enough seats without a second in-person course - perhaps we should look at more historical enrollment numbers to be sure

- Gordell, Kelly POL 413, POL 468 maybe – Hold off for now and we can plug Kelly in if we feel we need sections.
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?) – I think Judith just wants to teach one. But please confirm with her when you invite.
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 479 ONLINE – Please invite. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] But go ahead and invite.

Angela – If I missed something, feel free to add on!

Thank you!

I am just thinking in case there are any obvious classes that we might well have one of our new CT or TT faculty teach instead. At most, this would be one or two classes. But probably none is the more accurate number

Thanks, Angela.

Sounds good. Some more responses on just a few of these points:

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok). Sure thing
2. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC. Great. We can absolutely have him fill in gaps for in person and online once we have the core faculty squared away.
3. So just to clarify that the Fall 23 new course is going to be owned by MENAS (Sabryna- this means they will submit the course add forms and just include us as the cross-listed dept- nothing to do for this). Will her second course for fall 23 be POL 465 then or is she still at a one course reduction. The email exchange with Edella was a bit fuzzy for Fall 23 That is correct. Carolyn will teach this one class in Fall (y'all do not need to do anything) and then two classes in Spring 24 (one owned by us and one owned by MENAS).

Adjuncts: we can hold off for a bit on the adjunct emails, but we really do have to have their commitments before the university closure because the schedule closes for editing almost immediately after we return in early Jan. Just to let it be know that this gives me great anxiety... lol. But I will get over it. Please let us know as soon as you are ok with us reaching out to any/some of them so we can get them on the schedule. Oh- and I forgot about adding Betsy Palmer back into the fold for fall. Absolutely. Let's plan on getting those requests out immediately after thanksgiving, if that works OK?

1. Still no word from Paul... I will follow up again today and cc you (if that's ok).
2. Javier noted that
3. Yay... I think... more of a 'gulp' than a 'yay'
4. We will add PA 418 (in person) for Xavier for Fall 23
5. We will reach out to Charlotte to see if she could offer an in-person of PA 410 in Fall 23
6. We will reach out to Jeff to see about teaching a section of POL 202 online (101/201/401)
7. Adam noted that he is willing to teach PA 482 in person as a MW option so we can get this added to the books.
8. Ok- we will hold off on Tae for PA 470 for the moment- but we do need a section or 2 of this since it is core for CJS and PMPC.

Subject: Re: Fall 2023 UG- First Review

Thanks, Angela. (Thanks, Sabryna, for your efforts in getting this started.)

Will look over the workbook soon.

For now, some responses to the points you raised

Questions:

1. Paul Schuler did not submit a request- we have reached out to him – Thanks. I constantly remind him to pay attention; but, alas!
2. Need Courses for Alex and Javier – We can be used to help fill gaps between UG and PhD Does this mean Javier did not reply or that he said he is happy to teach anything?
3. Make Note of 3 new TT and a CT in Fall – in Law, CJS, and Coll Gov/Environment- up to 9 classes potential! Yep. A real luxury
4. Xavier has noted he plans to teach PA/SOC 241 and PA 331 in person but her needs a 3rd class- should it be his PA 418 that was canceled this spring? I think 418 for Xavier would be great unless we need him to teach an online section of either 241 or 331.
5. Charlotte has listed POL 309 and PA/POL 421 (which we scheduled for her). But she also listed PA 445 (Institutional and Community Corrections) which was Duane Vild. Are all 3 of these good to go for Charlotte? We might need to ask her to teach 410 given your point below about Jun!
6. Jeff and Kirssa both requested POL 202 in-person for fall and both only noted one additional course. Thoughts? Kirssa is taking over part of the in person responsibility – Thanks, again. So, put Kirssa down for 202 in person (unless Kirssa wants to say otherwise.) I chatted with Jeff and he would be up for teaching 202 online. We will likely not have enough (or maybe any) PhD students for this. So, I think having Jeff teach one of the online sections of 202 would be handy.
7. Adam Henry wants to teach PA/PPEL 482 again as a honors/non-honors. This course only had 5 students this fall (May have been due to 2.5-hour scheduling or student need). Do we want to run this again? And he is requesting to offer PA 403 online for fall- is this ok? He developed the online 403 fairly recently. So, I think having him offer that again would probably be good. I am kind of torn on 482. I think if this is our only “environment” class for undergrads, then offering it is OK. But we probably need to enforce the 2 x a week option.

8. Is Tae Hyun Lim returning for PA 470? We have no commitment on our end. However, if we need this in person or online, we can absolutely ask him to provide it. I am sure he'd be very willing to do it.
9. Carolyn has a new POL/MENAS course noted for fall- the deadline for submission is Dec 15. Does this seem reasonable to offer a new course for her? She is required to teach a MENAS class. She and Edella recently reached an agreement on what her schedule will look like. So, yes, the plan is for her to offer a new human rights in middle east class that will be MENAS owned and then cross-listed with us.

Potential Holes due to leaves:

- POL 476 001- Women and the law (Suzi on leave)
- PA 410 001- Intro to Public and NP Fin Mgmt. (Jun on leave) – As above, I think having Charlotte repeat whatever version of 410 she offered this year seems reasonable.
- POL 455 001- Amer For Policy (Volgy only teaching POL 365 in Fall) – I think we just fly without this from Tom. Tom will be moving down to teaching just one class per semester and it looks like it will be 455 and 365 traded off.
- POL/MENA 365 001- International Politics of the ME (Carolyn teaching a new course) – Also fine to skip for a round.

Adjuncts: Can we reach out to the following Adjuncts for their regular teaching? – Maybe lets hold off on the adjuncts for a couple weeks while we think through the implications of our current round of hiring, if that is OK? Just want to make sure we do not add too many adjunct offerings and then have to squeeze in new hires.

- Orr, Ethan R POL 210
- Amaru, Jake POL 309
- Tryon, Brandon POL 309 & 470 ONLINE
- Brody, Stuart PA 330
- Clark, Karen PA 332 ONLINE
- Wilson, Chris PA 332
- Harper, Richard PA 347 & 348
- Hand, Frank PA 351
- McCamman, Michael PA 406 ONLINE maybe
- Oglesbee, Colin PA 410 ONLINE
- Prater, Richard PA 410
- Gordell, Kelly POL 201, POL 202, POL 413, POL 468 maybe
- Mcdaniel, Judith POL 476 ONLINE (a second course?)
- Cooper, Courtney PA/POL 419 ONLINE

I'm sure I have missed something- but this is my notes so far. Thanks again Sabryna!

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi Everyone,

I have good news- Dan has agreed to teach PA 330 online 7.5 Week I for SP23. I have also asked him to clarify his availability to teach in-person courses and I will let you know what his says.

So right now we only have 40 online seats for both PA 330 and 331 (Xavier). We could consider asking Stu Brody to teach in-person PA 330 again next spring (he is teaching it this fall for us—for the first time). But I don't have a suggestion for PA 331 (historically, this course has only been taught by Leonore and Neil Vance).

Attaching an updated workbook here-

- some req groups have been updated, per the advisors
- I noted the catalog level pre-requisite courses for all courses that have them (pink)
- everything in white is updated to SP23 in the catalog
- red and yellow courses need action of some sort
- Note that Xavier and Charlotte are now employees in UAccess and have been added to their courses. Carolyn is not yet an employee

Let me know if you have any further questions.

Thanks, all.

Deactivating old classes would be great :) There are a few at the 100 level, as well, that while they are not blocking numbers seem like we would be unlikely to ever offer again.

Thanks, Angela. Just a few quick thoughts -

301 - I like the idea of (at a minimum) doing a combined honors/non-honors course, especially if we need to offer it every year for the honors students. Could add this to the list to discuss with the advisors if we meet tomorrow.

335 - I have emailed with Carrie a number of times, and we never discussed modality. I am pretty sure she is assuming that it will be in-person. (Good catch, Alex.)

Pre-reqs are on the list to examine, but I also like the idea of deactivating POL numbers we don't use any more. I'm just making a mental note of that as another task to look into.

Hi Everyone,

Thanks so much-

1. I will remove the in-person POL 202 for SP23.
2. As for POL 301, you are correct that the enrollments are low (typically less than 10 usually) when it is run as an honors only course. I like the idea of the course a lot, but it is really difficult to have honors only courses. This course can be listed as honors only or combined with a 002, non-honors section. I don't think we need this course every year, but I am not sure what the advisors would say about it and the need for it for the honors students... I can change this however you would like-
3. I will reach out to Carolyn today—I thought I had already taken care of this, but I think I worked with her on Fall teaching and neglected the SP23.
4. We should do a deep review of the pre-reqs and have a discussion about them. It will take a course modification submission to remove them from courses because they are at the catalog level so it will take at least a full semester for them to be removed from the catalog. I also had a conversation with Edella that we should consider a review of the POL catalog because we are running out of numbers for new courses. We should consider deactivating some old classes that haven't been taught in 5-10 years. But this is another long term project and each deactivation is a submission that will take a full semester to be processed by RCS.
5. Sorry about that- I had forgotten to update PA 470 online to Tae. Thanks!

I think this covers it?

Thanks Alex,

1. I agree that we can bin in-person 202 for one semester next spring. This is what Kirssa and I converged on (short of putting a PhD student in the classroom.)
2. I don't think we should offer anything that is "always honors". (Including Tom's class.) The enrollments across the board are bad and we need a rotation.
3. N/A

4. Angela and I have been talking about tracking down all the pre-reqs and taking a bird's eye view. I don't think there are a huge number of them, but I agree they need to be stripped away where possible. (Spike's classes, and I think Adam's also have them.) I just need to get off my seat and track those down.

Many thanks, Angela.

A few thoughts for the braintrust here assembled:

1. POL202. Kirssa and I have been discussing. She will fill you in on the details, but our plan for now is to probably not run an in person section of the class in Spring. I am inclined to suggest we just run the two online sections and audible closer to the time if there is an issue. Hopefully 203 can pick up some slack and then students can enroll in summer and fall 23 sections in greater numbers, too.
2. POL301H. I think it would be good for us to consider this class. We run it most years. It was originally developed by Sam and Jess as a class that juniors would take while planning their honors theses. I do not think many of the honors thesis writing students take the class any more. So, we should probably re-think. Do we run as regular class or as co-convened honors and non-honors? Do we not run it this coming year? What frequency makes sense? The enrollments have tended to be low.
3. POL335. I assume this is not running online? Just a placeholder note?
4. POL452. This class shows as having a POL204 pre-req. I understand why folks like pre-reqs some time. However, relatively few students have ever taken 204, so it seems like we would be shooting ourselves in the foot holding a pre-req here. (Or maybe that was PK's motivation?) I am inclined for us to wipe out pre-reqs as far as possible. Thoughts?
5. PA470. I think that Tae Hyun was up for teaching both in person and online in Spring, as well. So, I think we can list him for the online section.

Think that is all from me for now

Cheers

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Hello All,
I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR – not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?

Thoughts? Thanks!

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person... Thoughts?

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Cheers

Hello Everyone,
Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McComman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Thanks, Tae Hyun. I inadvertently added you to the CC line there. Apologies. But it seems it served a useful purpose for us.

Glad to hear you would be game for teaching 470 in person in Spring.

As we start to finalize our schedule for spring, we will reach out to make some concrete plans.

Hi Alex,

Thank you for reaching out.

Yes, I would be very happy to teach PA 470 in-person and/or online in Spring 2023.

Please advise if you need anything from me.

Thank you very much!

Thanks, Kirssa. Great summary.

Tae Hyun Lim's email address is: [REDACTED]

He is due to teach 470 online in session 2 of Fall. He is based here in Tucson, so teaching online should be possible in Spring if he is up for that.

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.
2. Carolyn Barnett - POL/GWS 335 and ?
I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)
4. Xavier - is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCommon for online, would be good coverage
5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
Excellent, thanks!
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.
7. Mike McCommon - PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online
I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

Your email made me think about Leonore's teaching. Before she switched to PA 330 a few years ago, she taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System along with PA 443: White Collar Crime. We could think about offering that class.

But I am happy to reach out to her to start a conversation about what her teaching plans are. I will let you know what she says.

I suspect we are running out of time on the opportunity for live online designation. So, could be good for us to reach out to her about modality before addressing classes specifically.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

(We can maybe chat about some rules for in person, too, like avoiding the 2.5 hour blocks during business hours.)

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CJS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CJS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

Hi all - some updates on spring 2023:

- Daniel Armon needs to develop a second Israel course, so we will skip PA/POL 419 in-person for spring 23
- Susan Osorio will teach POL/LAS 347 each fall [REDACTED] so she will not offer that in spring semesters
- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

Best,
Kirssa

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

I am finally getting to my emails today!

I think it would be great for Jeff/Kirssa to reach out to the Adjuncts and see what their plans/interests are for teaching in SP 23. Below is a sample email Mark and I used to send them to verify all the info we needed to know (if it's helpful in your conversations). If they want to change their time/day preferences, we need to know pretty quick so that I can start to build the Visual Layout around the faculty requests.

Thanks so much! Let me know what you need from me

Greetings Betsy,

It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022.

Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,
Kirssa

Yeah. Was a student of Tom's here in the 80s and then did a PhD at Chicago before holding a few different faculty roles. He and his wife moved back to Tucson last year.

Potentially helps out with intellectual/disciplinary diversity!

Sounds good.

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.
- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Rasha. We do not need 415 again.
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA480.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff
7. POL361. As above.
8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibles" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Alex

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)
2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)
7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rashed is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio [REDACTED]
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because [REDACTED]
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...

Happy weekend!

Hi everyone,

I wanted to reach out and see if you know of anyone who would be able to teach PA 331, Criminal Justice Ethics, for spring 2023. It is scheduled as an in-person course, Mondays 3:30PM - 6:00PM.

Xavier is doing an online section that is already full (thank you for that!); but our long-time adjunct who typically offers the course in person is sadly no longer available to teach for us.

I wanted to reach out to you first to see if you might know of anyone. We have reached out to some of our other adjuncts and haven't had any luck finding a replacement yet.

Thanks much for any thoughts on this.

Hello Instructor Grossenbach,

This is a friendly reminder that we have not yet received an adoption for your Summer 2022 PA 330 - 101, 201 Seven Week - First Course Materials. The adoption deadline was February 14th which has recently passed. If you haven't already done so, place your textbook adoptions at <http://uabookstores.arizona.edu/f> aculty/default.asp. If you find that you need assistance with the ordering process in the link above, please email us at UABKS-textbook@email.arizona.edu or call 520-621-8868.

If you DO NOT require or recommend materials for your course, please indicate “NO TEXTBOOK REQUIRED” on the order form. By submitting a “NO TEXTBOOK REQUIRED” adoption, you help us stay in compliance with HEOA Guidelines, assisting students to make informed choices when they register for classes.

Due to the national paper shortage, we are experiencing delays when receiving print versions of books. An option you might consider to get around this is adopting your required title through our Inclusive Access program which will allow students to have digital access the first day of class to the title directly through D2L at a lower price than print! If you choose to go with Inclusive Access, please make sure to indicate “INCLUSIVE ACCESS” on the adoption form. Here is a link to more information about the Inclusive Access program: <https://shop.arizona.edu/textbooks/Inclusive.asp>. If you have any questions regarding this, please send us an email at the Inclusive Access email provided below.

If you have already submitted your adoption and received a confirmation email, please disregard this message.

Hi Angela,

Thanks for this.

Let's do Stu Brody for PA 331 in person. My preference is to skip 446/546, since the UG side is fine without it. I know it was a preference for the MPA/MPP folks, but it isn't an easy hole for us to fill. I think we can commit to offering it next year, if that happens to be useful for any of the current MA students.

Hi Kirssa,

I am attaching Stu's CV here- he's a JD and POL student with background ethics and ethical decision making. He does this as a consultant these days, but it was his area of expertise when practicing. I think he'd be a great fit for 331 and/or 446/546. Brandon Tryon was a 446 instructor as well as recently at FA20, but never as a co-convened course—but he could do it online for us? He has a JD so he's allowed to teach at the grad level and his contract only indicates 6 courses annually (4 during the AY and 2 in summer). So we could swap with POL 309 or POL 470 with 446 for the spring.

Thoughts?

It sounds like PA 446/546 and PA 331 are the big issues (assuming POL 416 works out and we don't need PA 330 in person).

For 331, I think Stu Brody would work. We could share a syllabus from 331 so he can see how different (or not) the course would need to be and see if he's interested. Another option might be to double the capacity of Xavier's online course and hire an MPA student to help grade. It's obviously not in person, but he is core CJ faculty with strong interest in the area, so I think it will be a good course. It would give us more seats.

For 446/546... ?? Neil Vance was the last person to teach it at the graduate level, and that was in 2011. Maybe Stu Brody for this one? (Wasn't he a Neil Vance connection?)

Subject: SP 23 Schedule

Hello

I was speaking with one of our publishing company reps yesterday and I realized something when she asked about the spring schedule—we still have a few holes.

At this time:

- POL 416 for Daniel Arnon- still in the RCS approval process – RCS add form needs to be submitted when this is added to Catalog
- PA 446/546 –It is in the catalog for Tuesday nights (but it is hidden to student view). This was to be Brad Bartos for spring but he is not teaching in spring. The MPA program would love for us to offer this, if possible.
- PA 330 – no in-person section at the moment- just a 40 seat online 7.5 WK I 101/201 course with Dan Grossenbach (this might be ok)
- PA 331 – No in-person section at the moment - just a 40 seat online 7.5 WK I 101/201 course with Xavier (we really need additional seats for main campus)
 - The hidden section in the catalog is scheduled for MW, 12:30-1:45pm - was originally scheduled for Leonore Simon

We may not need an in-person of 330, but we should try to have an in-person and online of 331. I have Stu Brody doing PA 330 this fall, in-person, if we think he could do the 331. He has a CJ background.

I am attaching Stu's CV here- he's a JD and POL student with background ethics and ethical decision making. He does this as a consultant these days, but it was his area of expertise when practicing. I think he'd be a great fit for 331 and/or 446/546. Brandon Tryon was a 446 instructor as well as recently at FA20, but never as a co-convened course—but he could do it online for us? He has a JD so he's allowed to teach at the grad level and his contract only indicates 6 courses annually (4 during the AY and 2 in summer). So we could swap with POL 309 or POL 470 with 446 for the spring.

It sounds like PA 446/546 and PA 331 are the big issues (assuming POL 416 works out and we don't need PA 330 in person).

For 331, I think Stu Brody would work. We could share a syllabus from 331 so he can see how different (or not) the course would need to be and see if he's interested. Another option might be to double the capacity of Xavier's online course and hire an MPA student to help grade. It's obviously not in person, but he is core CJ faculty with strong interest in the area, so I think it will be a good course. It would give us more seats.

For 446/546... ?? Neil Vance was the last person to teach it at the graduate level, and that was in 2011. Maybe Stu Brody for this one? (Wasn't he a Neil Vance connection?)

Subject: SP 23 Schedule

Hello

I was speaking with one of our publishing company reps yesterday and I realized something when she asked about the spring schedule—we still have a few holes.

At this time:

- POL 416 for Daniel Arnon- still in the RCS approval process – RCS add form needs to be submitted when this is added to Catalog
- PA 446/546 –It is in the catalog for Tuesday nights (but it is hidden to student view). This was to be Brad Bartos for spring but he is not teaching in spring. The MPA program would love for us to offer this, if possible.
- PA 330 – no in-person section at the moment- just a 40 seat online 7.5 WK I 101/201 course with Dan Grossenbach (this might be ok)
- PA 331 – No in-person section at the moment - just a 40 seat online 7.5 WK I 101/201 course with Xavier (we really need additional seats for main campus)
 - The hidden section in the catalog is scheduled for MW, 12:30-1:45pm - was originally scheduled for Leonore Simon

We may not need an in-person of 330, but we should try to have an in-person and online of 331. I have Stu Brody doing PA 330 this fall, in-person, if we think he could do the 331. He has a CJ background.

Hi Kirssa,
Just a quick FYI that Stu Brody stopped by today and he will likely email you.

He is teaching PA 330 for us this fall and he has requested that we consider him for teaching PA 330 for Spring. Right now, we don't have an in-person section of PA 330 for spring, but we do have an online one with Dan Grossenbach. We could also consider having him do PA 331 in person since we need that too... this was typically Leonore's section.

Just an FYI that both of her classes are fully enrolled now, but we could try to get some of these students to transfer into Xavier's class (TR, 3:30- 4:45 PM) ??

Hi Everyone,
I have good news- Dan has agreed to teach PA 330 online 7.5 Week I for SP23. I have also asked him to clarify his availability to teach in-person courses and I will let you know what his says.

So right now we only have 40 online seats for both PA 330 and 331 (Xavier). We could consider asking Stu Brody to teach in-person PA 330 again next spring (he is teaching it this fall for us—for the first time). But I don't have a suggestion for PA 331 (historically, this course has only been taught by Leonore and Neil Vance).

Attaching an updated workbook here-

- some req groups have been updated, per the advisors
- I noted the catalog level pre-requisite courses for all courses that have them (pink)
- everything in white is updated to SP23 in the catalog
- red and yellow courses need action of some sort
- Note that Xavier and Charlotte are now employees in UAccess and have been added to their courses. Carolyn is not yet an employee

Thanks, Angela. Just a few quick thoughts -

301 - I like the idea of (at a minimum) doing a combined honors/non-honors course, especially if we need to offer it every year for the honors students. Could add this to the list to discuss with the advisors if we meet tomorrow.

335 - I have emailed with Carrie a number of times, and we never discussed modality. I am pretty sure she is assuming that it will be in-person. (Good catch, Alex.)

Pre-reqs are on the list to examine, but I also like the idea of deactivating POL numbers we don't use any more. I'm just making a mental note of that as another task to look into.

Hi Everyone,

Thanks so much-

1. I will remove the in-person POL 202 for SP23.
2. As for POL 301, you are correct that the enrollments are low (typically less than 10 usually) when it is run as an honors only course. I like the idea of the course a lot, but it is really difficult to have honors only courses. This course can be listed as honors only or combined with a 002, non-honors section. I don't think we need this course every year, but I am not sure what the advisors would say about it and the need for it for the honors students... I can change this however you would like-
3. I will reach out to Carolyn today—I thought I had already taken care of this, but I think I worked with her on Fall teaching and neglected the SP23.
4. We should do a deep review of the pre-reqs and have a discussion about them. It will take a course modification submission to remove them from courses because they are at the catalog level so it will take at least a full semester for them to be removed from the catalog. I also had a conversation with Edella that we should consider a review of the POL catalog because we are running out of numbers for new courses. We should consider deactivating some old classes that haven't been taught in 5-10 years. But this is another long term project and each deactivation is a submission that will take a full semester to be processed by RCS.
5. Sorry about that- I had forgotten to update PA 470 online to Tae. Thanks!

I think this covers it?

Thanks Alex,

1. I agree that we can bin in-person 202 for one semester next spring. This is what Kirssa and I converged on (short of putting a PhD student in the classroom.)
2. I don't think we should offer anything that is "always honors". (Including Tom's class.) The enrollments across the board are bad and we need a rotation.
3. N/A
4. Angela and I have been talking about tracking down all the pre-reqs and taking a bird's eye view. I don't think there are a huge number of them, but I agree they need to be stripped away where possible. (Spike's classes, and I think Adam's also have them.) I just need to get off my seat and track those down.

Many thanks, Angela.

A few thoughts for the braintrust here assembled:

1. POL202. Kirssa and I have been discussing. She will fill you in on the details, but our plan for now is to probably not run an in person section of the class in Spring. I am inclined to suggest we just run the two online sections and audible closer to the time if there is an issue. Hopefully 203 can pick up some slack and then students can enroll in summer and fall 23 sections in greater numbers, too.
2. POL301H. I think it would be good for us to consider this class. We run it most years. It was originally developed by Sam and Jess as a class that juniors would take while planning their honors theses. I do not think many of the honors thesis writing students take the class any more. So, we should probably re-think. Do we run as regular class or as co-convened honors and non-honors? Do we not run it this coming year? What frequency makes sense? The enrollments have tended to be low.
3. POL335. I assume this is not running online? Just a placeholder note?
4. POL452. This class shows as having a POL204 pre-req. I understand why folks like pre-reqs some time. However, relatively few students have ever taken 204, so it seems like we would be shooting ourselves in the foot holding a pre-req here. (Or maybe that was PK's motivation?) I am inclined for us to wipe out pre-reqs as far as possible. Thoughts?
5. PA470. I think that Tae Hyun was up for teaching both in person and online in Spring, as well. So, I think we can list him for the online section.

Think that is all from me for now

Cheers

Alex

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Hello All,
I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR – not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?
Thoughts? Thanks!

My instinct is to have Leonore teach in person since she's willing. We do need to make sure 331 is online regularly moving forward, but if Xavier has it covered SP 23, then we're all good.

Hello Everyone,

Quick follow up- Leonore has gotten back to me and she is able to teach online or in-person for SP23.

Here is what we have from SP22:

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person... Thoughts?

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

Hello All,

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :)) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Cheers

Hello Everyone,
Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McCamman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Let me know your thoughts-

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.
2. Carolyn Barnett – POL/GWS 335 and ?
I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)
4. Xavier – is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCommon for online, would be good coverage
5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
Excellent, thanks!
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.
7. Mike McCommon – PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online
I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

(We can maybe chat about some rules for in person, too, like avoiding the 2.5 hour blocks during business hours.)

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

I have one quick follow-up on the adjunct invites - I can see that Karen Clark (PA 337) and Chris Olson (PA 350) are both full semester online courses- should I request that they both pick a 7.5 Week session to teach in rather than continue teaching the full semester online courses?

Thanks!

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CJS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CJS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

Hi All

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load. [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

- Daniel Armon needs to develop a second Israel course, so we will skip PA/POL 419 in-person for spring 23
- Susan Osorio will teach POL/LAS 347 each fall [REDACTED] so she will not offer that in spring semesters

- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

Hello Everyone,
I am finally getting to my emails today!
I think it would be great for Jeff/Kirssa to reach out to the Adjuncts and see what their plans/interests are for teaching in SP 23. Below is a sample email Mark and I used to send them to verify all the info we needed to know (if it's helpful in your conversations). If they want to change their time/day preferences, we need to know pretty quick so that I can start to build the Visual Layout around the faculty requests.

Thanks so much! Let me know what you need from me

Greetings Betsy,
It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022.
Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.
- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Rasha. We do not need 415 again.
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA480.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff
7. POL361. As above.
8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibles" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Alex

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)
2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)
7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rasha is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio [REDACTED]
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because [REDACTED]
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...

Happy weekend!

Hi Everyone,

I have good news- Dan has agreed to teach PA 330 online 7.5 Week I for SP23. I have also asked him to clarify his availability to teach in-person courses and I will let you know what his says.

So right now we only have 40 online seats for both PA 330 and 331 (Xavier). We could consider asking Stu Brody to teach in-person PA 330 again next spring (he is teaching it this fall for us—for the first time). But I don't have a suggestion for PA 331 (historically, this course has only been taught by Leonore and Neil Vance).

Attaching an updated workbook here-

- some req groups have been updated, per the advisors
- I noted the catalog level pre-requisite courses for all courses that have them (pink)
- everything in white is updated to SP23 in the catalog
- red and yellow courses need action of some sort
- Note that Xavier and Charlotte are now employees in UAccess and have been added to their courses. Carolyn is not yet an employee

Let me know if you have any further questions.

Thanks, Angela. Just a few quick thoughts -

301 - I like the idea of (at a minimum) doing a combined honors/non-honors course, especially if we need to offer it every year for the honors students. Could add this to the list to discuss with the advisors if we meet tomorrow.

335 - I have emailed with Carrie a number of times, and we never discussed modality. I am pretty sure she is assuming that it will be in-person. (Good catch, Alex.)

Pre-reqs are on the list to examine, but I also like the idea of deactivating POL numbers we don't use any more. I'm just making a mental note of that as another task to look into.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi Everyone,

Thanks so much-

1. I will remove the in-person POL 202 for SP23.
2. As for POL 301, you are correct that the enrollments are low (typically less than 10 usually) when it is run as an honors only course. I like the idea of the course a lot, but it is really difficult to have honors only courses. This course can be listed as honors only or combined with a 002, non-honors section. I don't think we need this course every year, but I am not sure what the advisors would say about it and the need for it for the honors students... I can change this however you would like-
3. I will reach out to Carolyn today—I thought I had already taken care of this, but I think I worked with her on Fall teaching and neglected the SP23.
4. We should do a deep review of the pre-reqs and have a discussion about them. It will take a course modification submission to remove them from courses because they are at the catalog level so it will take at least a full semester for them to be removed from the catalog. I also had a conversation with Edella that we should consider a review of the POL catalog because we are running out of numbers for new courses. We should consider deactivating some old classes that haven't been taught in 5-10 years. But this is another long term project and each deactivation is a submission that will take a full semester to be processed by RCS.
5. Sorry about that- I had forgotten to update PA 470 online to Tae. Thanks!

I think this covers it?

Thanks Alex,

1. I agree that we can bin in-person 202 for one semester next spring. This is what Kirssa and I converged on (short of putting a PhD student in the classroom.)
2. I don't think we should offer anything that is "always honors". (Including Tom's class.) The enrollments across the board are bad and we need a rotation.
3. N/A
4. Angela and I have been talking about tracking down all the pre-reqs and taking a bird's eye view. I don't think there are a huge number of them, but I agree they need to be stripped away where possible. (Spike's classes, and I think Adam's also have them.) I just need to get off my seat and track those down.

Many thanks, Angela.

A few thoughts for the braintrust here assembled:

1. POL202. Kirssa and I have been discussing. She will fill you in on the details, but our plan for now is to probably not run an in person section of the class in Spring. I am inclined to suggest we just run the two online sections and audible closer to the time if there is an issue. Hopefully 203 can pick up some slack and then students can enroll in summer and fall 23 sections in greater numbers, too.
2. POL301H. I think it would be good for us to consider this class. We run it most years. It was originally developed by Sam and Jess as a class that juniors would take while planning their honors theses. I do not think many of the honors thesis writing students take the class any more. So, we should probably re-think. Do we run as regular class or as co-convened honors and non-honors? Do we not run it this coming year? What frequency makes sense? The enrollments have tended to be low.
3. POL335. I assume this is not running online? Just a placeholder note?
4. POL452. This class shows as having a POL204 pre-req. I understand why folks like pre-reqs some time. However, relatively few students have ever taken 204, so it seems like we would be shooting ourselves in the foot holding a pre-req here. (Or maybe that was PK's motivation?) I am inclined for us to wipe out pre-reqs as far as possible. Thoughts?
5. PA470. I think that Tae Hyun was up for teaching both in person and online in Spring, as well. So, I think we can list him for the online section.

Think that is all from me for now

Cheers

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Hello All,
I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR – not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?

Thoughts? Thanks!

Here is what we have from SP22:

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person... Thoughts?

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

Hello All,

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :)) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Cheers

Hello Everyone,

Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)

- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McComman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Let me know your thoughts-

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.
2. Carolyn Barnett – POL/GWS 335 and ?
I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)
4. Xavier – is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCammon for online, would be good coverage
5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
Excellent, thanks!
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.
7. Mike McCammon – PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online
I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

I suspect we are running out of time on the opportunity for live online designation. So, could be good for us to reach out to her about modality before addressing classes specifically.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Thanks, Angela.

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 4/70: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Cheers

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CJS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CJS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

Hi All

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

Cheers

I remain ambivalent about Thayer. We are probably due to run 361, but as Kirssa says, it would be a new prep for him. Otherwise, based on what I'm seeing, 485 didn't have tremendous numbers.

Good to know on Susan. FYI, this is she said on her teaching load:

[REDACTED] So, the planned courses look like this:

Fall 2022: POL/LAS 312, POL/LAS 347

Spring 2023: POL/LAS 348, LAS 445/545

Most of her courses are cross-listed POL (except LAS 445), although I'm not sure what the home department is for the POL/LAS cross-listed courses.

Hi all - some updates on spring 2023:

- Daniel Arnon needs to develop a second Israel course, so we will skip PA/POL 419 in-person for spring 23
- Susan Osorio will teach POL/LAS 347 each fall [REDACTED] so she will not offer that in spring semesters
- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

Hello Everyone,

I am finally getting to my emails today!

I think it would be great for Jeff/Kirssa to reach out to the Adjuncts and see what their plans/interests are for teaching in SP 23. Below is a sample email Mark and I used to send them to verify all the info we needed to know (if it's helpful in your conversations). If they want to change their time/day preferences, we need to know pretty quick so that I can start to build the Visual Layout around the faculty requests.

Thanks so much! Let me know what you need from me

Greetings Betsy,

It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

The Fall 2022 semester class schedule August 22, 2022- December 7, 2022 (Final Exams December 9-15, 2022). Your Fall 2021 schedule was as follows:

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022.

Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,

Sounds good.

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.
- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Rasho. We do not need 415 again.
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA480.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff [REDACTED]
7. POL361. As above.
8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibles" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Alex

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)

2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)
7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rashed is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio [REDACTED]
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because [REDACTED]
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...
Happy weekend!

Thanks, Angela!

I just emailed separately to confirm that we will have Kelly Gordell teaching POL202 online session 1 and POL413 online session 2.

Hi Everyone,

I have good news- Dan has agreed to teach PA 330 online 7.5 Week I for SP23. I have also asked him to clarify his availability to teach in-person courses and I will let you know what his says.

So right now we only have 40 online seats for both PA 330 and 331 (Xavier). We could consider asking Stu Brody to teach in-person PA 330 again next spring (he is teaching it this fall for us—for the first time). But I don't have a suggestion for PA 331 (historically, this course has only been taught by Leonore and Neil Vance).

Attaching an updated workbook here-

- some req groups have been updated, per the advisors
- I noted the catalog level pre-requisite courses for all courses that have them (pink)
- everything in white is updated to SP23 in the catalog
- red and yellow courses need action of some sort
- Note that Xavier and Charlotte are now employees in UAccess and have been added to their courses. Carolyn is not yet an employee

Let me know if you have any further questions.

Deactivating old classes would be great :) There are a few at the 100 level, as well, that while they are not blocking numbers seem like we would be unlikely to ever offer again.

Thanks, Angela. Just a few quick thoughts -

301 - I like the idea of (at a minimum) doing a combined honors/non-honors course, especially if we need to offer it every year for the honors students. Could add this to the list to discuss with the advisors if we meet tomorrow.

335 - I have emailed with Carrie a number of times, and we never discussed modality. I am pretty sure she is assuming that it will be in-person. (Good catch, Alex.)

Pre-reqs are on the list to examine, but I also like the idea of deactivating POL numbers we don't use any more. I'm just making a mental note of that as another task to look into.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi Everyone,

Thanks so much-

1. I will remove the in-person POL 202 for SP23.
2. As for POL 301, you are correct that the enrollments are low (typically less than 10 usually) when it is run as an honors only course. I like the idea of the course a lot, but it is really difficult to have honors only courses. This course can be listed as honors only or combined with a 002, non-honors section. I don't think we need this course every year, but I am not sure what the advisors would say about it and the need for it for the honors students... I can change this however you would like-
3. I will reach out to Carolyn today—I thought I had already taken care of this, but I think I worked with her on Fall teaching and neglected the SP23.
4. We should do a deep review of the pre-reqs and have a discussion about them. It will take a course modification submission to remove them from courses because they are at the catalog level so it will take at least a full semester for them to be removed from the catalog. I also had a conversation with Edella that we should consider a review of the POL catalog because we are running out of numbers for new courses. We should consider deactivating some old classes that haven't been taught in 5-10 years. But this is another long term project and each deactivation is a submission that will take a full semester to be processed by RCS.
5. Sorry about that- I had forgotten to update PA 470 online to Tae. Thanks!

I think this covers it?

Thanks Alex,

1. I agree that we can bin in-person 202 for one semester next spring. This is what Kirssa and I converged on (short of putting a PhD student in the classroom.)
2. I don't think we should offer anything that is "always honors". (Including Tom's class.) The enrollments across the board are bad and we need a rotation.
3. N/A
4. Angela and I have been talking about tracking down all the pre-reqs and taking a bird's eye view. I don't think there are a huge number of them, but I agree they need to be stripped away where possible. (Spike's classes, and I think Adam's also have them.) I just need to get off my seat and track those down.

Many thanks, Angela.

A few thoughts for the braintrust here assembled:

1. POL202. Kirssa and I have been discussing. She will fill you in on the details, but our plan for now is to probably not run an in person section of the class in Spring. I am inclined to suggest we just run the two online sections and audible closer to the time if there is an issue. Hopefully 203 can pick up some slack and then students can enroll in summer and fall 23 sections in greater numbers, too.
2. POL301H. I think it would be good for us to consider this class. We run it most years. It was originally developed by Sam and Jess as a class that juniors would take while planning their honors theses. I do not think many of the honors thesis writing students take the class any more. So, we should probably re-think. Do we run as regular class or as co-convened honors and non-honors? Do we not run it this coming year? What frequency makes sense? The enrollments have tended to be low.
3. POL335. I assume this is not running online? Just a placeholder note?
4. POL452. This class shows as having a POL204 pre-req. I understand why folks like pre-reqs some time. However, relatively few students have ever taken 204, so it seems like we would be shooting ourselves in the foot holding a pre-req here. (Or maybe that was PK's motivation?) I am inclined for us to wipe out pre-reqs as far as possible. Thoughts?

5. PA470. I think that Tae Hyun was up for teaching both in person and online in Spring, as well. So, I think we can list him for the online section.

Think that is all from me for now

Cheers

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Hello All,
I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR – not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?
Thoughts? Thanks!

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :)) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Hello Everyone,

Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McCamman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Let me know your thoughts-

Thanks, Tae Hyun. I inadvertently added you to the CC line there. Apologies. But it seems it served a useful purpose for us.

Glad to hear you would be game for teaching 470 in person in Spring.

As we start to finalize our schedule for spring, we will reach out to make some concrete plans.

Hi Alex,

Thank you for reaching out.

Yes, I would be very happy to teach PA 470 in-person and/or online in Spring 2023.

Please advise if you need anything from me.

Thank you very much!

Tae Hyun Lim's email address is: [REDACTED]

He is due to teach 470 online in session 2 of Fall. He is based here in Tucson, so teaching online should be possible in Spring if he is up for that.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?

I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.

2. Carolyn Barnett – POL/GWS 335 and ?

I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn

3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?

Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)

4. Xavier – is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?

Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCommon for online, would be good coverage

5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go

Excellent, thanks!

6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)

That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.

7. Mike McCommon – PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online

I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

Your email made me think about Leonore's teaching. Before she switched to PA 330 a few years ago, she taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System along with PA 443: White Collar Crime. We could think about offering that class.

But I am happy to reach out to her to start a conversation about what her teaching plans are. I will let you know what she says.

Thanks, Angela. I suspect we will want something from Leonore Simon. However, not sure whether it will include ethics. Plus, I do not know if she is going to "demand" live online, again. I suspect we are running out of time on the opportunity for live online designation. So, could be good for us to reach out to her about modality before addressing classes specifically.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

(We can maybe chat about some rules for in person, too, like avoiding the 2.5 hour blocks during business hours.)

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CJS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CJS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

Hi All

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

Sounds great, thanks! If you could also contact Betsy Palmer, just with a confirmation of her two online courses, that would also be great. (I told her we'd officially confirm the courses shortly - sorry!)

Good to know on Susan. FYI, this is she said on her teaching load:

[REDACTED]

So, the planned courses look like this:

*Fall 2022: POL/LAS 312, POL/LAS 347
Spring 2023: POL/LAS 348, LAS 445/545*

Most of her courses are cross-listed POL (except LAS 445), although I'm not sure what the home department is for the POL/LAS cross-listed courses.

Hi all - some updates on spring 2023:

- Daniel Aron needs to develop a second Israel course, so we will skip PA/POL 419 in-person for spring 23
- Susan Osorio will teach POL/LAS 347 each fall so she will not offer that in spring semesters
- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

I am finally getting to my emails today!

I think it would be great for Jeff/Kirssa to reach out to the Adjuncts and see what their plans/interests are for teaching in SP 23. Below is a sample email Mark and I used to send them to verify all the info we needed to know (if it's helpful in your conversations). If they want to change their time/day preferences, we need to know pretty quick so that I can start to build the Visual Layout around the faculty requests.

Thanks so much! Let me know what you need from me

Greetings Betsy,

It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

The Fall 2022 semester class schedule August 22, 2022- December 7, 2022 (Final Exams December 9-15, 2022). Your Fall 2021 schedule was as follows:

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022. Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.
- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Rasha. We do not need 415 again.
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA480.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff [REDACTED]
7. POL361. As above.

8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibilities" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)
2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)
7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rasha is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...

Hi Everyone,

I have good news- Dan has agreed to teach PA 330 online 7.5 Week I for SP23. I have also asked him to clarify his availability to teach in-person courses and I will let you know what his says.

So right now we only have 40 online seats for both PA 330 and 331 (Xavier). We could consider asking Stu Brody to teach in-person PA 330 again next spring (he is teaching it this fall for us—for the first time). But I don't have a suggestion for PA 331 (historically, this course has only been taught by Leonore and Neil Vance).

Attaching an updated workbook here-

- some req groups have been updated, per the advisors
- I noted the catalog level pre-requisite courses for all courses that have them (pink)
- everything in white is updated to SP23 in the catalog
- red and yellow courses need action of some sort
- Note that Xavier and Charlotte are now employees in UAccess and have been added to their courses. Carolyn is not yet an employee

Let me know if you have any further questions.

Thanks, Angela. Just a few quick thoughts -

301 - I like the idea of (at a minimum) doing a combined honors/non-honors course, especially if we need to offer it every year for the honors students. Could add this to the list to discuss with the advisors if we meet tomorrow.

335 - I have emailed with Carrie a number of times, and we never discussed modality. I am pretty sure she is assuming that it will be in-person. (Good catch, Alex.)

Pre-reqs are on the list to examine, but I also like the idea of deactivating POL numbers we don't use any more. I'm just making a mental note of that as another task to look into.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi Everyone,
Thanks so much-

1. I will remove the in-person POL 202 for SP23.
2. As for POL 301, you are correct that the enrollments are low (typically less than 10 usually) when it is run as an honors only course. I like the idea of the course a lot, but it is really difficult to have honors only courses. This course can be listed as honors only or combined with a 002, non-honors section. I don't think we need this course every year, but I am not sure what the advisors would say about it and the need for it for the honors students... I can change this however you would like-
3. I will reach out to Carolyn today—I thought I had already taken care of this, but I think I worked with her on Fall teaching and neglected the SP23.
4. We should do a deep review of the pre-reqs and have a discussion about them. It will take a course modification submission to remove them from courses because they are at the catalog level so it will take at least a full semester for them to be removed from the catalog. I also had a conversation with Edella that we should consider a review of the POL catalog because we are running out of numbers for new courses. We should consider deactivating some old classes that haven't been taught in 5-10 years. But this is another long term project and each deactivation is a submission that will take a full semester to be processed by RCS.
5. Sorry about that- I had forgotten to update PA 470 online to Tae. Thanks!

I think this covers it?

Thanks Alex,

1. I agree that we can bin in-person 202 for one semester next spring. This is what Kirssa and I converged on (short of putting a PhD student in the classroom.)
2. I don't think we should offer anything that is "always honors". (Including Tom's class.) The enrollments across the board are bad and we need a rotation.
3. N/A
4. Angela and I have been talking about tracking down all the pre-reqs and taking a bird's eye view. I don't think there are a huge number of them, but I agree they need to be stripped away where possible. (Spike's classes, and I think Adam's also have them.) I just need to get off my seat and track those down.

Many thanks, Angela.

A few thoughts for the braintrust here assembled:

1. POL202. Kirssa and I have been discussing. She will fill you in on the details, but our plan for now is to probably not run an in person section of the class in Spring. I am inclined to suggest we just run the two online sections and audible closer to the time if there is an issue. Hopefully 203 can pick up some slack and then students can enroll in summer and fall 23 sections in greater numbers, too.
2. POL301H. I think it would be good for us to consider this class. We run it most years. It was originally developed by Sam and Jess as a class that juniors would take while planning their honors theses. I do not think many of the honors thesis writing students take the class any more. So, we should probably re-think. Do we run as regular class or as co-convened honors and non-honors? Do we not run it this coming year? What frequency makes sense? The enrollments have tended to be low.
3. POL335. I assume this is not running online? Just a placeholder note?
4. POL452. This class shows as having a POL204 pre-req. I understand why folks like pre-reqs some time. However, relatively few students have ever taken 204, so it seems like we would be shooting ourselves in the foot holding a pre-req here. (Or maybe that was PK's motivation?) I am inclined for us to wipe out pre-reqs as far as possible. Thoughts?
5. PA470. I think that Tae Hyun was up for teaching both in person and online in Spring, as well. So, I think we can list him for the online section.

Think that is all from me for now

Cheers

Alex

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

Hello All,
I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello All,

I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR – not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?
Thoughts? Thanks!

Here is what we have from SP22:

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person... Thoughts?

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

Hello All,

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Cheers

Hello Everyone,
Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McCamman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Thanks, Kirssa. Great summary.

Tae Hyun Lim's email address is: [REDACTED]

He is due to teach 470 online in session 2 of Fall. He is based here in Tucson, so teaching online should be possible in Spring if he is up for that.

Cheers

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.
2. Carolyn Barnett – POL/GWS 335 and ?
I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)
4. Xavier – is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCammon for online, would be good coverage
5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
Excellent, thanks!
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.
7. Mike McCammon – PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online
I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

Hi Alex,

Your email made me think about Leonore's teaching. Before she switched to PA 330 a few years ago, she taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System along with PA 443: White Collar Crime. We could think about offering that class.

But I am happy to reach out to her to start a conversation about what her teaching plans are. I will let you know what she says.

live online, again. I suspect we are running out of time on the opportunity for live online designation. So, could be good for us to reach out to her about modality before addressing classes specifically.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

(We can maybe chat about some rules for in person, too, like avoiding the 2.5 hour blocks during business hours.)

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CJS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CJS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

Hi All

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

Good to know on Susan. FYI, this is she said on her teaching load:

So, the planned courses look like this:

Fall 2022: POL/LAS 312, POL/LAS 347

Spring 2023: POL/LAS 348, LAS 445/545

Most of her courses are cross-listed POL (except LAS 445), although I'm not sure what the home department is for the POL/LAS cross-listed courses.

Hi all - some updates on spring 2023:

- Daniel Arnon needs to develop a second Israel course, so we will skip PA/POL 419 in-person for spring 23
- Susan Osorio will teach POL/LAS 347 each fall [REDACTED] so she will not offer that in spring semesters
- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

The Fall 2022 semester class schedule August 22, 2022- December 7, 2022 (Final Exams December 9-15, 2022). Your Fall 2021 schedule was as follows:

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022.

Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,
Kirssa

Sounds good.

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.
- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Rasha. We do not need 415 again. [REDACTED]
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA480.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff [REDACTED]
7. POL361. As above.
8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some “maybes” or “possibles” from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)
2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)
7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rasha is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio [REDACTED]
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because [REDACTED]
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...
Happy weekend!

Hi Dan,

Your timing in emailing me the other day was perfect- I am now working to reach out to our Adjunct team now.

It is that time of year again to coordinate our Spring 2023 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course!

The Spring 23 semester class schedules:

- Full Semester: Jan 11, 2023 – May 3, 2023
- 7.5 Week I: Jan 11, 2023 – March 3, 2023
- 7.5 Week II: March 13, 2023- May 3, 2023
- Final Exams: May 5-11, 2023

Your Spring 2022 schedule was as follows:

Subject	Catalog	Section	Modality	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Session
PA	330	101/201	Online	Ethics for Public Admin	40	Grossenbach, Dan	7.5 WK I

Would you like to teach this course again?

- If you would like to teach this course again, I am happy to schedule it now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

Please let me know your teaching invitation response soon. Note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students and end one week after final exams. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Spring Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in October 2022.

Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Thanks, Angela. Just a few quick thoughts -

301 - I like the idea of (at a minimum) doing a combined honors/non-honors course, especially if we need to offer it every year for the honors students. Could add this to the list to discuss with the advisors if we meet tomorrow.

335 - I have emailed with Carrie a number of times, and we never discussed modality. I am pretty sure she is assuming that it will be in-person. (Good catch, Alex.)

Pre-reqs are on the list to examine, but I also like the idea of deactivating POL numbers we don't use any more. I'm just making a mental note of that as another task to look into.

Hi Everyone,
Thanks so much-

1. I will remove the in-person POL 202 for SP23.
2. As for POL 301, you are correct that the enrollments are low (typically less than 10 usually) when it is run as an honors only course. I like the idea of the course a lot, but it is really difficult to have honors only courses. This course can be listed as honors only or combined with a 002, non-honors section. I don't think we need this course every year, but I am not sure what the advisors would say about it and the need for it for the honors students... I can change this however you would like-
3. I will reach out to Carolyn today—I thought I had already taken care of this, but I think I worked with her on Fall teaching and neglected the SP23.
4. We should do a deep review of the pre-reqs and have a discussion about them. It will take a course modification submission to remove them from courses because they are at the catalog level so it will take at least a full semester for them to be removed from the catalog. I also had a conversation with Edella that we should consider a review of the POL catalog because we are running out of numbers for new courses. We should consider deactivating some old classes that haven't been taught in 5-10 years. But this is another long term project and each deactivation is a submission that will take a full semester to be processed by RCS.
5. Sorry about that- I had forgotten to update PA 470 online to Tae. Thanks!

I think this covers it?

Thanks Alex,

1. I agree that we can bin in-person 202 for one semester next spring. This is what Kirssa and I converged on (short of putting a PhD student in the classroom.)
2. I don't think we should offer anything that is "always honors". (Including Tom's class.) The enrollments across the board are bad and we need a rotation.
3. N/A
4. Angela and I have been talking about tracking down all the pre-reqs and taking a bird's eye view. I don't think there are a huge number of them, but I agree they need to be stripped away where possible. (Spike's classes, and I think Adam's also have them.) I just need to get off my seat and track those down.

Many thanks, Angela.

A few thoughts for the braintrust here assembled:

1. POL202. Kirssa and I have been discussing. She will fill you in on the details, but our plan for now is to probably not run an in person section of the class in Spring. I am inclined to suggest we just run the two online sections and audible closer to the time if there is an issue. Hopefully 203 can pick up some slack and then students can enroll in summer and fall 23 sections in greater numbers, too.
2. POL301H. I think it would be good for us to consider this class. We run it most years. It was originally developed by Sam and Jess as a class that juniors would take while planning their honors theses. I do not think many of the honors thesis writing students take the class any more. So, we should probably re-think. Do we run as regular class or as co-convened honors and non-honors? Do we not run it this coming year? What frequency makes sense? The enrollments have tended to be low.
3. POL335. I assume this is not running online? Just a placeholder note?
4. POL452. This class shows as having a POL204 pre-req. I understand why folks like pre-reqs some time. However, relatively few students have ever taken 204, so it seems like we would be shooting ourselves in the foot holding a pre-req here. (Or maybe that was PK's motivation?) I am inclined for us to wipe out pre-reqs as far as possible. Thoughts?
5. PA470. I think that Tae Hyun was up for teaching both in person and online in Spring, as well. So, I think we can list him for the online section.

Think that is all from me for now

Cheers

Alex

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Hello All,

I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR -- not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?

Thoughts? Thanks!

Here is what we have from SP22:

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person... Thoughts?

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :)) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Hello Everyone,

Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McComman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Hi Alex,

Thank you for reaching out.

Yes, I would be very happy to teach PA 470 in-person and/or online in Spring 2023.

Please advise if you need anything from me.

Thank you very much!

Best,

Tae Hyun

Thanks, Kirssa. Great summary.

Tae Hyun Lim's email address is: [REDACTED]

He is due to teach 470 online in session 2 of Fall. He is based here in Tucson, so teaching online should be possible in Spring if he is up for that.

Cheers

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.
2. Carolyn Barnett - POL/GWS 335 and ?
I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)
4. Xavier - is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCammon for online, would be good coverage
5. Daniel Aron and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
Excellent, thanks!
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.
7. Mike McCammon - PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online
I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

Hi Alex,

Your email made me think about Leonore's teaching. Before she switched to PA 330 a few years ago, she taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System along with PA 443: White Collar Crime. We could think about offering that class.

But I am happy to reach out to her to start a conversation about what her teaching plans are. I will let you know what she says.

Thanks, Angela. I suspect we will want something from Leonore Simon. However, not sure whether it will include ethics. Plus, I do not know if she is going to "demand" live online, again. I suspect we are running out of time on the opportunity for live online designation. So, could be good for us to reach out to her about modality before addressing classes specifically.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

(We can maybe chat about some rules for in person, too, like avoiding the 2.5 hour blocks during business hours.)

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CJS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CJS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

Hi All

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

Hi all - some updates on spring 2023:

- Daniel Armon needs to develop a second Israel course, so we will skip PA/POL 419 in-person for spring 23
- Susan Osorio will teach POL/LAS 347 each fall [REDACTED] so she will not offer that in spring semesters
- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,
I am finally getting to my emails today!

I think it would be great for Jeff/Kirssa to reach out to the Adjuncts and see what their plans/interests are for teaching in SP 23. Below is a sample email Mark and I used to send them to verify all the info we needed to know (if it's helpful in your conversations). If they want to change their time/day preferences, we need to know pretty quick so that I can start to build the Visual Layout around the faculty requests.

Thanks so much! Let me know what you need from me

Greetings Betsy,

It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

The Fall 2022 semester class schedule August 22, 2022- December 7, 2022 (Final Exams December 9-15, 2022). Your Fall 2021 schedule was as follows:

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022.

Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,
Kirssa

Yeah. Was a student of Tom's here in the 80s and then did a PhD at Chicago before holding a few different faculty roles. He and his wife moved back to Tucson last year.

Potentially helps out with intellectual/disciplinary diversity!

Sounds good.

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.

- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Kasho. We do not need 415 again.
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA480.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff
7. POL361. As above.
8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibles" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)
2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)

7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rasha is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio [REDACTED]
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because [REDACTED]
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...
Happy weekend!

Thanks, Angela. Just a few quick thoughts -

301 - I like the idea of (at a minimum) doing a combined honors/non-honors course, especially if we need to offer it every year for the honors students. Could add this to the list to discuss with the advisors if we meet tomorrow.

335 - I have emailed with Carrie a number of times, and we never discussed modality. I am pretty sure she is assuming that it will be in-person. (Good catch, Alex.)

Pre-reqs are on the list to examine, but I also like the idea of deactivating POL numbers we don't use any more. I'm just making a mental note of that as another task to look into.

Hi Everyone,

Thanks so much-

1. I will remove the in-person POL 202 for SP23.
2. As for POL 301, you are correct that the enrollments are low (typically less than 10 usually) when it is run as an honors only course. I like the idea of the course a lot, but it is really difficult to have honors only courses. This course can be listed as honors only or combined with a 002, non-honors section. I don't think we need this course every year, but I am not sure what the advisors would say about it and the need for it for the honors students... I can change this however you would like-
3. I will reach out to Carolyn today—I thought I had already taken care of this, but I think I worked with her on Fall teaching and neglected the SP23.
4. We should do a deep review of the pre-reqs and have a discussion about them. It will take a course modification submission to remove them from courses because they are at the catalog level so it will take at least a full semester for them to be removed from the catalog. I also had a conversation with Edella that we should consider a review of the POL catalog because we are running out of numbers for new courses. We should consider deactivating some old classes that haven't been taught in 5-10 years. But this is another long term project and each deactivation is a submission that will take a full semester to be processed by RCS.
5. Sorry about that- I had forgotten to update PA 470 online to Tae. Thanks!

I think this covers it?

Thanks Alex,

1. I agree that we can bin in-person 202 for one semester next spring. This is what Kirssa and I converged on (short of putting a PhD student in the classroom.)
2. I don't think we should offer anything that is "always honors". (Including Tom's class.) The enrollments across the board are bad and we need a rotation.
3. N/A
4. Angela and I have been talking about tracking down all the pre-reqs and taking a bird's eye view. I don't think there are a huge number of them, but I agree they need to be stripped away where possible. (Spike's classes, and I think Adam's also have them.) I just need to get off my seat and track those down.

Many thanks, Angela.

A few thoughts for the braintrust here assembled:

1. POL202. Kirssa and I have been discussing. She will fill you in on the details, but our plan for now is to probably not run an in person section of the class in Spring. I am inclined to suggest we just run the two online sections and audible closer to the time if there is an issue. Hopefully 203 can pick up some slack and then students can enroll in summer and fall 23 sections in greater numbers, too.
2. POL301H. I think it would be good for us to consider this class. We run it most years. It was originally developed by Sam and Jess as a class that juniors would take while planning their honors theses. I do not think many of the honors thesis writing students take the class any more. So, we should probably re-think. Do we run as regular class or as co-convened honors and non-honors? Do we not run it this coming year? What frequency makes sense? The enrollments have tended to be low.
3. POL335. I assume this is not running online? Just a placeholder note?
4. POL452. This class shows as having a POL204 pre-req. I understand why folks like pre-reqs some time. However, relatively few students have ever taken 204, so it seems like we would be shooting ourselves in the foot holding a pre-req here. (Or maybe that was PK's motivation?) I am inclined for us to wipe out pre-reqs as far as possible. Thoughts?
5. PA470. I think that Tae Hyun was up for teaching both in person and online in Spring, as well. So, I think we can list him for the online section.

Think that is all from me for now

Cheers

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

Hello All,

I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello All,

I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR – not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?

Thoughts? Thanks!

Quick follow up- Leonore has gotten back to me and she is able to teach online or in-person for SP23.

Here is what we have from SP22:

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person... Thoughts?

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

Hello All,

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :)) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Cheers

Hello Everyone,

Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McCamman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Let me know your thoughts-

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.
2. Carolyn Barnett – POL/GWS 335 and ?
I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)
4. Xavier – is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCommon for online, would be good coverage
5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
Excellent, thanks!
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.
7. Mike McCommon – PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online
I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

2. Carolyn Barnett – POL/GWS 335 and ?

3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
4. Xavier – is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
7. Mike McCammon – PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online

I will revisit all of this next week and send an updated schedule once I have some responses from the adjuncts.
Thanks- happy weekend!

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

(We can maybe chat about some rules for in person, too, like avoiding the 2.5 hour blocks during business hours.)

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Cheers

Hi All,
Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CJS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CJS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online

(in one section).

Hi All

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

Cheers

Good to know on Susan. FYI, this is she said on her teaching load:

[REDACTED] So, the planned courses look like this:

Spring 2023: POL/LAS 348, LAS 445/545*

Most of her courses are cross-listed POL (except LAS 445), although I'm not sure what the home department is for the POL/LAS cross-listed courses.

Hi all - some updates on spring 2023:

- Daniel Armon needs to develop a second Israel course, so we will skip PA/POL 419 in-person for spring 23
- Susan Osorio will teach POL/LAS 347 each fall so she will not offer that in spring semesters
- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

Hello Everyone,

I am finally getting to my emails today!

I think it would be great for Jeff/Kirssa to reach out to the Adjuncts and see what their plans/interests are for teaching in SP 23. Below is a sample email Mark and I used to send them to verify all the info we needed to know (if it's helpful in your conversations). If they want to change their time/day preferences, we need to know pretty quick so that I can start to build the Visual Layout around the faculty requests.

Thanks so much! Let me know what you need from me

Greetings Betsy,

It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

The Fall 2022 semester class schedule August 22, 2022- December 7, 2022 (Final Exams December 9-15, 2022). Your Fall 2021 schedule was as follows:

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now

- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022. Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.
- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel

7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Rasha. We do not need 415 again. [REDACTED]
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA480.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff [REDACTED]
7. POL361. As above.
8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibles" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Alex

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)
2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)
7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rasha is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio [REDACTED]
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)

- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because [REDACTED]
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...

I just sent her an email; she's typically taken a week or so to get back to me, but we'll see.

I am nearly positive she'll want to do in person (there are no plans to develop the course on online, and it would be a lot to ask for someone's first year). I think 335 only counts towards the POL major, so that will hopefully give us some room to maneuver.

Thanks, Angela. Just a few quick thoughts -

301 - I like the idea of (at a minimum) doing a combined honors/non-honors course, especially if we need to offer it every year for the honors students. Could add this to the list to discuss with the advisors if we meet tomorrow.

335 - I have emailed with Carrie a number of times, and we never discussed modality. I am pretty sure she is assuming that it will be in-person. (Good catch, Alex.)

Pre-reqs are on the list to examine, but I also like the idea of deactivating POL numbers we don't use any more. I'm just making a mental note of that as another task to look into.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi Everyone,
Thanks so much-

1. I will remove the in-person POL 202 for SP23.
2. As for POL 301, you are correct that the enrollments are low (typically less than 10 usually) when it is run as an honors only course. I like the idea of the course a lot, but it is really difficult to have honors only courses. This course can be listed as honors only or combined with a 002, non-honors section. I don't think we need this course every year, but I am not sure what the advisors would say about it and the need for it for the honors students... I can change this however you would like-
3. I will reach out to Carolyn today—I thought I had already taken care of this, but I think I worked with her on Fall teaching and neglected the SP23.
4. We should do a deep review of the pre-reqs and have a discussion about them. It will take a course modification submission to remove them from courses because they are at the catalog level so it will take at least a full semester for them to be removed from the catalog. I also had a conversation with Edella that we should consider a review of the POL catalog because we are running out of numbers for new courses. We should consider deactivating some old classes that haven't been taught in 5-10 years. But this is another long term project and each deactivation is a submission that will take a full semester to be processed by RCS.
5. Sorry about that- I had forgotten to update PA 470 online to Tae. Thanks!

I think this covers it?

Thanks Alex,

1. I agree that we can bin in-person 202 for one semester next spring. This is what Kirssa and I converged on (short of putting a PhD student in the classroom.)
2. I don't think we should offer anything that is "always honors". (Including Tom's class.) The enrollments across the board are bad and we need a rotation.
3. N/A
4. Angela and I have been talking about tracking down all the pre-reqs and taking a bird's eye view. I don't think there are a huge number of them, but I agree they need to be stripped away where possible. (Spike's classes, and I think Adam's also have them.) I just need to get off my seat and track those down.

Many thanks, Angela.

A few thoughts for the braintrust here assembled:

1. POL202. Kirssa and I have been discussing. She will fill you in on the details, but our plan for now is to probably not run an in person section of the class in Spring. I am inclined to suggest we just run the two online sections and audible closer to the time if there is an issue. Hopefully 203 can pick up some slack and then students can enroll in summer and fall 23 sections in greater numbers, too.
2. POL301H. I think it would be good for us to consider this class. We run it most years. It was originally developed by Sam and Jess as a class that juniors would take while planning their honors theses. I do not think many of the honors thesis writing students take the class any more. So, we should probably re-think. Do we run as regular class or as co-convened honors and non-honors? Do we not run it this coming year? What frequency makes sense? The enrollments have tended to be low.
3. POL335. I assume this is not running online? Just a placeholder note?
4. POL452. This class shows as having a POL204 pre-req. I understand why folks like pre-reqs some time. However, relatively few students have ever taken 204, so it seems like we would be shooting ourselves in the foot holding a pre-req here. (Or maybe that was PK's motivation?) I am inclined for us to wipe out pre-reqs as far as possible. Thoughts?
5. PA470. I think that Tae Hyun was up for teaching both in person and online in Spring, as well. So, I think we can list him for the online section.

Think that is all from me for now

Cheers

Alex

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

Hello All,

I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello All,
I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR – not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?
Thoughts? Thanks!

Thanks Angela,

My instinct is to have Leonore teach in person since she's willing. We do need to make sure 331 is online regularly moving forward, but if Xavier has it covered SP 23, then we're all good.

Hello Everyone,

Quick follow up- Leonore has gotten back to me and she is able to teach online or in-person for SP23.

Here is what we have from SP22:

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person... Thoughts?

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

Hello All,

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :)) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Cheers

Hello Everyone,

Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McComman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Let me know your thoughts-

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.
2. Carolyn Barnett - POL/GWS 335 and ?
I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)
4. Xavier - is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCommon for online, would be good coverage
5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go

Excellent, thanks!

6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)

That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.

7. Mike McCammon – PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online

I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi All,

I have one quick follow-up on the adjunct invites - I can see that Karen Clark (PA 337) and Chris Olson (PA 350) are both full semester online courses- should I request that they both pick a 7.5 Week session to teach in rather than continue teaching the full semester online courses?

Thanks!

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Cheers

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CJS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CJS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

Hi All

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

Good to know on Susan. FYI, this is she said on her teaching load:

 So, the planned courses look like this:

Fall 2022: POL/LAS 312, POL/LAS 347

Spring 2023: POL/LAS 348, LAS 445/545

Most of her courses are cross-listed POL (except LAS 445), although I'm not sure what the home department is for the POL/LAS cross-listed courses.

Hi all - some updates on spring 2023:

- Daniel Arnon needs to develop a second Israel course, so we will skip PA/POL 419 in-person for spring 23
- Susan Osorio will teach POL/LAS 347 each fall [REDACTED] so she will not offer that in spring semesters
- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

Hello Everyone,

I am finally getting to my emails today!

I think it would be great for Jeff/Kirssa to reach out to the Adjuncts and see what their plans/interests are for teaching in SP 23. Below is a sample email Mark and I used to send them to verify all the info we needed to know (if it's helpful in your conversations). If they want to change their time/day preferences, we need to know pretty quick so that I can start to build the Visual Layout around the faculty requests.

Thanks so much! Let me know what you need from me

Greetings Betsy,

It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

The Fall 2022 semester class schedule August 22, 2022- December 7, 2022 (Final Exams December 9-15, 2022). Your Fall 2021 schedule was as follows:

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022. Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.
- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Rasha. We do not need 415 again.
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA480.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff [REDACTED]
7. POL361. As above.
8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibles" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.

4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)
2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)
7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rasha is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio [REDACTED]
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because [REDACTED]
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...

Happy weekend!

I just sent her an email; she's typically taken a week or so to get back to me, but we'll see.

I am nearly positive she'll want to do in person (there are no plans to develop the course for online, and it would be a lot to ask for someone's first year). I think 335 only counts towards the POL major, so that will hopefully give us some room to maneuver.

Thanks, Angela. Just a few quick thoughts -

301 - I like the idea of (at a minimum) doing a combined honors/non-honors course, especially if we need to offer it every year for the honors students. Could add this to the list to discuss with the advisors if we meet tomorrow.

335 - I have emailed with Carrie a number of times, and we never discussed modality. I am pretty sure she is assuming that it will be in-person. (Good catch, Alex.)

Pre-reqs are on the list to examine, but I also like the idea of deactivating POL numbers we don't use any more. I'm just making a mental note of that as another task to look into.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi Everyone,
Thanks so much-

1. I will remove the in-person POL 202 for SP23.
2. As for POL 301, you are correct that the enrollments are low (typically less than 10 usually) when it is run as an honors only course. I like the idea of the course a lot, but it is really difficult to have honors only courses. This course can be listed as honors only or combined with a 002, non-honors section. I don't think we need this course every year, but I am not sure what the advisors would say about it and the need for it for the honors students... I can change this however you would like-
3. I will reach out to Carolyn today—I thought I had already taken care of this, but I think I worked with her on Fall teaching and neglected the SP23.
4. We should do a deep review of the pre-reqs and have a discussion about them. It will take a course modification submission to remove them from courses because they are at the catalog level so it will take at least a full semester for them to be removed from the catalog. I also had a conversation with Edella that we should consider a review of the POL catalog because we are running out of numbers for new courses. We should consider deactivating some old classes that haven't been taught in 5-10 years. But this is another long term project and each deactivation is a submission that will take a full semester to be processed by RCS.
5. Sorry about that- I had forgotten to update PA 470 online to Tae. Thanks!

I think this covers it?

Thanks Alex,

1. I agree that we can bin in-person 202 for one semester next spring. This is what Kirssa and I converged on (short of putting a PhD student in the classroom.)
2. I don't think we should offer anything that is "always honors". (Including Tom's class.) The enrollments across the board are bad and we need a rotation.
3. N/A
4. Angela and I have been talking about tracking down all the pre-reqs and taking a bird's eye view. I don't think there are a huge number of them, but I agree they need to be stripped away where possible. (Spike's classes, and I think Adam's also have them.) I just need to get off my seat and track those down.

Many thanks, Angela.

A few thoughts for the braintrust here assembled:

1. POL202. Kirssa and I have been discussing. She will fill you in on the details, but our plan for now is to probably not run an in person section of the class in Spring. I am inclined to suggest we just run the two online sections and audible closer to the time if there is an issue. Hopefully 203 can pick up some slack and then students can enroll in summer and fall 23 sections in greater numbers, too.
2. POL301H. I think it would be good for us to consider this class. We run it most years. It was originally developed by Sam and Jess as a class that juniors would take while planning their honors theses. I do not think many of the honors thesis writing students take the class any more. So, we should probably re-think. Do we run as regular class or as co-convened honors and non-honors? Do we not run it this coming year? What frequency makes sense? The enrollments have tended to be low.
3. POL335. I assume this is not running online? Just a placeholder note?
4. POL452. This class shows as having a POL204 pre-req. I understand why folks like pre-reqs some time. However, relatively few students have ever taken 204, so it seems like we would be shooting ourselves in the foot holding a pre-req here. (Or maybe that was PK's motivation?) I am inclined for us to wipe out pre-reqs as far as possible. Thoughts?
5. PA470. I think that Tae Hyun was up for teaching both in person and online in Spring, as well. So, I think we can list him for the online section.

Think that is all from me for now

Cheers

Alex

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

Hello All,
I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello All,

I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR -- not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?

Thoughts? Thanks!

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person... Thoughts?

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :)) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Hello Everyone,

Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McComman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Thanks, Tae Hyun. I inadvertently added you to the CC line there. Apologies. But it seems it served a useful purpose for us.

Glad to hear you would be game for teaching 470 in person in Spring.

As we start to finalize our schedule for spring, we will reach out to make some concrete plans.

Hi Alex,

Thank you for reaching out.

Yes, I would be very happy to teach PA 470 in-person and/or online in Spring 2023.

Please advise if you need anything from me.

Thank you very much!

Thanks, Kirssa. Great summary.

Tae Hyun Lim's email address is: [REDACTED]

He is due to teach 470 online in session 2 of Fall. He is based here in Tucson, so teaching online should be possible in Spring if he is up for that.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.
2. Carolyn Barnett - POL/GWS 335 and ?
I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)
4. Xavier - is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCammon for online, would be good coverage
5. Daniel Aron and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
Excellent, thanks!
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.
7. Mike McCammon - PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online
I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

Hi Alex,

Your email made me think about Leonore's teaching. Before she switched to PA 330 a few years ago, she taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System along with PA 443: White Collar Crime. We could think about offering that class.

But I am happy to reach out to her to start a conversation about what her teaching plans are. I will let you know what she says.

Thanks, Angela. I suspect we will want something from Leonore Simon. However, not sure whether it will include ethics. Plus, I do not know if she is going to "demand" live online, again. I suspect we are running out of time on the opportunity for live online designation. So, could be good for us to reach out to her about modality before addressing classes specifically.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

(We can maybe chat about some rules for in person, too, like avoiding the 2.5 hour blocks during business hours.)

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CJS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CJS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

Hi All

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

[REDACTED] So, the planned courses look like this:

Hi all - some updates on spring 2023:

- Daniel Armon needs to develop a second Israel course, so we will skip PA/POL 419 in-person for spring 23
- Susan Osorio will teach POL/LAS 347 each fall [REDACTED] so she will not offer that in spring semesters
- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

Best,
Kirssa

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,
I am finally getting to my emails today!

I think it would be great for Jeff/Kirssa to reach out to the Adjuncts and see what their plans/interests are for teaching in SP 23. Below is a sample email Mark and I used to send them to verify all the info we needed to know (if it's helpful in your conversations). If they want to change their time/day preferences, we need to know pretty quick so that I can start to build the Visual Layout around the faculty requests.

Thanks so much! Let me know what you need from me

Greetings Betsy,

It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

The Fall 2022 semester class schedule August 22, 2022- December 7, 2022 (Final Exams December 9-15, 2022). Your Fall 2021 schedule was as follows:

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022.

Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,
Kirssa

Sounds good.

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.

- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Kasho. We do not need 415 again.
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA480.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff
7. POL361. As above.
8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibles" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Alex

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)
2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)

7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rasha is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio [REDACTED]
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because [REDACTED]
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...

Thanks, Angela. Just a few quick thoughts -

301 - I like the idea of (at a minimum) doing a combined honors/non-honors course, especially if we need to offer it every year for the honors students. Could add this to the list to discuss with the advisors if we meet tomorrow.

335 - I have emailed with Carrie a number of times, and we never discussed modality. I am pretty sure she is assuming that it will be in-person. (Good catch, Alex.)

Pre-reqs are on the list to examine, but I also like the idea of deactivating POL numbers we don't use any more. I'm just making a mental note of that as another task to look into.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi Everyone,

Thanks so much-

1. I will remove the in-person POL 202 for SP23.
2. As for POL 301, you are correct that the enrollments are low (typically less than 10 usually) when it is run as an honors only course. I like the idea of the course a lot, but it is really difficult to have honors only courses. This course can be listed as honors only or combined with a 002, non-honors section. I don't think we need this course every year, but I am not sure what the advisors would say about it and the need for it for the honors students... I can change this however you would like-
3. I will reach out to Carolyn today—I thought I had already taken care of this, but I think I worked with her on Fall teaching and neglected the SP23.
4. We should do a deep review of the pre-reqs and have a discussion about them. It will take a course modification submission to remove them from courses because they are at the catalog level so it will take at least a full semester for them to be removed from the catalog. I also had a conversation with Edella that we should consider a review of the POL catalog because we are running out of numbers for new courses. We should consider deactivating some old classes that haven't been taught in 5-10 years. But this is another long term project and each deactivation is a submission that will take a full semester to be processed by RCS.
5. Sorry about that- I had forgotten to update PA 470 online to Tae. Thanks!

I think this covers it?

Thanks Alex,

1. I agree that we can bin in-person 202 for one semester next spring. This is what Kirssa and I converged on (short of putting a PhD student in the classroom.)
2. I don't think we should offer anything that is "always honors". (Including Tom's class.) The enrollments across the board are bad and we need a rotation.
3. N/A
4. Angela and I have been talking about tracking down all the pre-reqs and taking a bird's eye view. I don't think there are a huge number of them, but I agree they need to be stripped away where possible. (Spike's classes, and I think Adam's also have them.) I just need to get off my seat and track those down.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Many thanks, Angela.

A few thoughts for the braintrust here assembled:

1. POL202. Kirssa and I have been discussing. She will fill you in on the details, but our plan for now is to probably not run an in person section of the class in Spring. I am inclined to suggest we just run the two online sections and audible closer to the time if there is an issue. Hopefully 203 can pick up some slack and then students can enroll in summer and fall 23 sections in greater numbers, too.
2. POL301H. I think it would be good for us to consider this class. We run it most years. It was originally developed by Sam and Jess as a class that juniors would take while planning their honors theses. I do not think many of the honors thesis writing students take the class any more. So, we should probably re-think. Do we run as regular class or as co-convened honors and non-honors? Do we not run it this coming year? What frequency makes sense? The enrollments have tended to be low.
3. POL335. I assume this is not running online? Just a placeholder note?
4. POL452. This class shows as having a POL204 pre-req. I understand why folks like pre-reqs some time. However, relatively few students have ever taken 204, so it seems like we would be shooting ourselves in the foot holding a pre-req here. (Or maybe that was PK's motivation?) I am inclined for us to wipe out pre-reqs as far as possible. Thoughts?
5. PA470. I think that Tae Hyun was up for teaching both in person and online in Spring, as well. So, I think we can list him for the online section.

Think that is all from me for now

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

Hello All,
I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello All,
I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR – not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?
Thoughts? Thanks!

Hello Everyone,

Quick follow up- Leonore has gotten back to me and she is able to teach online or in-person for SP23.

Here is what we have from SP22:

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person...

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

Hello All,

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :)) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Cheers

Hello Everyone,

Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McCamman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Let me know your thoughts-

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.
2. Carolyn Barnett – POL/GWS 335 and ?
I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)
4. Xavier – is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCammon for online, would be good coverage
5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
Excellent, thanks!
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.
7. Mike McCammon – PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online
I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

Thanks, Angela. I suspect we will want something from Leonore Simon. However, not sure whether it will include ethics. Plus, I do not know if she is going to "demand" live online, again. I suspect we are running out of time on the opportunity for live online designation. So, could be good for us to reach out to her about modality before addressing classes specifically.

At this time, I have the following open questions (and I know some are in the works, so no worries):

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
2. Carolyn Barnett – POL/GWS 335 and ?
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
4. Xavier – is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
7. Mike McCammon – PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online

I will revisit all of this next week and send an updated schedule once I have some responses from the adjuncts.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

(We can maybe chat about some rules for in person, too, like avoiding the 2.5 hour blocks during business hours.)

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CIS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CIS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

Hi All

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

Cheers

Good to know on Susan. FYI, this is she said on her teaching load:

So, the planned courses look like this:

Fall 2022: POL/LAS 312, POL/LAS 347

Spring 2023: POL/LAS 348, LAS 445/545

Most of her courses are cross-listed POL (except LAS 445), although I'm not sure what the home department is for the POL/LAS cross-listed courses.

Hi all - some updates on spring 2023:

- Daniel Aron needs to develop a second Israel course, so we will skip PA/POL 419 in-person for spring 23
- Susan Osorio will teach POL/LAS 347 each fall so she will not offer that in spring semesters
- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

Hello Everyone,
I am finally getting to my emails today!
I think it would be great for Jeff/Kirssa to reach out to the Adjuncts and see what their plans/interests are for teaching in SP 23. Below is a sample email Mark and I used to send them to verify all the info we needed to know (if it's helpful in your conversations). If they want to change their time/day preferences, we need to know pretty quick so that I can start to build the Visual Layout around the faculty requests.

Thanks so much! Let me know what you need from me

Greetings Betsy,
It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

The Fall 2022 semester class schedule August 22, 2022- December 7, 2022 (Final Exams December 9-15, 2022). Your Fall 2021 schedule was as follows:

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022.
Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,

Yeah. Was a student of Tom's here in the 80s and then did a PhD at Chicago before holding a few different faculty roles. He and his wife moved back to Tucson last year.

Potentially helps out with intellectual/disciplinary diversity!

Sounds good.

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.
- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Rasho. We do not need 415 again.
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA480.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff
7. POL361. As above.
8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibles" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)
2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)
7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rasha is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio [REDACTED]
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because [REDACTED]
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...

Happy weekend!

Thanks, Angela. Just a few quick thoughts -

301 - I like the idea of (at a minimum) doing a combined honors/non-honors course, especially if we need to offer it every year for the honors students. Could add this to the list to discuss with the advisors if we meet tomorrow.

335 - I have emailed with Carrie a number of times, and we never discussed modality. I am pretty sure she is assuming that it will be in-person. (Good catch, Alex.)

Pre-reqs are on the list to examine, but I also like the idea of deactivating POL numbers we don't use any more. I'm just making a mental note of that as another task to look into.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi Everyone,

Thanks so much-

1. I will remove the in-person POL 202 for SP23.
2. As for POL 301, you are correct that the enrollments are low (typically less than 10 usually) when it is run as an honors only course. I like the idea of the course a lot, but it is really difficult to have honors only courses. This course can be listed as honors only or combined with a 002, non-honors section. I don't think we need this course every year, but I am not sure what the advisors would say about it and the need for it for the honors students... I can change this however you would like-
3. I will reach out to Carolyn today—I thought I had already taken care of this, but I think I worked with her on Fall teaching and neglected the SP23.
4. We should do a deep review of the pre-reqs and have a discussion about them. It will take a course modification submission to remove them from courses because they are at the catalog level so it will take at least a full semester for them to be removed from the catalog. I also had a conversation with Edella that we should consider a review of the POL catalog because we are running out of numbers for new courses. We should consider deactivating some old classes that haven't been taught in 5-10 years. But this is another long term project and each deactivation is a submission that will take a full semester to be processed by RCS.
5. Sorry about that- I had forgotten to update PA 470 online to Tae. Thanks!

I think this covers it?

Thanks Alex,

1. I agree that we can bin in-person 202 for one semester next spring. This is what Kirssa and I converged on (short of putting a PhD student in the classroom.)
2. I don't think we should offer anything that is "always honors". (Including Tom's class.) The enrollments across the board are bad and we need a rotation.
3. N/A
4. Angela and I have been talking about tracking down all the pre-reqs and taking a bird's eye view. I don't think there are a huge number of them, but I agree they need to be stripped away where possible. (Spike's classes, and I think Adam's also have them.) I just need to get off my seat and track those down.

Many thanks, Angela.

A few thoughts for the braintrust here assembled:

1. POL202. Kirssa and I have been discussing. She will fill you in on the details, but our plan for now is to probably not run an in person section of the class in Spring. I am inclined to suggest we just run the two online sections and audible closer to the time if there is an issue. Hopefully 203 can pick up some slack and then students can enroll in summer and fall 23 sections in greater numbers, too.
2. POL301H. I think it would be good for us to consider this class. We run it most years. It was originally developed by Sam and Jess as a class that juniors would take while planning their honors theses. I do not think many of the honors thesis writing students take the class any more. So, we should probably re-think. Do we run as regular class or as co-convened honors and non-honors? Do we not run it this coming year? What frequency makes sense? The enrollments have tended to be low.

3. POL335. I assume this is not running online? Just a placeholder note?
4. POL452. This class shows as having a POL204 pre-req. I understand why folks like pre-reqs some time. However, relatively few students have ever taken 204, so it seems like we would be shooting ourselves in the foot holding a pre-req here. (Or maybe that was PK's motivation?) I am inclined for us to wipe out pre-reqs as far as possible. Thoughts?
5. PA470. I think that Tae Hyun was up for teaching both in person and online in Spring, as well. So, I think we can list him for the online section.

Think that is all from me for now

Cheers

Alex

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello All,

I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR – not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?
Thoughts? Thanks!

Thanks Angela,

My instinct is to have Leonore teach in person since she's willing. We do need to make sure 331 is online regularly moving forward, but if Xavier has it covered SP 23, then we're all good.

Hello Everyone,

Quick follow up- Leonore has gotten back to me and she is able to teach online or in-person for SP23.

Here is what we have from SP22:

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person... Thoughts?

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

Hello All,

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :)) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Cheers

Hello Everyone,

Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McCamman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Let me know your thoughts-

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.
2. Carolyn Barnett – POL/GWS 335 and ?
I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)
4. Xavier – is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCommon for online, would be good coverage
5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
Excellent, thanks!
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.
7. Mike McCommon – PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online
I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Hi All,

I have one quick follow-up on the adjunct invites - I can see that Karen Clark (PA 337) and Chris Olson (PA 350) are both full semester online courses- should I request that they both pick a 7.5 Week session to teach in rather than continue teaching the full semester online courses?

Thanks!

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CJS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CJS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

Hi All

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

Cheers

Hi all - some updates on spring 2023:

- Daniel Arnon needs to develop a second Israel course, so we will skip PA/POL 419 in-person for spring 23
- Susan Osorio will teach POL/LAS 347 each fall so she will not offer that in spring semesters
- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

Hello Everyone,
I am finally getting to my emails today!
I think it would be great for Jeff/Kirssa to reach out to the Adjuncts and see what their plans/interests are for teaching in SP 23. Below is a sample email Mark and I used to send them to verify all the info we needed to know (if it's helpful in your conversations). If they want to change their time/day preferences, we need to know pretty quick so that I can start to build the Visual Layout around the faculty requests.

Thanks so much! Let me know what you need from me

Greetings Betsy,
It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

The Fall 2022 semester class schedule August 22, 2022- December 7, 2022 (Final Exams December 9-15, 2022). Your Fall 2021 schedule was as follows:

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022. Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.
- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Rasha. We do not need 415 again. [REDACTED]
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA486.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.

6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff [REDACTED]
7. POL361. As above.
8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibilities" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rasha is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio [REDACTED]
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because [REDACTED]
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...
Happy weekend!

Hi Everyone,
Thanks so much-

1. I will remove the in-person POL 202 for SP23.
2. As for POL 301, you are correct that the enrollments are low (typically less than 10 usually) when it is run as an honors only course. I like the idea of the course a lot, but it is really difficult to have honors only courses. This course can be listed as honors only or combined with a 002, non-honors section. I don't think we need this course every year, but I am not sure what the advisors would say about it and the need for it for the honors students... I can change this however you would like-
3. I will reach out to Carolyn today—I thought I had already taken care of this, but I think I worked with her on Fall teaching and neglected the SP23.
4. We should do a deep review of the pre-reqs and have a discussion about them. It will take a course modification submission to remove them from courses because they are at the catalog level so it will take at least a full semester for them to be removed from the catalog. I also had a conversation with Edella that we should consider a review of the POL catalog because we are running out of numbers for new courses. We should consider deactivating some old classes that haven't been taught in 5-10 years. But this is another long term project and each deactivation is a submission that will take a full semester to be processed by RCS.
5. Sorry about that- I had forgotten to update PA 470 online to Tae. Thanks!

I think this covers it?

Thanks Alex,

1. I agree that we can bin in-person 202 for one semester next spring. This is what Kirssa and I converged on (short of putting a PhD student in the classroom.)
2. I don't think we should offer anything that is "always honors". (Including Tom's class.) The enrollments across the board are bad and we need a rotation.
3. N/A
4. Angela and I have been talking about tracking down all the pre-reqs and taking a bird's eye view. I don't think there are a huge number of them, but I agree they need to be stripped away where possible. (Spike's classes, and I think Adam's also have them.) I just need to get off my seat and track those down.

Many thanks, Angela.

A few thoughts for the braintrust here assembled:

1. POL202. Kirssa and I have been discussing. She will fill you in on the details, but our plan for now is to probably not run an in person section of the class in Spring. I am inclined to suggest we just run the two online sections and audible closer to the time if there is an issue. Hopefully 203 can pick up some slack and then students can enroll in summer and fall 23 sections in greater numbers, too.
2. POL301H. I think it would be good for us to consider this class. We run it most years. It was originally developed by Sam and Jess as a class that juniors would take while planning their honors theses. I do not think many of the honors thesis writing students take the class any more. So, we should probably re-think. Do we run as regular class or as co-convened honors and non-honors? Do we not run it this coming year? What frequency makes sense? The enrollments have tended to be low.
3. POL335. I assume this is not running online? Just a placeholder note?
4. POL452. This class shows as having a POL204 pre-req. I understand why folks like pre-reqs some time. However, relatively few students have ever taken 204, so it seems like we would be shooting ourselves in the foot holding a pre-req here. (Or maybe that was PK's motivation?) I am inclined for us to wipe out pre-reqs as far as possible. Thoughts?
5. PA470. I think that Tae Hyun was up for teaching both in person and online in Spring, as well. So, I think we can list him for the online section.

Think that is all from me for now

Cheers

Alex

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

Hello All,
I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Hello All,

I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR – not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?
Thoughts? Thanks!

Here is what we have from SP22:

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person... Thoughts?

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

Hello All,

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :)) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Cheers

Hello Everyone,

Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McCamman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Thanks, Tae Hyun. I inadvertently added you to the CC line there. Apologies. But it seems it served a useful purpose for us.

Glad to hear you would be game for teaching 470 in person in Spring.

As we start to finalize our schedule for spring, we will reach out to make some concrete plans.

Hi Alex,

Thank you for reaching out.

Yes, I would be very happy to teach PA 470 in-person and/or online in Spring 2023.

Please advise if you need anything from me.

Thank you very much!

Best,

Tae Hyun

Thanks, Kirssa. Great summary.

Tae Hyun Lim's email address is: [REDACTED]

He is due to teach 470 online in session 2 of Fall. He is based here in Tucson, so teaching online should be possible in Spring if he is up for that.

Cheers

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?

I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.

2. Carolyn Barnett – POL/GWS 335 and ?

I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn

3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?

Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)

4. Xavier – is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?

Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCammon for online, would be good coverage

5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go

Excellent, thanks!

6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)

That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.

7. Mike McCammon – PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online

I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

Hi Alex,

Your email made me think about Leonore's teaching. Before she switched to PA 330 a few years ago, she taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System along with PA 443: White Collar Crime. We could think about offering that class.

But I am happy to reach out to her to start a conversation about what her teaching plans are. I will let you know what she says.

Thanks, Angela. I suspect we will want something from Leonore Simon. However, not sure whether it will include ethics. Plus, I do not know if she is going to "demand" live online, again. I suspect we are running out of time on the opportunity for live online designation. So, could be good for us to reach out to her about modality before addressing classes specifically.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

(We can maybe chat about some rules for in person, too, like avoiding the 2.5 hour blocks during business hours.)

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CJS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CJS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

Kirssa

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

I am finally getting to my emails today!

I think it would be great for Jeff/Kirssa to reach out to the Adjuncts and see what their plans/interests are for teaching in SP 23. Below is a sample email Mark and I used to send them to verify all the info we needed to know (if it's helpful in your conversations). If they want to change their time/day preferences, we need to know pretty quick so that I can start to build the Visual Layout around the faculty requests.

Thanks so much! Let me know what you need from me

Greetings Betsy,

It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

The Fall 2022 semester class schedule August 22, 2022- December 7, 2022 (Final Exams December 9-15, 2022). Your Fall 2021 schedule was as follows:

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022.

Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,

Yeah. Was a student of Tom's here in the 80s and then did a PhD at Chicago before holding a few different faculty roles. He and his wife moved back to Tucson last year.

Potentially helps out with intellectual/disciplinary diversity!

Sounds good.

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.
- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Rasha. We do not need 415 again.
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA480.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff [REDACTED]
7. POL361. As above.

8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibles" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Orsorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Alex

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)
2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)
7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rasha is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Orsorio
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...
Happy weekend!

Thanks Alex,

1. I agree that we can bin in-person 202 for one semester next spring. This is what Kirssa and I converged on (short of putting a PhD student in the classroom.)
2. I don't think we should offer anything that is "always honors". (Including Tom's class.) The enrollments across the board are bad and we need a rotation.
3. N/A
4. Angela and I have been talking about tracking down all the pre-reqs and taking a bird's eye view. I don't think there are a huge number of them, but I agree they need to be stripped away where possible. (Spike's classes, and I think Adam's also have them.) I just need to get off my seat and track those down.

Many thanks, Angela.

A few thoughts for the braintrust here assembled:

1. POL202. Kirssa and I have been discussing. She will fill you in on the details, but our plan for now is to probably not run an in person section of the class in Spring. I am inclined to suggest we just run the two online sections and audible closer to the time if there is an issue. Hopefully 203 can pick up some slack and then students can enroll in summer and fall 23 sections in greater numbers, too.
2. POL301H. I think it would be good for us to consider this class. We run it most years. It was originally developed by Sam and Jess as a class that juniors would take while planning their honors theses. I do not think many of the honors thesis writing students take the class any more. So, we should probably re-think. Do we run as regular class or as co-convened honors and non-honors? Do we not run it this coming year? What frequency makes sense? The enrollments have tended to be low.
3. POL335. I assume this is not running online? Just a placeholder note?
4. POL452. This class shows as having a POL204 pre-req. I understand why folks like pre-reqs some time. However, relatively few students have ever taken 204, so it seems like we would be shooting ourselves in the foot holding a pre-req here. (Or maybe that was PK's motivation?) I am inclined for us to wipe out pre-reqs as far as possible. Thoughts?
5. PA470. I think that Tae Hyun was up for teaching both in person and online in Spring, as well. So, I think we can list him for the online section.

Think that is all from me for now

Cheers

Alex

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

Hello All,

I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello All,
I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR – not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?
Thoughts? Thanks!

Hello Everyone,

Quick follow up- Leonore has gotten back to me and she is able to teach online or in-person for SP23.

Here is what we have from SP22:

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person... Thoughts?

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

Hello All,

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :)) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Cheers

Hello Everyone,
Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McComman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Let me know your thoughts-

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.
2. Carolyn Barnett - POL/GWS 335 and ?
I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)
4. Xavier - is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCammon for online, would be good coverage
5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
Excellent, thanks!
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.
7. Mike McCammon - PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online
I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

(We can maybe chat about some rules for in person, too, like avoiding the 2.5 hour blocks during business hours.)

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CIS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CIS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

Hi All

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

- Daniel Amon needs to develop a second Israel course, so we will skip PA/POL 419 in-person for spring 23
- Susan Osorio will teach POL/LAS 347 each fall [REDACTED] so she will not offer that in spring semesters
- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

Hello Everyone,

I am finally getting to my emails today!

I think it would be great for Jeff/Kirssa to reach out to the Adjuncts and see what their plans/interests are for teaching in SP 23. Below is a sample email Mark and I used to send them to verify all the info we needed to know (if it's helpful in your conversations). If they want to change their time/day preferences, we need to know pretty quick so that I can start to build the Visual Layout around the faculty requests.

Thanks so much! Let me know what you need from me

Greetings Betsy,

It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

The Fall 2022 semester class schedule August 22, 2022- December 7, 2022 (Final Exams December 9-15, 2022). Your Fall 2021 schedule was as follows:

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022.

Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.

Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.

- Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.
- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Rasha. We do not need 415 again. [REDACTED]
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA486.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff [REDACTED]
7. POL361. As above.
8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibilities" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Alex

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)
2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)
7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rashed is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio [REDACTED]
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because [REDACTED]
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...

Happy weekend!

Many thanks, Angela.

A few thoughts for the braintrust here assembled:

1. POL202. Kirssa and I have been discussing. She will fill you in on the details, but our plan for now is to probably not run an in person section of the class in Spring. I am inclined to suggest we just run the two online sections and audible closer to the time if there is an issue. Hopefully 203 can pick up some slack and then students can enroll in summer and fall 23 sections in greater numbers, too.
2. POL301H. I think it would be good for us to consider this class. We run it most years. It was originally developed by Sam and Jess as a class that juniors would take while planning their honors theses. I do not think many of the honors thesis writing students take the class any more. So, we should probably re-think. Do we run as regular class or as co-convened honors and non-honors? Do we not run it this coming year? What frequency makes sense? The enrollments have tended to be low.
3. POL335. I assume this is not running online? Just a placeholder note?
4. POL452. This class shows as having a POL204 pre-req. I understand why folks like pre-reqs some time. However, relatively few students have ever taken 204, so it seems like we would be shooting ourselves in the foot holding a pre-req here. (Or maybe that was PK's motivation?) I am inclined for us to wipe out pre-reqs as far as possible. Thoughts?
5. PA470. I think that Tae Hyun was up for teaching both in person and online in Spring, as well. So, I think we can list him for the online section.

Think that is all from me for now

Cheers

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

Hello All,
I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello All,
I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR – not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?
Thoughts? Thanks!

Hello Everyone,

Quick follow up- Leonore has gotten back to me and she is able to teach online or in-person for SP23.

Here is what we have from SP22:

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person...

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

Hello All,

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :)) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Cheers

Hello Everyone,

Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McComman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Let me know your thoughts-

Thanks, Tae Hyun. I inadvertently added you to the CC line there. Apologies. But it seems it served a useful purpose for us.

Glad to hear you would be game for teaching 470 in person in Spring.

As we start to finalize our schedule for spring, we will reach out to make some concrete plans.

Best

Hi Alex,

Thank you for reaching out.

Yes, I would be very happy to teach PA 470 in-person and/or online in Spring 2023.

Please advise if you need anything from me.

Thank you very much!

Best,

Tae Hyun

Thanks, Kirssa. Great summary.

Tae Hyun Lim's email address is: [REDACTED]

He is due to teach 470 online in session 2 of Fall. He is based here in Tucson, so teaching online should be possible in Spring if he is up for that.

Cheers

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.
2. Carolyn Barnett - POL/GWS 335 and ?
I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)
4. Xavier - is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCammon for online, would be good coverage
5. Daniel Aron and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
Excellent, thanks!
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.
7. Mike McCammon - PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online
I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

Hi Alex,

Your email made me think about Leonore's teaching. Before she switched to PA 330 a few years ago, she taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System along with PA 443: White Collar Crime. We could think about offering that class.

But I am happy to reach out to her to start a conversation about what her teaching plans are. I will let you know what she says.

Thanks, Angela. I suspect we will want something from Leonore Simon. However, not sure whether it will include ethics. Plus, I do not know if she is going to "demand" live online, again. I suspect we are running out of time on the opportunity for live online designation. So, could be good for us to reach out to her about modality before addressing classes specifically.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

(We can maybe chat about some rules for in person, too, like avoiding the 2.5 hour blocks during business hours.)

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Hi All,
Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CIS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CIS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load. [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,
Kirssa

Yeah. Was a student of Tom's here in the 80s and then did a PhD at Chicago before holding a few different faculty roles. He and his wife moved back to Tucson last year.

Potentially helps out with intellectual/disciplinary diversity!

Sounds good.

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.
- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Rasha. We do not need 415 again.
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA480.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff [REDACTED]
7. POL361. As above.
8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibles" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Alex

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)
2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)
7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)

- POL 415 (Nahrain Rasha is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio [REDACTED]
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because [REDACTED]
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...

Happy weekend!

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

Hello All,
I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello All,
I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR – not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?
Thoughts? Thanks!

Quick follow up- Leonore has gotten back to me and she is able to teach online or in-person for SP23.

Here is what we have from SP22:

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person... Thoughts?

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

Hello All,

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :)) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Cheers

Hello Everyone,

Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McCamman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Let me know your thoughts-

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?

I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.

2. Carolyn Barnett – POL/GWS 335 and ?

I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn

3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?

Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)

4. Xavier – is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?

Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCammon for online, would be good coverage

5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go

Excellent, thanks!

6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)

That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.

7. Mike McCammon – PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online

I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Thanks, Angela.

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Cheers

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CJS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CJS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

Hi All

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

Cheers

I remain ambivalent about Thayer. We are probably due to run 361, but as Kirssa says, it would be a new prep for him. Otherwise, based on what I'm seeing, 485 didn't have tremendous numbers.

Good to know on Susan. FYI, this is she said on her teaching load:

[REDACTED] So, the planned courses look like this:

Fall 2022: POL/LAS 312, POL/LAS 347

Spring 2023: POL/LAS 348, LAS 445/545

Most of her courses are cross-listed POL (except LAS 445), although I'm not sure what the home department is for the POL/LAS cross-listed courses.

Hi all - some updates on spring 2023:

- Daniel Aron needs to develop a second Israel course, so we will skip PA/POL 419 in-person for spring 23
- Susan Osorio will teach POL/LAS 347 each fall so she will not offer that in spring semesters
- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

I am finally getting to my emails today!

I think it would be great for Jeff/Kirssa to reach out to the Adjuncts and see what their plans/interests are for teaching in SP 23. Below is a sample email Mark and I used to send them to verify all the info we needed to know (if it's helpful in your conversations). If they want to change their time/day preferences, we need to know pretty quick so that I can start to build the Visual Layout around the faculty requests.

Thanks so much! Let me know what you need from me

Greetings Betsy,

It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

The Fall 2022 semester class schedule August 22, 2022- December 7, 2022 (Final Exams December 9-15, 2022). Your Fall 2021 schedule was as follows:

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022.

Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her
- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.
- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Rasha. We do not need 415 again.
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA480.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff [REDACTED]
7. POL361. As above.

8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibles" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Alex

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)
2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)
7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rasha is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...
Happy weekend!

All sounds good to me for the 330/331 planning.

Angela: Do you mind sending your current version of full (UG and Grad) Spring 2023 schedule through? I'd like to take another look through, if I may.

That would be great.

Why don't we give Leonore a few more days before getting in touch with her about the fall. If she is out for 331 (maybe she would be willing to still do 443?), then we can sub in Dan.

That would also give us the opportunity to shuffle around the students already enrolled in her live online class; some can filter into Xavier's course and the others into Dan's (especially if we can aim for one MW and the other TR, or something along those lines).

I'm just realizing that we don't have PA 330 or 331 online for the fall (am I reading that right?). It should be okay, right, since it's just PMPC online students who might need that.

Hello All,

I can add another twist to this- Dan Grossenbach just emailed me today to let me know that he would consider teaching in-person as well, if the opportunity came up. Is it a stretch to ask him to do Leonore's PA 331 ethics course in-person for fall? Hers is now live-online...

And yes- right now, I have moved Leonore's Spring classes off the schedule (White Collar Crime and CJ Ethics).

Thanks both,

Let's give Leonore another day or two on 331 for this term. Moving Xavier over to cover it won't work.

I agree on Dan for SP23 PA 330. I think we have to operate under the assumption that Leonore is not teaching this spring. The question is whether we want to offer her classes at all. We can just bin them for one semester, or we need an entirely new adjunct.

On combining 330/331, that makes sense. It seems like the cleanest thing to do (although probably a lot of paperwork) is: Cancel one of them and change the relevant major requirements. That way there is just one number for both majors.

I think that makes a lot of sense to contact Dan Grossenbach for PA 330 the spring. I don't think Leonore will teach this spring. Did she happen to give us any more info about when she would decide for the fall?

And it seems like good timing to think about the 330/331 combo for fall 2023. That will let us think through whether it's a good idea or if we'll run into any problems.

I can also reach out to Emily Bonny to let her know that we won't have an online 330 this fall, but that (as usual) she can sub 331 if needed.

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello All,
I am almost ready to begin entering the SP23 into UAccess but I have one more 'red' course that we should revisit. I know we are discussing a combo PA 330/331 and maybe we put that together for a Fall 23 rollout (sort out the details on this and see if there are any limitations from RCS on doing this).

For right now, we are not offering an online PA 330 for Fall, just one, 50 seat in-person section that is over half full now (Stu Brody). We also have two in-person sections of PA 331 on the books for fall, but one of those is Leonore Simons course which is still in question. Her section is full at 50 and Xavier's course has about 5 students in it now. There are still many more orientations this summer so this will likely increase.

For Spring 2023, we have the following on the books:

PA	330	001	Ethics for the Public Administrator	TBD			50	NEEDS INSTRUCTOR – not in schedule yet
PA	331	101	Ethics for Criminal Justice	ONLINE	ONLINE	ONLINE	50	Segura, Xavier
PA	331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	12:30pm	1:45pm	50	Simon, Leonore

Would you like me to reach out to Dan Grossenbach for Sp23 PA 330 online again this next spring? He has taught this for us 4 or 5 times (and is teaching it online this summer). That way, we know we have enough seats committed if Leonore isn't able to teach?
Thoughts? Thanks!

Quick follow up- Leonore has gotten back to me and she is able to teach online or in-person for SP23.

Here is what we have from SP22:

PA		331	001	Ethics for Criminal Justice	MW	2:00PM	3:15PM	50	Simon, Leonore
PA		443	001	White Collar Crime	MW	4:00 PM	5:15 PM	50	Simon, Leonore

She has also taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System which hasn't been taught in a while. And Xavier is doing 331 online, Leonore could do a section in-person... Thoughts?

Thanks for this, Angela. We're coming along well!

- I like the idea of giving Brad two choices: either do a combined 446/546 in the evening, or just 446 for UGs during the day (and not a 2.5-hour block). I was a bit nervous about whether 446 will fill since he is offering it in back-to-back semesters, so co-convening might be a nice solution.
- The remaining issue I see with the 2.5-hour blocks is Pat Willerton's POL 451 (Russia FP), which is 3:30-6:00 Tuesdays. Does he have some sort of exception to teach during that time, or can we get it changed?
- I'm open to the idea of a combined 330/331 course. Let's explore that further, especially since we regularly let students sub one for the other depending on what's scheduled. But we should probably look for a PA 330 instructor for S23 since any change will take a while.

Otherwise, on board with Alex's suggestions to skip 344 and 406, and to schedule online PA 470 with instructor TBD (perhaps Tae again if interested or PhD student).

Hello All,

- We have talked with the advising team in the past about combining PA 330/331 and having PA/CJS ethics cases presented in the joint class. The advisors are in support of this idea since PMPC is so small in majors.
- And I have Tae on the books for PA 470 in-person for Spring 23, but I will leave the online section on the books with TBD for instructor.
- We have a few adjuncts in CJ who are only able to teach for us in the late afternoon/evening because of their current jobs (John Leavitt, Frank Hand, Chris Wilson, Jake Amaru)
- And I just looked up PA 446- there is an accompanying PA 546 so these could definitely be co-convened, if we want to go forward with that

Thanks, Angela,

I will leave it to Jeff and Kirssa to comment on how they'd like to go with the 330 and 331 options. The two classes being so closely related, after all.

Think we are fine without 344 if NOT being taught by one of our new CTs.

Think we are fine without 406.

We should offer an online 470. Maybe leave blank on instructor for now. Can then either offer to Tae (who I hope I have not cc'd again :)) or one of our PhD students.

Final other query: We do have a few evening classes still listed in the schedule, including 309 and 446. Are we going to request these change? Laura B. has asked that if we keep bradley's class as an evening class, we ask him to open it up as 446/546 co-convened, so MPA students can take it. But that becomes moot if we move to scratch all evening classes for UGs.

Cheers

Hello Everyone,

Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McCamman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Let me know your thoughts-

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.
2. Carolyn Barnett - POL/GWS 335 and ?
I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)
4. Xavier - is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCammon for online, would be good coverage
5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
Excellent, thanks!
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.
7. Mike McCammon - PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online

I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

2. Carolyn Barnett – POL/GWS 335 and ?
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
4. Xavier – is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
7. Mike McCammon – PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online

I will revisit all of this next week and send an updated schedule once I have some responses from the adjuncts.
Thanks- happy weekend!

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

(We can maybe chat about some rules for in person, too, like avoiding the 2.5 hour blocks during business hours.)

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CJS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CJS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

Hi All

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

- Daniel Aron needs to develop a second Israel course, so we will skip PA/POL 419 in-person for spring 23
- Susan Osorio will teach POL/LAS 347 each fall [REDACTED] so she will not offer that in spring semesters
- Betsy Palmer confirmed she wants to teach POL 407 and POL 408 fully online
- TBD on Carolyn Barnette, no response so far

If we could have more conversation on Brad Thayer (add POL 485, 361, or both) and Tae Hyun (add PA 470 in person, online, or both) that would be useful. I'm not sure where we landed on them.

I did not reach out to any of the others we had confirmed, only the ones with questions. Angela - not sure if it is useful or more confusing, but attached is the sheet I was using.

I should hear soon from Charlotte and Xavier, and will confirm their teaching schedule once I do.

Hello Everyone,

I am finally getting to my emails today!

I think it would be great for Jeff/Kirssa to reach out to the Adjuncts and see what their plans/interests are for teaching in SP 23. Below is a sample email Mark and I used to send them to verify all the info we needed to know (if it's helpful in your conversations). If they want to change their time/day preferences, we need to know pretty quick so that I can start to build the Visual Layout around the faculty requests.

Thanks so much! Let me know what you need from me

Greetings Betsy,

It is that time of year again to coordinate our FALL 2022 course offerings and we would like to confirm your course(s)!

The Fall 2022 semester class schedule August 22, 2022- December 7, 2022 (Final Exams December 9-15, 2022). Your Fall 2021 schedule was as follows:

Subject	Catalog	Section	Day	Start Time	End Time	Course Title	Enroll Cap	Instructor	Term	Start Date	End Date
POL	407	001	TR	9:30 AM	10:45 AM	Congress and American Politics (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22
POL	408	001	TR	11:00 AM	12:15 PM	Development of the American Presidency (WE)	40	Palmer, Elizabeth A	Fall 2022	08/22/22	12/07/22

Would you like to teach this course(s) again?

- If you would like to teach these courses/times/days again, I am happy to schedule them now
- If you would prefer a different meeting time/day, please let me know your preferences.

We are under some tight deadlines, so if you could let me know by Friday, December 10, 2021, that would be great. Please note that all teaching contracts begin one week prior to classes beginning for students. The Social Sciences Business Office will be reaching out to Fall Adjuncts to sign contracts sometime in July, 2022. Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi everyone,

Thanks for putting this together Angela, and for your thoughts, Alex. It seems to me like we can follow up on:

- Susan Osorio - will she do POL/LAS 347?
- Betsy Palmer - does she want to teach POL 407 & 408 (but especially 407) online?
- Daniel Arnon - does he want to do 419 in person (and delay developing the Israel course)? If not, we can skip 419 in person for S23.
- Brad Thayer - POL 485 or POL 361? Both or neither?
 - 361 has had higher enrollment lately, and wasn't offered lately, so might get more students. But he offered 485 for the first time S22, so might be nice to allow him to do it again rather than do a new prep. Or could do both if he's interested.
- Carolyn Barnette - I am nearly positive that Carolyn Barnett will offer Gender & Politics and propose one new course, but we can check in with her

- Tae Hyun - PA 470: add online and potentially in-person sections?

TBD:

- Mike McCammon - 206 or 241 depending on our CT hires
- Suzi Dovi - will she do POL 476 (women and the law) or stick with the plan to develop a new course on resistance? Wait to do this until we confirm with Charlotte, who may be interested in this course.

Things for Jeff & I to do:

- We need to see what Charlotte and Xavier want to do and see where their conversations with Edella went. We'll focus on PA 241 (in person and online), PA 410, and PA 331 (potentially both in person and online). Other options include PA 344 and POL 476.
 - As of now, I'm not sure where their discussion are re: Fall 22.
- Guidance on 101 vs 201 seats: I agree we should generally start increasing the 201 share where possible, and we can start using past enrollment trends to see where we can be more aggressive with this.
 - Specific courses to consider: ethics (330/331) and PA 470

To start, I am happy to reach out to Susan, Betsy, Daniel, and Carolyn. Perhaps we can confirm plans for Brad Thayer and Tae Hyun, then make plans to reach out to them both. Jeff and I will follow up with Charlotte and Xavier and thing more about the 101 vs 201 options.

Cheers,

Sounds good.

One additional thought. Brad Thayer (who taught 485 nat security) this past semester is a good option. Could either teach 485 again next Spring or some other course, including 419. Here is his discussion of what he is comfortable teaching.

United States foreign policy, international security, international relations theory, terrorism, international organization, comparative grand strategies, the causes of conflict, China and East Asian security issues, Russia and European security issues, political and social change and political violence, and cyber security and international politics

Cheers

Thanks for all that detail, Alex. I think this all looks sensible but I'll review it in greater detail this afternoon.

Just a note on my classes: 360 numbers were down this year, so I wouldn't worry about that. However, 361 was not taught this year and there probably would be demand for it. If we knew of a qualified adjunct, I think it would get decent numbers, but it's not essential.

Subject: Re: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

So many thanks for getting these conversations started, Angela.

A few general comments and then some responses to your specific questions.

- I think it would be good to check back with Jess and Christina. I believe some of the PhD offerings are going to have to change.
- It might be good to hold off a little while longer on the adjunct decisions until we have had a chance to finalize planning for Charlotte and Xavier.
- On the above, where do we stand on adding their classes for Fall (Jeff and Kirssa?)
- In general, I think we need to continue our push towards making sure that more of the online seats are reserved for 201 than for 101 students. There might be a couple of exceptions to this (476, for example). However, I think we need to start encouraging main campus students back in to the in person offerings where possible. Happy to have Jeff and Kirssa think over what makes sense on this.
- It would be great if you could reach out to Carolyn Barnett to get her preference on spring classes. She should be offering two classes in spring. I had previously discussed the possibility of gender and politics with her. That would be great.
- We are committed to offering something to Mike McCamman. I suspect it will be either 206 or 241 (depending on Charlotte and Xavier).
- I will take a look over possible PhD assignments for Spring to help gauge where we might need to find some cover.

On to your specific questions. Here are my initial thoughts. First the easy ones. (Sorry, not the same numbering as you had.)

A "yes" from me to your current plan for the following folks:

1. Brandon Tryon
2. Rich Harper
3. Rick Prater
4. Chris Wilson
5. John Leavitt
6. Judith McDaniel
7. Courtney Cooper
8. Ethan Orr
9. David Dow
10. Jake Amaru
11. Karen Clark
12. Chris Olson

A "no" from me on the following cases:

1. Colin Oglesbee. Assuming Charlotte will develop online 410, we probably do not need Colin in Spring.
2. Nahrain Rasho. We do not need 415 again.
3. Malcolm Goggin. I think once per year (Fall) is probably sufficient for PA480.
4. POL424 (digital politics). Probably fine without it for Spring.
5. PA344 (law and policy). Probably fine without it unless either Charlotte or Xavier want to teach this.
6. POL360. Fine to wait until Jeff [REDACTED]
7. POL361. As above.
8. POL419. We have Brint teaching it online. Probably fine to not have it in person. Another option is we ask Daniel Arnon to teach this. It is in his plans for some stage. Perhaps Spring it could be if we delay him offering a new Israel class?
9. I say we go without POL204 in person in Spring. We will offer it twice online and can keep some seats for main campus students.
10. POL297/397. Jess has been planning for this class not to be offered. Model UN has been suffering in terms of enrollments. So, let's skip it for a year and reassess.

Some "maybes" or "possibles" from me. I can always email these folks, if useful, to confirm plans:

1. Brad Thayer (POL485)
2. Susan Brewer-Osorio (POL347)

Next the ones that will likely require some more questions:

1. Betsy Palmer. I believe she might want to teach online. If that is the case, then yes to both classes. However, if she wants to be in person, we probably can not have her offer 407, as Lisa Sanchez will already be teaching that. If so, we need a different class for Betsy. Yes to 408 either way.
2. Our ethics offerings: PA330 and PA331. I think this all depends on what plan we have for Xavier. Is he teaching 331 in person and online? We need to get this determined and then build a plan for 330 and 331 around him. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
3. PA470. I say keep Suyeon's at 50 seats. We can have Tae Hyun offer either online (as he will in Fall) or even in person, if that is a priority. I am sure he'd appreciate an opportunity to teach in person. Heck, he might even be up for multiple offerings. We can then always augment with additional online sections from PhD students. So, I suggest, the UG team come up with a plan for how many seats would be preferred in different modalities and then we work on that.
4. You highlighted POL476 (women and the law). I noticed Suzi is down to teach a class on resistance. If that is the plan, then OK. But having Suzi teach 476 might be better, no? If not, perhaps Charlotte? Thoughts from Jeff and Kirssa?

Just my initial thoughts. Happy to hear what others think.

Cheers

Subject: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hello Everyone,

Please see the attached Adjunct list for SP23 invitations. These are all the SP22 adjuncts/courses rolled over (nothing new). The second tab is all the 'PA' courses that we have on the books if we want to review this and discuss teaching options with the new CT's for SP23 (maybe?).

Also attaching the first review of the UG schedule here. The Visual Layout IS NOT UPDATED- just ignore that tab.

Just let me know your thoughts on any of the following:

Plan to email next week with teaching invitation/confirmation (in person unless noted):

1. Betsy Palmer (POL 407 & 408)
2. Brandon Tryon (POL 309 & 470 Online)
3. Rich Harper (PA 347 & 352)
4. Rick Prater (PA 410)
5. Colin Oglesbee (PA 410 Online) Is this a new CT person?
6. Chris Wilson (PA 332)
7. John Leavitt (PA 340)
8. Judith McDaniel (POL 469 Online)
9. Courtney Cooper (PA/POL 479 Online)
10. Ethan Orr (POL 210- needed for Ed Students)

Need Feedback on (in person unless noted):

- PA 297B (David Dow?)
- POL 309 (Jake Amaru)
- PA 330 (Fall, in-person with Stu Brody and online with Dan Grossenbach)
- PA 331 (fall online with Leonore Simon)
- PA 337 (Karen Clark)
- PA 350 (Chris Olson)
- POL 415 (Nahrain Rasha is noted- is this still accurate?)
- PA 480 (Malcolm Goggin- online)
- POL 485 (Brad Thayer)

UG courses not rolling over but might be needed:

- POL/LAS 347: Politics of Latin America – is this for Susan Osorio
- POL 424: Politics in the Digital Age (Yotam is offering it in-person for SP23)
- PA 344: Law and Public Policy
- POL 360: International Political Economy
- POL 361:
- POL/PA 419: Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Pinch Points in 'Big picture':

- POL/LAS 204 (Comp Pol) Any Thoughts on this?
- PA/SOC 241 001 - Brad requested PA 450 & 446, not 241 for Spring. We need 250 in-person seats- is this something for a new CT?
- POL 297/397 (Model UN) Any thoughts on this for SP23? Jess will be doing POL 697D, E, & F
- PA 470 001 – (Public Org Mgmt) Can we increase in-person section to 100 capacity (Suyeon Jo) because
- PA 470 101/201 – We need an online section as well
- POL 476 001- (Women and the Law) Neither Judith or Suzi are offering this in SP23 and we will need it (it's popular online and in-person)

I think it's time for me to go home...

Happy weekend!

Hi Sabryna. I received this notice which seems to show me as the instructor for PA330 this summer. Is this correct? Can you please send me the classes I'm signed up to teach (or where I can access this info myself)? I have some things going on this summer and may need to shift some things around if I'll be teaching.

Thanks

Hello Instructor Grossenbach,

This is a friendly reminder that we have not yet received an adoption for your Summer 2022 PA 330 - 101, 201 Seven Week - First Course Materials. The adoption deadline was February 14th which has recently passed. If you haven't already done so, place your textbook adoptions at <http://uabookstores.arizona.edu/faculty/default.asp>. If you find that you need assistance with the ordering process in the link above, please email us at UABKS-textbook@email.arizona.edu or call 520-621-8868.

If you DO NOT require or recommend materials for your course, please indicate "NO TEXTBOOK REQUIRED" on the order form. By submitting a "NO TEXTBOOK REQUIRED" adoption, you help us stay in compliance with HEOA Guidelines, assisting students to make informed choices when they register for classes.

Due to the national paper shortage, we are experiencing delays when receiving print versions of books. An option you might consider to get around this is adopting your required title through our Inclusive Access program which will allow students to have digital access the first day of class to the title directly through D2L at a lower price than print! If you choose to go with Inclusive Access, please make sure to indicate "INCLUSIVE ACCESS" on the adoption form. Here is a link to more information about the Inclusive Access program:

<https://shop.arizona.edu/textbooks/Inclusive.asp>. If you have any questions regarding this, please send us an email at the Inclusive Access email provided below.

If you have already submitted your adoption and received a confirmation email, please disregard this message.

Sabryna,

I hope you're as well as can be this summer. This summer session has been a joy to teach and I'm glad I was given another opportunity to do so. As the current PA330 class I'm teaching concludes this week, I was wondering what needs the department has next that I can help fill. Do you know when I'm slotted to teach the next course?

Good Morning,

Thank you for reaching out regarding your summer class, and I deeply apologize for the confusion.

It seems PA330, which you taught last summer, was rolled over into Summer 2022, and in Mark's transition out and my transition in, there was oversight regarding PA330's status for Summer 2022; as such, we currently have PA330 scheduled Online for 7WK1 (May 16 – July 1, 2022) for Summer 2022. If you are able and willing to teach PA330 this summer, the department would be extremely grateful - again, I truly apologize for this oversight, please let me know how you would like to proceed.

Thank you!

Hello Everyone,

Just wanted to update you that I have heard back from all the adjuncts I reached out to and I have attached an updated version of the SP23 here.

Exciting note that 7.5 WK I and 7.5 WK II sessions are currently balanced at 10 classes each (if we add the 3 classes below)

Needs for SP23:

- PA 330 001 (in person—Stu Brody is teaching it this fall, but it could also be Dan Grossenbach online)
- PA 344 101/201 (7.5 WK II) this is Law and Public Policy and doesn't have anyone assigned
- PA 406 101/201 (7.5 WK I) This is a maybe- we are offering it in fall 22 with Mike McCamman and may not need to be offered
- PA 470 101/201 (7.5 WK II) I have added Tae to an in-person section, but we may need this online section

Leonore got back to me and told me she is checking with her physician about whether she should return to the classroom for spring.

Let me know your thoughts-

Subject: RE: SP23 Adjuncts Invitations and UG First Review

Hi all,

I've now heard from almost everyone I was in touch with. Angela - updates to your questions below:

1. Suzi Dovi for POL 476 or POL 428?
I will email Suzi about 476 to see what she wants to do. I've confirmed that Charlotte will not be teaching it in the spring.
2. Carolyn Barnett – POL/GWS 335 and ?
I think this is right, but have yet to hear back from Carolyn
3. Charlotte - Sp Classes?
Just emailed you! 241 in person (100 seats), 421 online (session 1), 410 online (session 2)
4. Xavier – is he teaching the PA/SOC 241, 250 seat in-person class or a smaller one?
Can we do 100 seats for Xavier this spring? We thought having both Charlotte and Xavier at 100 for the spring, plus perhaps Mike McCommon for online, would be good coverage
5. Daniel Arnon and I are working on his new course so it will be ready to go
Excellent, thanks!
6. Tae Hyun- can I add PA 470 in person for him (right now, I only have Suyeon's 50 in-person seats)
That would be ideal. I don't have his contact info and haven't been in touch with him to confirm this works for him; not sure if anyone else has reached out to him yet on this.
7. Mike McCommon – PA/POL 206 or PA/SOC 241 Online
I'm leaning 241 so that we have some online coverage of that course - but anyone else can feel free to add to this one.

Your email made me think about Leonore's teaching. Before she switched to PA 330 a few years ago, she taught PA 441: Women in the Justice System along with PA 443: White Collar Crime. We could think about offering that class.

But I am happy to reach out to her to start a conversation about what her teaching plans are. I will let you know what she says.

Thanks, Angela. I suspect we will want something from Leonore Simon. However, not sure whether it will include ethics. Plus, I do not know if she is going to "demand" live online, again. I suspect we are running out of time on the opportunity for live online designation. So, could be good for us to reach out to her about modality before addressing classes specifically.

Hi All,

I think I have too many random tidbits of information in my brain right now... I do now recall that Karen wanted to teach in in the 7 WK format. I will see if I can't coordinate Karen and Chris so that one is 7 WK I and the other in 7 WK II.

And I agree that it would be great to have a few 'rules' to scheduling for people...the daytime 2.5 hour classes just don't work for students. One more I'd like to add is that they have to select at least two blocks of time when doing the teaching requests...Christina and I are struggling with a few people because we have such limited options.

I plan to email all the adjuncts on my list tomorrow so I hope to have a much more polished schedule for you all by next week Friday.

I also think it's better to move to 7.5 week sessions for online if Chris is willing. It'd be nice to standardize course scheduling for the online offerings.

(We can maybe chat about some rules for in person, too, like avoiding the 2.5 hour blocks during business hours.)

Hi Angela

You might recall that Karen actually requested to move to a 7.5 week session. So that works well. I'd suggest asking Chris if he'd be willing to make the switch, too. If he is reluctant, we can possibly still offer as 16 week.

Just my thinking.

Hi All,

I have one quick follow-up on the adjunct invites - I can see that Karen Clark (PA 337) and Chris Olson (PA 350) are both full semester online courses- should I request that they both pick a 7.5 Week session to teach in rather than continue teaching the full semester online courses?

Thanks!

Hi all,

Confirmed from Edella that Susan [REDACTED] I think planning on her doing POL 347 each fall is useful moving forward.

Thanks, Angela.

Kirssa: Would you mind following up with Edella to let her know what Susan mentioned to you about her teaching? I think it probably needs to be Edella who follows up with Susan and Marcela (in LAS) to confirm the plan.

On 470: Let's plan on opening up a second in person section and perhaps one online section, as well. We can then confirm instructors in due course, understanding that if we are short on people to teach, we can always drop the online section before registration opens.

Cheers

Alex

Hi All,

Thanks Alex- just a quick follow up that only POL/LAS 347 is 'owned' by SGPP. The other courses for Susan are simply cross-listed with us, if that matters.

For PA 470- since this is for CJS and PMPC, we may be able to not offer an online section of this in spring since we don't have CJS up yet, but I do think we will need more than 50 seats for main campus. For Fall 21, we filled the 50-seat main campus class, plus 43 additional in online (in 2 sections). And in Spring 22, we filled 73 seats for the main campus section (2 sections) and just 8 online (in one section).

Hi All

All of this sounds good.

I would go with what Edella said for the Susan load [REDACTED] — I was not. Could be good to ask Edella if she'd like to chat with Susan about this. It may be that two of those courses are housed in POL first anyway, which is really all that would matter.

I am fine with us skipping Thayer for now. Maybe we keep him on the back burner as an option. I will wait and see if he reaches out to me rather than proactively getting in touch with him.

Then, whatever you think we need for PA470. We have one in person section confirmed with Suyeon. What do we want on top of that?

Cheers
